Two weeks ago Mrs. Borinsky, who was only 52 years of age was removed to Toronto for treatment by a specialist, but it was all in vain. For eight years she and her husband lived on the farm at Lemonville and moved to Stouffville five years ago where they have since resided. Besides the father six children survive to revere the memory of a good wife and mother. They are: Mrs. Rapp of Toronto, Mrs. Fingold of Clarendon, Joseph of the Stouffville Creamery, Jacob of Mount Albert, Harold of Goodwood and Norman who is attending school in Stouffville.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones, Stouffville, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on June 20th at 3 p.m., when their only daughter Leona H. was united in marriage to Cecil G. Sanderson, youngest son of Mrs. C. Sanderson, Bethesda. Rev. G. Coulter and Rev. W. Fleischer officiating. The bride who was unattended, was given away by her father and looked charming in a gown of pale pink satin with ivory radium lace, and carried Columbia roses. After the ceremony a reception was held at which some forty-five relatives and guests did honor to the occasion. Later in the evening the happy couple left for Toronto and other points by motor. Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson will make their home in Montreal.

There passed away in Stouffville on Friday, June 22nd, Mrs. Wm. Topham at the advanced age of 87 years. Deceased had been with her daughter Mrs. John H. Madill, Mill street, and from here the funeral took place on Monday to Stouffville cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Young of the Presbyterian church. The late Mrs. Topham was born in Toronto, but spent all her life on the farm in Markham, for many years living on the 6th concession where her husband died about 12 years ago. Since that time the one son William has operated the farm and the aged mother lived with him and in Stouffville. Besides the two children mentioned another son, George, lives in St. Catharines. Two sisters also survive, both living in Toronto. During her active life Mrs. Topham was closely identified with the Presbyterian church, and always enjoyed good health until a few weeks ago she fractured a leg by falling off a chair. From this she suffered greatly until the end came.

On Saturday afternoon during the summer months—the Hallburton special reaches here between 2 and 3 o'clock from Toronto, returning Sunday evening. Few towns, if any, can boast of better train accommodation than we have right here.

A number of Stouffville citizens were in Uxbridge on Sunday for the decoration day service at the cemetery. The Uxbridge Cemetery Co. have a wonderfully well-kept grounds, and they are carrying on in a successful manner. A vault has been erected on the grounds, and about the only thing lacking for a day like Sunday was a water supply. More than a thousand people were assembled for drinking water which was not to be had. A Stouffville citizen whose parents are buried there, and who holds the spot in sacred memory, tells us he is willing to make a liberal donation towards the construction of a suitable well with wind mill attachment.

We have read weird stories about people witnessing in the flesh their own burial, but last week a case arose in Stouffville where the lady nearly had an opportunity to witness the whole preparation for her funeral, including the preparation of the burial place in the City of the Dead, out on the 10th concession. It happened this way. Mrs. Abram Yake who was visiting her daughter in Toronto took ill there, and a phone message was sent out to Mrs. Jake Yake whose hearing is not very keen. The informant on the other end of the line stated that Mrs. Abram Yake was ill and "in bed." Mrs. Yake who took the message mistook the word bed for "dead," and immediately communicated the sad news that her sister-in-law had died suddenly. The husband was of course stricken, but he knew from experience that his wife had not been well, and bowed to the inevitable. The undertaker was engaged, and the plot made ready. Mr. Yake went to Toronto to accompany home his suppose departed wife. Joy that knows no bounds was his on arrival at his daughter's to learn that his good wife was still in the flesh, and although ill, was not in a serious condition.
