The Calgary Herald of Dec. 2nd, contains an account of a remarkable feat accomplished by an. Alberta farmer, who hauled 1144 bushels of wheat 22 miles, in 8 wagons drawn by 15 teams of horses and mules, driven by 1 man, and then unloaded into the elevator in 1 hour and 17 minutes, without unhooking a single animal. Another farmer took in 913 bushels, with 10 teams, and 5 wagons. It was pure friendly rivalry which caused the men to haul such enormous loads.

The death occurred in Toronto at the home of Jas. Andrews, on Thurs day, Dec. 7th, of Wm. H. French, formerly of Newmarket. The late Mr. French bought the harness business of Mr. F.
