Editorial Comment

Saturday, June 24, 1922 will long be remembered around the district. It was a splendid day. True, we could have done with it a little cooler; but still, that was better than rain. The heat did not stop the people from turning out to the Union School Picnic at Lake Musselman, where, had we had rain, these things would not have been the same. And there was a crowd. The young, the middle aged and the old folks all enjoyed themselves. And why wouldn't they? We had not been to the lake before. What a splendid place. The lovely stretch of water, the splendid shade trees, etc., all seem to say "Come and enjoy yourselves."

So Stouffville is fortunate to have such a capable addition to its mistle and literary staff and you are lucky to fall into congenial atmosphere where this part of your life will be appreciated full value. Therefore, you have apparently a road to travel and we that are away from you will get quickly into and acquainted with your new surroundings so that you can mirror Stouffville as its faithful and fully week by week.

Yours very sincerely,
Henry S. O'Brien.

Sports

The Stouffville Ball team were bumped up against hard luck at Sunderland last Friday. From the start the game was stubbornly contested, and some good play was witnessed, the teams standing even up till the eighth, when the fatal blow came. It was in a very unexpected form. The Stouffville pitcher, who was in his favor, he was hit on the jaw. It took some considerable time before he regained consciousness. He was attended by Drs. Freeland and Sangster. It being discovered that a bone had been broken.

The accident had the effect of upsetting the team, and after this they had to retire on the short end of a 5-3 score. It was hard lines on Stouffville.

CLAREMONT

Mr. Peter MacNab, arrived home from Harrison, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. McFarlan, and son, Scott, Monday.

A dangerous fire started in the Cooper Store, Tuesday morning. It appears the gasoline engine caught from being overheated but was put out in a few minutes.

Quite a number motored to pickering village one evening last week to attend the Presbyterian, Stawberry Festival and Garden Party and on the side to see our young men do up the Pickering Football Club as usual.

A bad accident happened to Alfred Lemon at Evans saw mill, when he caught his hand in the saw and severed it at the wrist.

A large crowd of people at Altona last Sunday at the Imersons.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Chandor of Toronto were at J. H. and Mrs. Beal's on Sunday last.

Don't forget to attend the big Field Day and Garden Party in Memorial Park, Stouffville, on July 1st. Sports all day. Concert in the evening.
