HERE AND THERE IN THE DISTRICT

The usual run of suckers is reported from Wilcox Lake, one man having caught more than one hundred last Saturday night.

Naughton Bros. of Aurora, formerly of Elgin Mills, who for a number of years carried a large stock of groceries, fruits, dry goods and boots and shoes, have sold their business to Mr. R. L. Davidson of Yorkton, Sask., formerly of Cookstown.

Last week's Uxbridge Journal, the only Liberal paper in North Ontario has this to say: "Stouffville is making a great fight to get a new Post Office building which they claim is badly needed to meet the requirements of the town. Lakefield, near Peterboro, has a fine Post Office building although a smaller town. We believe Stouffville is justified in making demands for a new building."

Samuel Duckworth, a farmer living near Newmarket, was arrested in that town on Saturday, charged with an infringement of the Pur Food Act. It is alleged that Duckworth went from house to house selling butter of an inferior variety in which fat was one of the principal ingredients. As he asked only 45 cents a pound for his product, he made a number of sales, as the regular market price is over 50 cents. He appeared before Police Magistrate Clay on Monday, and was remanded for trial for a week.

The spring freshets have wrought havoc with the dam at Willow Lake near Unionville, washing out a big slice of the embankment and destroying abutments. Mr. Enock Thomson, the owner of the pond, spent five or six thousand dollars on the dam last summer and fall—a total loss.

Markham Board of Trade and Council are likely to unite in leasing the grounds of the Markham Agricultural Society for use during the summer as a park and baseball field. The rental is to be $350 for the season. The society receive a very good revenue from the grounds during the season, for the main building was leased as a rink at a rental of over $600 for the winter.

Farm lands continue to sell well in York County, despite the low prices generally prevailing for all kinds of grain and farm produce. One of the latest to be sold is that of John Forester, on lot 2, con. 3, Whitechurch, two and half miles from Yonge Street. This valuable farm has been turned over to Robt. Milne, of Richmond Hill for $11,000. The buildings are fairly good and the land moderately heavy and the farm is within easy access of the good road system.

Ed. Wurm's bus team in charge of driver Travis, took a notion to bolt for the lively barn while standing at Markham station on Monday morning last week just as the 8.40 passenger arrived, and while the driver was busy with the mail bags. The driveway to the station yard was partially blocked by a big milk truck and Wm. Thomas's wagon. Mr. Thomas was engaged in transferring his milk cans to the truck when the bus team emerged from the yard and the bus struck his wagon, upsetting it and throwing out his 7-year-old grandson Lionel Trinnell of Toronto who received two broken fingers.

Geo. B. Padgett of Markham township is reeve of a municipality which has no debenture debt, a comparatively low tax rate, and a surplus from last year. He is also Warden of York County, and the crack bowler of the Council five-pin league. Yet George is not satisfied until the barren sand wastes of King township are reforested, the suburban school problem solved, the St. Lawrence Market re-organized, and the qualified assessment of Markham township reduced to a minimum. He is striving hard to accomplish all these things, and, as a natural result is one of the busiest municipal men in Ontario. When he was elevated to the Warden's chair, by acclamation last January, he surprised the Council by announcing a policy he intended to carry out, during the year. So far he has lived up to his platform.—Era.
