CHAUTAUQUA

PROGRAM IN STOUFFVILLE

The Dominion Redpath Chautauqua opened here last Wednesday afternoon and continued for four days. This is the fourth year that Stouffville citizens have had the privilege of hearing such notable attractions and from all reports of approval heard regarding them, this year has been no exception. Chautauqua fans will no doubt be glad to hear that about forty-five public spirited business men have signed the contract and it may be concluded that we shall have the treat of hearing the Chautauqua program in 1925.

The popular Melody Trio, three young women who were accomplished musicians and entertainers launched the Chautauqua on the first afternoon. The Trio was composed of Miss Dorothy Dyer who was a pianist, accordionist and reader, Miss Betty Watson, a violinist and Miss Ruth Swanson, a cellist. Their program included semi-classical and popular instrumental numbers, dialect readings and costumed sketches, all of which were most heartily enjoyed during the afternoon's program and their introductory program on Wednesday evening. Following them came the Marko Company, magicians and illusionists. They proved to be great favorites with their unique ability of proving again and again that the "hand is quicker than the eye".

The Columbus Entertainers appeared on the second afternoon. There were two young ladies, namely, Miss Beatrice Baughan, pianist, saxaphonist and dramatic reader and Miss Miriam Hoover, pianist and violinist. Miss Baughan excelled in her reading selections and was exceptionally well received both in the afternoon and evening. On Thursday evening was given the first lecture, when Geoffrey F. Morgan took as his subject "Success with Ease." This he dealt with in a most fluent manner and showed how the biggest kind of success, that which would bring about the happiness of individuals, may only be obtained by the qualities of energy, enthusiasm, endurance, efficiency and ethics.

Bhaskar Hivale, a native of Bombay, India, former newspaper man and a well-known lecturer, gave the address on Friday afternoon on "The New India." As Mr. Hivale was thoroughly conversant with India and her people and described conditions as they actually exist there, it was a great privilege to hear such an informative lecture. On the third night, the comedy "Cappy Rick's" was given by a metropolitan cast of actors. The play was based on one of Peter B. Kyne's stories and was apparently enjoyed by the large crowd who were present.

On Saturday afternoon, following a short program by the Jubilee Singers an inspiring lecture-recital was given by Marshall Louis Mertens, the subject being "The Gold at the Rainbow's End." There were three phases in this address upon which he based his remarks, they being, the school, the home, and the church. One of the outstanding characters was the speaker's sense of humor which won enthusiastic comment. Mr. Marshall L. Mertens also read a number of his own writings, which were highly commented upon. Saturday evening was joy night when the Plantation Jubilee Singers were heard in a splendid concert of plantation songs and ballads.

Miss Marshall, a trained juvenile entertainer, was in charge of the Junior Chautauqua in the mornings and prepared the children for a short program which was given on Saturday morning.

BASEBALL NEWS

Stouffville vs. Newmarket

In order to convince the Newmarket baseball fans that Stouffville has a real baseball team this year, our boys went over there on Friday afternoon last and scored nine runs, while, not one Newmarket player was able to make the circuit. Lennox pitched perfect ball and had excellent support. This being a twilight game, only seven innings were played. The final score was 9 to 0 for Stouffville.

Batteries: Stouffville, Lennox and Reesor; Newmarket, McHale and Robinson, Epworth and Legood.

The next game for Stouffville will be on Wednesday, July 23rd, when Newmarket team comes here.

In the game at Willowdale, Tuesday, Newmarket defeated Willowdale by a score of 7-4.

The game scheduled between Stouffville and Kincardine Hill for Wednesday had to be postponed on account of the rain.

Mr. J. R. Wheler an old Stouffville boy, celebrated his 70th birthday last week when fifteen of Stouffville people who are here, were invited. The evening was spent in playing cards, recitations, and speech making. Refreshments were served in his large cottage at the waters edge.

The old Jackson's Point wharf which was to have been repaired by the Dominion Government, got on to a good start this spring. Expensive and large solid sticks of timber were drawn and placed in position, but here she stopped, "short", and not a tap of work has been done on it since last May.

There was quite an exciting time here a week ago last Sunday, for a while, when a young lady and gentleman, were upset out of a canoe, out in the lake. At the time, there were few on the beach, but fortunately, it was noticed, at the time, by someone, and the alarm was given. In ten minutes the beach was black with people and boats from all directions speeded to the scene, just in time, when they were pulled into a boat in an exhausted condition by Reeser Lang. A few minutes more, and there would have been a double drowning.

Jackson's Point has only now got nicely started to boom. The wet cold weather put everything out of order, but now that the weather is some warmer, things are beginning to look up. Ice cream parlors, candy and fruit stands, dance halls, pool tables, and nearly everything else that goes to make up a summer resort are now all on the bum, and everybody seems happy. The Radial railway is bringing in new people every day, the boarding houses are now being filled, the sports have begun, and everybody seems pleasant and delighted, all in for a good time.

Gower, of O'Brien Avenue, was on his way to the station carrying a couple of suitcases to the Sunday evening train when he was struck by Mr. Charles Shackel's car. As there were a large number of autos coming from the east returning from church, it is supposed that the boy was watching those so did not see the other car coming from the west. Mr. Shackel was not driving fast, but was not able to stop his car before the front wheel had passed over the boy's body. He was carried into Dr. Ball's office where first aid was given and then taken home, having received bruises from his fall and also a concussion of the brain. From latest reports he is doing as well as can be expected and his many friends will look forward to his having a complete recovery.
