IF you get acquainted with the scientific truths about Chiropractic you will be on the way towards an improvement of your physical condition. A Chiropractic analysis and adjustment will give each part of your body a full supply of nervous energy.

MONDAY, WEDNESDAY & FRIDAY 9 TO 12 A.M. AT STOUFFVILLE, ONT.

MORE HOUSES ARE TO BE BUILT HERE

Stouffville will experience a real building boom this coming summer. At the present time there are four houses to be erected, and prospects that as many more will be built before the summer is over. With the advent of hydro into this municipality it leaves nothing to be desired in the way of conveniences demanded by the public. A twenty-four hour lighting service and one of the best domestic water services in Ontario, gives us all that the city chaf has and can possibly get and more, and coupled with this we have cheap taxes and the beauties of country life, which the city cannot provide. We expect when our friends out of town read this they will rush here and buy up the vacant lots so they can get located in a town that is growing steadily while the tax rate is decreasing.

JACK MINER AT UNIONVILLE

"Jack Miner, Canada's greatest Naturalist will give his lecture and moving pictures on birds, from personal experience and observation, at Unionville Market Building on Wednesday, June 6th. Afternoon lecture at 4 p.m. for children, admission 10c, teachers free. Evening lecture at 8 p.m.; admission, adults 50c., children 25c. Those that have heard these lectures will want to hear them again and those that have not have a big treat in store for them.

DISTRICT NEWS

Richmond Hill will hold an Old Boys Reunion early in August.

Remember the Metropolitan Railway operates on Daylight saving time.

The Presbyterian church at Columbus will celebrate its 50th Anniversary on June 3rd, with a jubilee Sunday.

The semi-annual meeting of North Ontario Loyal Orange Association will be held in Sunderland on Tuesday, May 29th.

Whitby has a tax rate this year of 45 mills, an increase of six mills over 1922. Street paving and an overdraft of $8,000 from last year are given as the cause for increase.

The Methodist church circuit of Richmond Hill and Victoria Square reports a membership of 323, and the Ladies Aid have a bank account of over $300.

The remains of the late Miss K. Carpenter, who was killed in a motor accident in Pickering village, were interred in the cemetery at Virginia near Sutton, after an impressive service in St. Anthony's church adjoining the burial grounds.

Newmarket Board of Trade is appealing to the Council to adopt daylight saving. Toronto, so far, is about the only place with it's nose out of joint in this respect at present. In fact not more than a dozen towns in Ontario have adopted daylight saving time.

Mr. Milton Graham of Mount Joy has sold his neat brick residence on Wales Ave., North Markham, to a namesake, Mr. Graham for $5,000. Mr. G. W. Wilson, acting for Mrs. Ingram, sold her brick residence on Main street, North Markham, at present occupied by A. Forster, to Henry Johnson, for $5,000. These are both substantial homes.

Margaret C. Heise of Newmarket, who died April 12th, left an estate valued at $5,602. This amount consists of $300 household chattels, $240 cash in bank and property on Yonge street, Newmarket, valued at $5,062.43. She directed her two children, Orville D. and Velma Grace Heise, should equally divide the estate.

The Toronto Presbytery has accepted the resignation of Rev. W.M. Hay, minister of Richmond Hill and Thornhill, and he will be released on May 28th. It was stated by Mr. Hay that he had taken this step because he was dissatisfied with both the union and anti-union proposals. He was taking his certificate from the Presbyterian church and entering the Anglican church, he said.

GOODWOOD

Miss Legate spent a few days in Toronto this week. The correspondent is visiting in Toronto this week. J. Reid can give you an idea of what it costs to have a house remodeled. The blossoms and leaves are doing their best to make a good showing for the 24th. Rev. T. Legate's son motored out from Toronto one day, returning accompanied by his sister. The rain certainly descended on Sunday, and instead of "Go to church Sunday" it was the reverse "Stay at home." There was an adjourned meeting of the Quarterly Board held at the church on Friday evening. Mr. T. Downswell was appointed lay delegate to the district meeting. Quite a number were absent on Sunday on account of rain, so the Sunday program was not as expected. Miss Baker, sister of Mrs. Lane was visiting her sister over the week end and returned Monday accompanied by Miss E. Johnson who is visiting her sister and other friends. The League on Wednesday 16th was under the direction of the Missionary Vice Pres. Miss Johnson. There was a short talk given by Miss Milan on the Bible, also there were some other items from the Romance of the printed page, in the "World's Friendship," by Dr. Murray. The Women's Institute held their election of officers, the former president Mrs. J. Askenhurst being re-elected. A paper on "Mother's was read by one of the members, another on "Friendship."

The special meeting addressed by delegate will be held on May 29th in the Town hall. Mrs. T. Baston has charge of the vacuum cleaner, which may be used by the members who desire it if called for, and returned when through with.

6th LINE WHITCHURCH
The Literary Society expect to hold a debate in the school house in the near future and are likely to give the date and question to be debated next week.

The Baptist Young People's Union expect to motor to Toronto early in June to be entertained by the Immanuel Baptist B. Y. P. U.

EAST YORK HAS 65,000 VOTERS

The sage says it is better to be a big toad in a little puddle than to be a little toad in a big puddle. If Stouffville was a big factor in the voting power of North York elections, we have been reduced to less importance when shoved into the riding of East York by designing politicians. This riding to which we belong for provincial elections is one of the largest in Ontario. Sixty-five thousand voters are on the list. Fifty thousand of these are urban or city voters, while the remaining fifteen thousand are rural electors living in Markham and Scarborough townships and the Villages of Stouffville, Markham and Richmond Hill. The riding extends as far west as Woodbine Avenue in Toronto. There are indications that a three-cornered contest will be fought. Hon. G. S. Henry being the Conservative candidate, H. S. Clary the Liberal candidate and a U.F.O. candidate to be selected next Tuesday.

W. I. DISTRICT MEETING

The annual district meeting of the East York Women's Institute will be held in Ratcliff's Hall, Stouffville on June 6th. Business meeting to be held at 10.30 a.m. Branch reports, also Miss Scott representing the Federation will speak. Afternoon session which is open to the public will commence at 2.30 conducted by Mrs. Graves, district president. Speakers: Dr. Margaret Patterson, Police Magistrate, Toronto; Mrs. Peter McArthur, Mr. G. A. Putnam, Toronto, superintendent of Women's Institutes. A good musical program under the direction of Mrs. G. A. M. Davison, Unionville. You are invited to come and enjoy the afternoon with us.

24th MAY NOTES

Attend the picture show on the night of the holiday in the Auditorium. A good film has been secured. Then remember the dance in Ratcliff's hall, Orchestra.

The 24th May prizes are on view in W. H. Shaw's store window.

Stouffville Public School will take part in the school children's parade. The morning parade commences at 10 o'clock.

The small admission of 25c. to the grounds in the afternoon is the biggest bargain since Noah floated the ark.

Markham, Unionville, and Goodwood will be here in great numbers. Now it's all up to the weather man.

God Save the King!

THE FIGHT IN NORTH YORK

Newmarket, May 20.—At a Conservative organization meeting in Newmarket last Saturday, T. Herbert Lennox, M.P.P., officially intimated that he would not stand as Conservative candidate for North York at the coming election. Col. Lennox explained that since the last election he had been appointed counsel for the Toronto Transportation Commission and this work occupied seven-tenths of his time. It was decided to hold the nomination meeting next Saturday. The same afternoon in Newmarket Jas. Cooper, a Schomberg farmer, was unanimously elected as the U.F.O.-Labor candidate for North York. About sixty people attended the convention, at which John Hope, president of the U.F.O., North York presided. There were six nominations:—R. W. E. Burnaby, James Cooper, S. P. Foote, E. Marchant, S. Osborn and Mrs. W. Wilcott. The various nominees were called on to speak. R. W. E. Burnaby after an attack on J.M. Walton, the Liberal candidate withdrew. S.P. Foote who was the U.F.O. candidate at the previous election, said that he had been appointed returning officer for the district, he could not stand. E. Marchant, S. Osborn and Mrs. Wilcott also withdrew in turn, leaving Mr. Cooper the only nominee in the field.
