

THE NEW OVERLAND!

Attention to the higher hood and radiator, which certainly do make the new car most attractive is a feature of the new car.

Lower seats with an extension of the leg room for the driver distinguish the new car in so far as comfort is concerned. Triplex Springs, of course, are retained as this patented principle of spring suspension has proved a wonderful factor in protecting car and passenger from road shocks.

The new rear axle, has the special merit of being of the removal shaft type, making tearing down of housing unnecessary in case of emergency.

Don't forget the "Herb Lennox" picnic to be held at Island Grove near Jackson's Point on Monday, August 6th. It will be greater than ever this year. The Prime Minister and his cabinet will be there, an excellent opportunity to see and meet the new ministers.

The local crop of raspberries will be about all picked this week, excepting the Brandy Wine berries which are just coming on. One grower informs us that this is the finest berry to preserve, as they are free from seed, and are a fine quality. They are a large dark berry.

The Methodist picnic to Musselman's Lake last Friday was much enjoyed by the scholars. It looked like rain in the early part of the afternoon, but it did not materialize, and thus the youngsters and their elders were able to make merry all afternoon and after the supper hour.

Some one evidently bent on putting up a trick on John Spence of Whitechurch, indulged in a dangerous pastime on Saturday evening, when they took his car from opposite the Mansion House and removed it to the east end of the town. The car was undamaged and apparently none the worse for its removal, but Mr Spence was considerably delayed in getting home, on account of locating the necessary conveyance. Many hundreds of cars were parked on the Main street Saturday evening and until most of them moved off it was pretty hard to locate a stray bus.

Almost every week since the disappearance of Fred Pratt, proprietor of the Mansion House the Daily Star has run a two column story, parrot-like in its make-up in that it repeats the same story each time. This is only one phase of the cheap news provided, for the average citizens in Stouffville realizes what a lot of humbug statements are made in those articles. If the Star's desire is to grow big in size with this sort of news, it will grow equally small in the public estimation.

Lost—A small roll of bills. Finder kindly communicate with B.E.Beebe and receive reward.

On Monday evening the Menonite church was filled and chairs were placed in the aisles to accommodate the crowd who witnessed the illustrated lecture given by Rev. I. W. Sherk, who is on furlough with Mrs. Sherk from the mission fields of Nigeria, West Africa. Mr. Sherk threw on the canvas some 80 views illustrating the conditions and customs of the country in which the missionary labors there. He impressed the audience with the great need for christian helpers in that land, and fixed in their minds a picture which may be as a guiding star to the young people to turn their thoughts to this supreme work of carrying the gospel to every creature. In addition to the lecture, the views themselves were especially well selected and thrown on the canvas in an unusually clear form. Rev. and Mrs. Sherk who have been spending some time here will shortly leave for the States. Mr. Sherk is himself an American while his intelligent wife is a Canadian and also a gifted speaker.

Dr. Barker will not be in his office on Saturdays during the summer months.

Over Saturday night someone entered Swift's garage and made away with a new inner tube and a blow out patch. This petty theft was no doubt committed by some local party or parties who are strongly suspected. New tires in the building were not disturbed.

With the harvest at hand and the small boy with his pocket bulging out with green apples, one realizes that the summer is fast passing away. Just while we mention green apples however, let us remind the small lad that green apples and coulic are still as closely knit as ham and eggs.

Mr. Amos Lehman has installed a new model National Cash Register in his model shoe store. This machine registers the amount of the individual sale, the total day's sale, keeps track of cash or charge orders all of which must total out with the amount of cash in the cash drawer, otherwise someone has made a mistake in the giving of change.

On Saturday there were three or four suspicious looking characters in town, and because of their actions the police department in Toronto was notified. It was feared they might be connected with the gang who committed the robbery in Toronto last week, but they left town without any new developments.

Abram Yake of Stouffville has been raising a pen of prize ducks, but one afternoon last week he went out to find the whole eight of them lying dead. There were marks on the backs of each quack, but what put them there is still a mystery. Mr. Yake determined to find out, and suspecting a weasel or other small animal he set a trap that night. Next morning he was surprised to find a dog as the victim. Whether the canine was the perpetrator of the crime is not clear to anyone, but he got the benefit of the doubt and was set free.

Whitby has initiated an idea which lurks in the minds of certain Stouffville citizens, who have never succeeded in making it a reality here. What was just done in Whitby was to place four signs at each end of the town pavement, attractively painted with the following greeting to motorists entering town: "Welcome to Whitby—the County Town." Then on the other side, where the motorists will see it on leaving town, are the words "Whitby—Good-Bye. Call Again." Lights to illuminate them at night have yet to be put in place.

The other evening a young man driving a Ford car at a furious rate down Main street opposite Todd's shop just grazed the wheel of a farmer's buggy belonging to a farmer on the 10th of Markham. There was no necessity for running so close to the buggy unless it was that the lad was driving so fast he had not the car under control. When he saw what happened and heard the farmer yell, he looked about with a silly grin. It even looked sheepish, for we happened to be close by and saw it. Someone has said that it takes about 140 nuts to hold a Ford car together, and only one to hold it on the road, but that one ought to be endowed with more brains than a common one. We wouldn't say it, as the young man in question will no doubt read this item, so enough said. Drive slowly through the town, boys.

The bye-election for East York made necessary under the law by reason of Hon. George S. Henry being chosen for the cabinet, is set for Monday, August 27th. On this account the clerk of the Election Board for the riding, F.H.M. Irwin, must prepare a voters' list for same, and an advertisement calling attention to the revision of such list appears in this issue. The basis of the list will be the one used in the recent election, and every name on the list at that time will be on for a vote this time. Any whose names were omitted may have the error rectified by following the instructions as set out in the advertisement on page eight. While it is not anticipated that Mr. Henry will be opposed, the clerk of the Election Board must be prepared for any eventualities that may occur on nomination day. Instead of sittings being held in every municipality as was the case for the provincial election, a general sitting will be held in Toronto. Complaints must be filed not later than August 7th.

At a meeting of the Church Board of the Methodist congregation on Monday evening, an invitation was extended to the pastor Rev. Geo. E. Coulter to remain another year, the salary to be the same as the past year. Mr. Amos Lehman was appointed delegate to the District Meeting at Uxbridge, with Mr. Newton Rae as alternate. The matter of resigning the parsonage was discussed, and the work is likely to be done this fall.

What might have been a fatal accident happened to Mr. and Mrs. John Spence of the 6th concession, Whitechurch, on Tuesday evening, in their car they went up over a 4 foot embankment and down the other side, the car nosing into the ground, when they attempted to pass another auto about opposite Robt.
