

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

The Chautauqua committee will meet at Mr. Geo. Baker's Music store next Monday at 8:30 p.m.

Another Stouffville boy whom we must congratulate is Fred Brillinger who has been successful in passing his fifth year as a Medical student.

A number of the school children in the lower grades were promoted this year on their term work, so were allowed to stop school last Friday night.

The residents of the East End of Stouffville were serenaded by the local band last Thursday evening. A number of selections were given and much appreciated.

Everybody Enjoys Ice Cream

And for the most wholesome and purest, try PORTER'S. Our parlors have been beautifully remodelled, so that the surroundings are ideal. Just imagine a dish of delicious Ice Cream, with a plenteous portion of your favorite crushed fruit flavor. Bricks or bulk for home service.

Porter's

PHONE 198

Sole agent for MOIR'S CHOCOLATES in Stouffville.

BANANAS

PINEAPPLES

ORANGES

STRAWBERRIES

TOMATOES

All Select Fruits

VISIT OUR ICE CREAM PARLOR

and be entertained with the crowd.

LLOYD TURNER

Phone 909

USE

Lehigh Valley Coal

It Lasts Longer. Burns Steadier. Gives More Heat
All sizes on hand.

SEEDS—Seed Corn, all varieties, A1 quality, price right, also full stock of Timothy, Red Clover, Alfalfa, Alsike and Sweet Clover.

Mangold Seed 35c. per lb.

Turnip Seed 55c. per lb.

FLOUR and FEED—Bran, Shorts, Sampson Chop, Barley Chop, Oat Feed, Oilcake, Manitoba Oats, Five Crowns Flour, Jubilee Pastry Flour.

W. S. COOK

Telephones—Office 169, Residence 171

We supply

Builders' Hardware

From Roof to Cellar.

For Roofing we recommend

NEPONSET
Paroid Roofing

One of the celebrated NEPONSET Roofing

Experience has taught us that it is the best and most reliable.

SCREEN WINDOWS

SCREEN DOORS

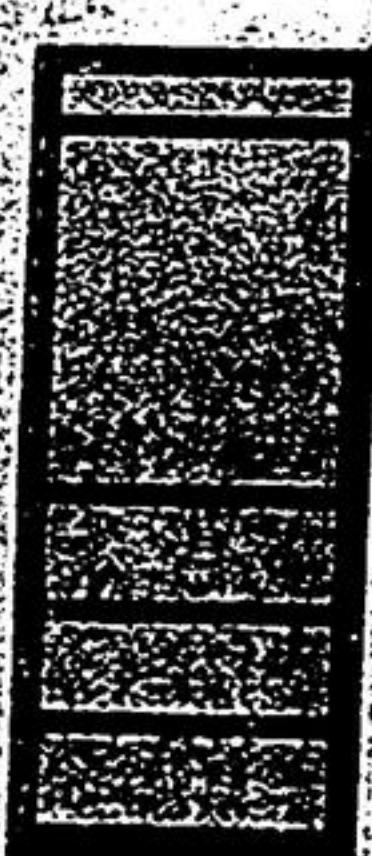

OIL STOVE SEASON

Make your kitchen comfortable this summer and do the cooking cheaply with a New PERFECT

TION or FLORENCE OIL STOVE and

OVEN. Safe, Clean, Simple. Pick out one from our complete stock.

After May 1st we open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights. Closed Friday afternoon.

SILVESTER BROS.

Porter's Ice Cream Parlor, A Haven of Rest for tired shoppers.

The Methodist Mission Band will conduct a refreshment booth on Saturday, June 21st, from 2:30 to 5:30 on Mrs. F. L. Button's veranda. Tea and sandwiches 10c. lemonade and cake 10c. Come and be refreshed.

Mr. H. J. Moore of Islington, who spoke here recently in the interests of the Horticultural Society is to give a free illustrated lecture in the Town hall, Markham, on Friday evening, June 20th, at 8 o'clock, and will speak on "Roses, and other flowers and how to grow them."

As if to compete in diminutive size with the Brown Leghorn hen belonging to Jacob Yake, one of H. Kirby's Barred rock hens in Ballantrae laid an egg last week nearly half as small as the one which has been on exhibition in the Tribune office.

Your attention is called to the Convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of York and Peel Counties in session here today and tomorrow, Friday, in the Presbyterian church. A most interesting address will be given this evening on "The Facts about Prohibition in Canada" by Rev. E. Thomas, D.D., of Toronto.

As our local school Board have the Penny Bank system under consideration, it is interesting to note that Toronto school children deposited in the Penny Bank during March $27,448.88 and in April $19,532.27. The children of Hester How School carried off the palm for the highest individual deposits of any city children with $1.14 each. The school of Cornwall, Ont., also had the same per capita deposits as the Hester How school.

Show your interest in the home town by inviting your friends to spend Dominion Day in Stouffville, and do what you can to make the day enjoyable for yourself and others. Get busy and talk about the wonderful time we are going to have right here in Stouffville on the 1st of July.

Union School Pic-Nic. The Union School picnic will be held at Cedar Glen Park, Lake Muskegon, on Saturday, June 28th. Senior Football, silver cups, $50, $30 and $20; Public School Football, $12 and $8.00; Ladies Baseball, $20 and $10. Races as usual will also take place. Stouffville Band in attendance. Admission, gentlemen 15c., ladies 10c., children free.

Preparation is being made for the camp meeting to be held under the auspices of the M.B.C. Church, from June 27th to July 6th, in Mr. Wm. Shank's bush. This grove is situated in an ideal location, about two miles north of Markham, on the eighth line, and campers are expected from many parts of the Province. These camps are annual occasions, the one last year being held here.

The President of the Bowling Club is presenting a scarf pin to the local club, which is to be played for in singles, under the following conditions. Each player uses 4 bowls, 16 ends, club rules to govern. Mr. F. L. Button to be the first wearer of the pin, and any one wishing to rob him of the honor, hands his name and 10c. to the secretary. The dime is only an evidence of good faith and goes to the club funds.

The bowler winning the most number of times before the first of October becomes permanent owner of the pin. The Vice-President, Mr. S. Armstrong settles any dispute, and his ruling in all matters to be final.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

The annual church parade of the I.O.O.F. No. 384, Stouffville, took place on Sunday afternoon, June 15. A number of visiting brethren were present from Markham, Agincourt, Uxbridge and Whitevale. The members met at the lodge rooms at 2:30 and formed in line, headed by the Stouffville band, and marched to the Presbyterian church, where a very appropriate sermon was delivered by the Rev. Robt. Young, taking for his text, Luke 10: 27, "Love thy God, and thy neighbor as thyself." Special music was rendered by the choir. After the service again headed by the band, they proceeded to the Stouffville cemetery to decorate the graves of ten departed brethren; a flower was planted on each grave, after which the lodge decoration services were conducted by the Noble Grand and Chaplin, or the local lodge. The band rendered the beautiful selection "Abide with Me" at the grave. The members formed in line and marched back to the lodge rooms. A couple of sacred selections were played in front of the lodge rooms, which were very much appreciated.

Meet your friend at Porter's Ice Cream Parlor.

Big doings in Stouffville on July 1st. Baseball, Football and other sports. Concert in the evening. Watch for big posters.

The fad for daylight saving is fast dying out. Several towns have voted "nay" on bylaws for this purpose just recently.

Mr. A. Grubin is improving the front of his property on Main St. by planting a flower garden. We hope the boys and girls will have respect for, and protect the same.

Change in Banking hours. The Bank of Nova Scotia and the Standard Bank of Canada will close their offices here at 12 o'clock on Saturday instead of 1 o'clock as in the past. Both offices will remain open Friday afternoons until 3 o'clock.

The Presbyterian church basement was a very busy place on Tuesday afternoon, when the ladies of the church met and quilted the four quilts, which the Mission Band had pieced together. Tea was served after the afternoon's work.

Congratulations to Miss Greta Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Smith, who was successful in passing her third year in the Faculty of Arts, University of Toronto. Miss Smith is taking the course in Modern languages and took honors in French, German and Spanish.

DEATH OF MRS. VAGUE. There passed away on Saturday, June 14th, 1924, at her late residence, Stouffville, Mrs. Robt. Vague, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnston. She was in her 69th year, and was born just north of Goodwood, but had spent most of her life in Markham township, coming to the present home in Stouffville about two years ago. Mrs. Vague was the mother of two children, one son, Henry, who was accidentally killed when a lad of about 11 years old, and one daughter, Mrs. Jake Hoover who died about ten years ago. The funeral service on Monday was conducted by Rev. Geo. E. Coulter, assisted by Rev. Mr. Payne of Sharon, a former pastor at Peaches' church, where the remains were taken, and where the deceased had attended the Methodist church for nearly fifty years. The late Mrs. Vague had an attack of pneumonia about four years ago, from which she never fully regained her former health. Besides her sorrowing husband and two grand-children in Stouffville, she leaves one brother in Toronto, who was present at the funeral, also one brother in Lexington, Mich., and one in Port Huron, who was bereaved by the death of his wife, only two weeks ago.

Union School Pic-Nic. The Union School picnic will be held at Cedar Glen Park, Lake Muskegon, on Saturday, June 28th. Senior Football, silver cups, $50, $30 and $20; Public School Football, $12 and $8.00; Ladies Baseball, $20 and $10. Races as usual will also take place. Stouffville Band in attendance. Admission, gentlemen 15c., ladies 10c., children free.

Preparation is being made for the camp meeting to be held under the auspices of the M.B.C. Church, from June 27th to July 6th, in Mr. Wm. Shank's bush. This grove is situated in an ideal location, about two miles north of Markham, on the eighth line, and campers are expected from many parts of the Province. These camps are annual occasions, the one last year being held here.

The President of the Bowling Club is presenting a scarf pin to the local club, which is to be played for in singles, under the following conditions. Each player uses 4 bowls, 16 ends, club rules to govern. Mr. F. L. Button to be the first wearer of the pin, and any one wishing to rob him of the honor, hands his name and 10c. to the secretary. The dime is only an evidence of good faith and goes to the club funds.

The bowler winning the most number of times before the first of October becomes permanent owner of the pin. The Vice-President, Mr. S. Armstrong settles any dispute, and his ruling in all matters to be final.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

There is an invitation extended to all men who are interested in Christian work to attend the annual Men's Day on Sunday, June 22nd, when services will be conducted by the Business Men's Class in the Methodist church, Uxbridge. There will be three inspiring addresses by prominent laymen. At the morning service at 11 a.m. W. W. Staples, Esq., of Lindsay, will give an address, and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Hon. E. C. Drury, I.L.D. will speak. Any who can remain for the evening service are invited to be the guests of the Business Men's Class at their homes and hear at 7 p.m. the address given by Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay. The class orchestra will lead the musical part of the service and the song service will be conducted by C. E. Weeks.

QUALITY

SERVICE

Try the New Pastry Flour

called

"MARVEL"

Quaker Flour for Bread

TURNIP Seed, FEEDS of all kinds

BREAD Flour, PASTRY Flour

STIVER BROS.

PHONE 4501

RINGWOOD

Miss Gertrude Fisher, of Toronto is spending a month's vacation with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Stouffer and family were Toronto visitors one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McKenzie are away on a week's motor trip in the United States.

Rev. Thos. Mitchell, of British Columbia is spending some time with his brother, J. A. Mitchell.