

BONAR LAW SUCCEEDS HLOYD GEORGE

AS PREMIER OF GREAT BRITAIN

Entire Coalition Government Followed the Prime Minister Into Retirement—His Majesty Summoned Bonar Law to Form a New Ministry

London, Sept. 21.—The resignation of David Lloyd George, after having handed the resignation of the Government to His Majesty, through the King's seven critical years, resigned on Thursday. A new ministry will be formed.

At the same time Lloyd George, it is understood, advised the King to send for Bonar Law to form a new Government. Bonar Law had led the Coalition Government with him into retirement, when the Unionist party, at a meeting held at the Carlton Club, voted 286 to 87 against the proposal of Austen Chamberlain, the Unionist party to remain in the Coalition and favoring a general election to confirm that course.

The Coalition Government, however, was not to be dissolved. The Coalition Government, however, was not to be dissolved. The Coalition Government, however, was not to be dissolved.

LLOYD GEORGE IN A FIGHTING MOOD. The Welsh wizard again astonished his critics by his attitude he has adopted toward the political situation. He is turning the election demands of his opponents to his own use. His Manchester speech fore shadows an appeal to the country.

Rural Credits in Canada

The national growth of Canada depends upon the development of her natural resources. It is, particularly in the case with regard to the settlement of land and agricultural production. Coincident with this is the question of the progressive agriculturist must be made in the position where he is to secure the use of funds for development of a home or the expansion of his farming operations, such as increasing the acreage for cropping purposes or adding to the number of his live stock.

Motion Which Caused

A despatch from London says:—The vote of the Conservatives at the Carlton Club was taken on a motion by Colonel Petyman, Unionist member for the Chalfont division of Essex, which read:—Resolved, that the members of the House of Commons declare their opinion that the Conservative party, while willing to cooperate with the Coalition Liberals, should fight the election as an independent party with its own program.

Canada to Send Exhibits

Canada will participate in the British Empire Exhibition to be held in London in 1924. An announcement to this effect being made by Premier King. Mr. King stated that the extent of Canada's participation depended on the amount of what the various provincial governments were prepared to contribute. The exhibition and exhibits now being awaited. Mr. King pointed out that the cost of the exhibition would be approximately $10,000,000. It is expected that the exhibition will be a success.

Yukon is Now Cereal Producing Country

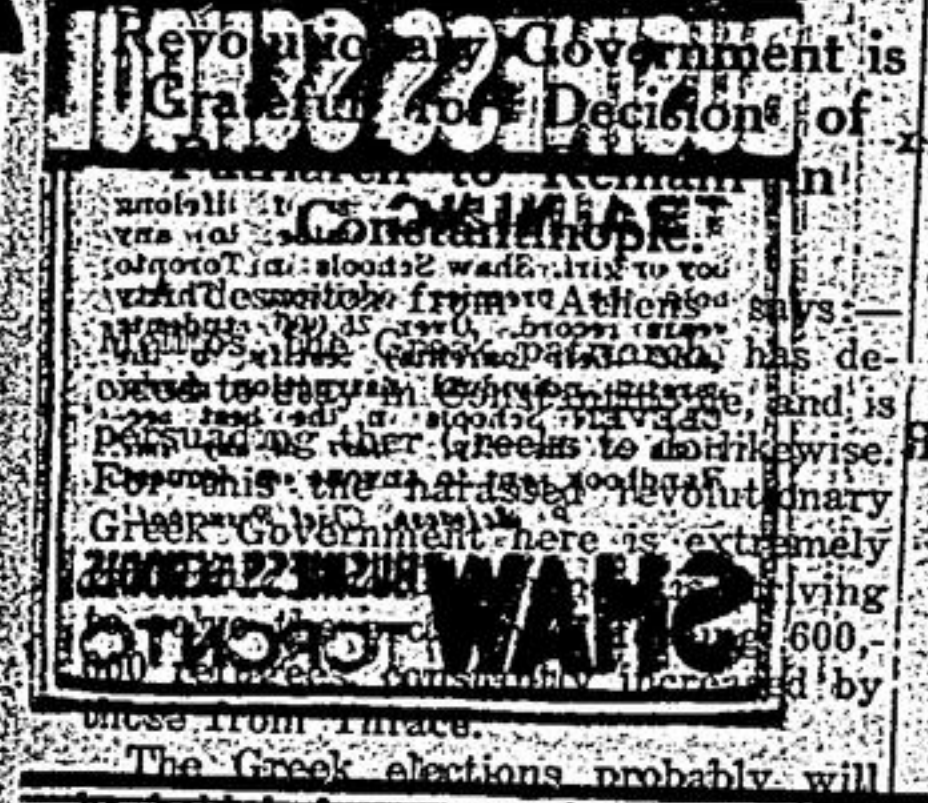

Canada's cereal producing area has been extended to the Yukon. Flour made from Yukon-grown wheat is now on sale in Dawson. James Parr, Superintendent of the Dominion Experimental Farm, near Dawson, has raised a fine crop of wheat. The crop is in excellent shape and is estimated to contain 12 per cent of protein.

WANT TO PREVENT

On the other hand, the followers of Lloyd George let perfectly secure of going before the country buttressed by the support of nearly two-thirds of the Conservative party. When the result of the election was announced, it was at first reported there must have been some mistake, but when the figures were verified the anti-Coalitionists were jubilant, while the Coalitionists were simply astounded.
