

FOURTH LINE, MARKHAM
A large number met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fry, on Tuesday evening of last week, for the weekly prayer meeting, after which a social hour was spent and the following address read, preceding their departure to Mount Joy:
To Mr. and Mrs. Fry and family—
Tonight it gives us pleasure to meet in your home for prayer and praise for the fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above. It is a rare delight to meet three grown up generations in one home and each generation faithfully serving the King of Kings. We, your friends and neighbors, rejoice with you that God has blessed the members of this home with such a degree of health and vitality. Your family has grown from infants to manhood, and no break in the ranks. Especially has God shown his kindness in giving you Mr. Fry, Sr. to inspire and cheer after an experience of more than four score and ten years.

Your faithfulness to religious duties, your regular attendance at the services connected with the church, your never failing financial support, make us loathe to have you depart.
Little Arthur's smiling face and his tender words of inspiration will be missed by his class mates and teachers in both Public and Sunday Schools.
Our Church, our Sunday School, our League, our neighbors each will feel keenly the loss of the several members of your home, especially at this time when devoted servants of the Most High are in great demand in this part of God's vineyard.

We, your friends wish each of you God speed in your new home. We pray that ever your faith may be strong in following the blood stained banner of our King. May God's best blessing follow each one of you in whatever field of service you are called, and when the time of departure to your Heavenly Home arrives, may you have an abundant entrance into His everlasting Kingdom. Signed by
R. C. Gee, J. W. Brumwell
W. H. Willson, Ethel Morrison

RINGWOOD
Wm. Tinkler of Toronto was here last week attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Arthur D. Rayment whose death announcement appears in the Stouffville news items.
If Charlie Chaplin could see some of the impersonations of his famous baby moustache grown upon the upper lip of some of the swains in this section of Markham and Whitchurch Townships, he would turn green with envy, we are sure. The list includes all colors and sizes from ten hairs a side to three. We suggest that some of them should be irrigated to make them grow—and be seen.

NINTH LINE, MARKHAM
Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds spent Saturday in the city.
Mr. Hollinger spent the week end with his wife and family.
Miss Belle Grant is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Hillman.
Mr. and Mrs. Ham were visiting relatives in Scarborough on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Postill visited with Mr. and Mrs. McNeely last Sunday.
We wonder if Curly would like to teach any more girls how to skate or if one is enough.
Mr. Fry and family have got settled in their new home and we wish them every success.
Mr. and Mrs. Forster entertained a number of friends last Tuesday evening.
Mr. Morgan of Toronto has bought Mr. Carter's place and intends taking possession this week. We welcome Mr. Morgan and family to this neighborhood.

LEMONVILLE
There was a good attendance at the Methodist church on Sunday to hear Rev. Dr. Williamson who preached from the words in Rev. 5:1.
Miss Coulter, our teacher, was the guest of the Misses Rameer on Sunday.
Mrs. Kellington and Mrs. George McKuen have been indisposed. We look for their early recovery.
Misses Olive and Edna Tarr of Toronto were under the parental roof over Sunday.
Miss Ida and Miss Elsie Rameer have returned from a couple of weeks' holiday in Stouffville.
Wm. Kendall of Claremont visited at Mr. and Mrs. T. Drewry's last week.
Mrs. Cole of Aurora is the guest at Wm. Nesbitt's.
Remember the St. Patrick's Supper and concert on Friday evening, March 14th, in the Stouffville Methodist church.
