Rev. Mr. Olmstead attended the funeral of Mr. P. LaFraugh, on Monday, and afterwards called on some of his friends.
 Cast aside your work and care, And join the crowd at Markham Fair.
 View the exhibits there.
 As well as costumes ladies wear.
 Rev. T. W. Lane, Chas. Harper and Mr. Crummie attended General Conference, on Tuesday.
 Mrs. Staley is not improving in health, as much as hoped for. We had sympathetic enquiries from various persons.
 Miss Edith Johnson and friends, from Toronto, visited at Mrs. C. Johnson's on Sunday, and had a visit to the woods, where the sound of the wood-cutter will be heard soon.
 The School Fair was well attended and the exhibits were well worth the effort which was put forth to gain such results. There was a decided improvement noticeable. The drills and public speaking contest were also to be commended. The races showed the agility of the children in the line of athletics, and all seemed to enjoy the excitement.
 The array of eatables looked very tempting, and some cakes were bought.
 An incident happened which was not quite so pleasant, when Mr. Sam Irwin's horse took fright, and ran away, upsetting the buggy, and damaging it. Fortunately no one was hurt, the buggy being empty at the time the horse broke loose, frightened by a football.

FOR YOUR FALL HUNT.
 Hundreds of sportsmen in Canada take their vacation in the hunting season. They are now getting their equipment ready for the chase. The question "Where to go" is the all absorbing one. A region easily accessible that insures real sport and game in plenty is the object. Let the Canadian National Railways introduce to you the "New North," that vast area in Northern Ontario and Quebec traversed by the Transcontinental Line between Winnipeg & Quebec City. It is virgin country for the hunter, and Moose particularly are plentiful. Apply to any Agent of the Canadian National Grand Trunk Railways, or write C. K. Howard, General Tourist Agent, Toronto, for illustrated booklet "Where to Hunt, Fish and Paddle in the 'New North.'" It gives complete information.
