EDITORIAL COMMENT

Two things are bound to find you out—your sins and your relatives.

The postal men shouldn't be too severely criticized for trying to raise their own salaries. They know if they don't do it, nobody else will.

The leap year, 1924 is over half gone and the bachelors around Stouffville, who have escaped thus far are beginning to take hope.

Municipal Clerks have been instructed to forward Section Three of the Voter's List to the Clerk of the Peace in view of the plebiscite of the liquor question which is to come on October 23rd.

The whole world is watching the outcome of the trial this week of young Loeb and Leopold at Chicago. It seems strange that a trial should extend beyond the shortest possible legal course in bringing these young criminals to swift justice for their confessed murder of a fourteen-year-old boy simply "to get a thrill."

Heavy rains in the West excepting in the central northern section of Saskatchewan and north Alberta have enormously improved crop prospects which are now defined as "normal." In these sections cancellation of some merchandise orders would seem to bear out the poor prospects, but in nearly all other areas of the West there has been an increase of orders, due to some extent to the "millions" made by farmers who held "heat" until the recent spectacular advance.

Recommendation that the Department of Highways of Ontario be requested to erect sidewalks between Richmond Hill and Elgin Mills, in order to safeguard the lives of pedestrians, was made by the Coroner's jury, which returned a verdict to the effect that "Mrs. Lily Sheppard came to her death on July 2, 1924, while walking on the pavement on North Yonge street, about half a mile north of Richmond Hill, as a result of being struck by a motor car driven negligently by Francis Hathaway of Chatham."

Ontario citizens will pass upon the liquor issue on Thursday, October 23rd next. Decision to hold a plebiscite upon that date has, after careful consideration, been reached by the Government, and represents the fulfillment of Premier Ferguson's election time pledge of a vote for the people, and when public opinion demands it. The form of the question to be voted upon is not yet being announced by the Prime Minister, but will be made public in the near future.

No overseas visitors have been more feted than the proprietors and editors of the Canadian Weekly press in their European trip this summer, said the Evening Telegram of last Saturday. Not only were they welcomed at Buckingham Palace but a most interesting party was arranged at historic Kensington Palace, the birthplace of Queen Victoria, by the members of the Society of Women Journalists. Incidentally the power of that organization may be noted in that the State Apartments of the Palace were lent them for the occasion. The Duke of Connaught and Lady Patricia Ramsay and Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, who were present were delightful links with Canada, and the present mistress of Rideau Hall, Lady Byng of Vimy, also welcomed the Canadians there.

The bill has been introduced in Parliament providing for the Redistribution scheme, which the committee has finally agreed upon and while Toronto gets three new seats, East York will entirely disappear. York South will consist of all that part of York county, lying east of Yonge street, south of the southerly boundary of the township of Markham and outside of the City of Toronto. York West will consist of that part of York county, lying west of Yonge street, south of the south boundary of the township of Vaughan and outside the city of Toronto. North York will consist of all that part of the County of York, lying north of the southerly boundary of the township of Vaughan and Markham. This introduces a new element into North York, including Markham & Richmond Hill villages. The old riding of North Ontario disappears, to be joined with Muskoka, and South Ontario will just be called Ontario.

In the August issue of Rod and Gun in Canada every sportsman will find something to his liking. Besides the regular departments there is an unusually interesting story, "Hunting for Pre-Historic Game Through the Bad Lands of the Red Deer River," by Lillian Sanders. The fisherman will eagerly read "With the Angler in August" by Robt. Page Lincoln in his monthly "Fishing Notes." Frank Morris has written a fascinating account of an exploring trip through a famous vacation ground entitled "The Heart of Timagami." "Migration Route 'Hawks and Owls'" by Bonycastle Dale and "The Full-Webbed Swimmers" by J. W. Winslow will hold the attention of all those interested in our feathered friends. The other regular departments and several interesting stories complete the various features of this issue.

DISTRICT DOINGS

Mr. J. M. Walton, Mayor of Aurora, was elected Most Worthy Patriarch by the Sons of Temperance at their Convention in Toronto last week.

At the meeting of Markham township council Messrs. Francis, Farr, Smellie and Corbett, waited on the council, and asked for a sidewalk to be laid on Yonge street at Thornhill. They were promised $200 provided Vaughan would grant a like amount.

Probate was granted in surrogate of the will of Alexander Malloy, late of the township of Vaughan, who died on February 28th, leaving total estate of $15,350. A caveat filed by his daughter, Mrs. Harriet Walker, stating that at the time he made his will Mr. Malloy was not in testamentary capacity, was dismissed and the estate will be divided between three sons and two daughters.

The annual picnic of the Newmarket Fire Brigade was held at Willoughby's Park, Island Grove, Lake Simcoe, last Saturday. Firemen, their wives and families, to the number of one hundred, attended the picnic at which Mayor Cane and Ald. H. Gilman and W. Winger were present. Fire Chief Fred Doyle was instituted as Master of Ceremonies and handled the picnic in fine style.

A unique gathering was held at the home of E. L. Ruddy, Pickering, last Saturday afternoon, when upwards of sixty Pickering College boys and girls of more than forty years ago, held a reunion and picnic on the grounds, which were formerly the site of the institution. The guests who were received and entertained by the hostess, Mrs. E. L. Ruddy, viewed the scenes of their student days and renewed old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Davis of Fleury street, Aurora, celebrated their diamond wedding Saturday and were the recipients of many congratulations. They were married in Toronto, July 19th, 1864 by Rev. Anson Green. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are both of United Empire Loyalist stock; Mrs. Davis being the granddaughter of the late Samuel Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Davis were both born on Yonge street, near Aurora, where they have lived the greater part of their lives. Mr. James T. Davis is one of the few living Fenian Raid Veterans. A large number of relatives and friends from a distance were present at the celebration and wished them many more years of continuous happiness.

"Uxbridge Old Boys" Association held their annual picnic last Saturday afternoon at High Park, Toronto, when nearly three hundred former residents of the home town, now living in the city, were present. An interesting part of the outing was a talk by Dr. Joseph Bascom, who was elected first Mayor of Uxbridge after the incorporation of the town in the early eighties, also served for a quarter-century on the School Board, and who indulged in many interesting reminiscences. Dr. D. Baird is President of the Association and Mrs. W. Holiday was in charge of the arrangements for the afternoon, which was spent in a sociable way. Dr. J. E. Porfar, Trustee of the Toronto Board of Education and a former resident of Uxbridge was present at the picnic.

William J. Michell, died at his late residence, 16 St. Clair Avenue, East, Thursday afternoon, July 17th, after a lingering illness. He was born at Claremont, Ont. in 1843, where he engaged in farming until 1900, when he moved to Toronto. He took a prominent part in municipal politics and was for several years a member of the York Township and County Councils. In politics he was a Conservative. He is survived by his widow who was Mary Story of Claremont, and four children, Jennie, Agnes and Helen at home and Chas. A. of Marmaduke street. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary E. Scarr of 296 Woodbine Avenue, and a brother, Frank L. Michell, M. A., of Perth, Ont. On the 16th of December, last the late Mr. Michell celebrated his golden wedding.

Ernest Bowkett, 199 Windermere Avenue, Toronto, was recommended for the position of police court clerk in the County Police Court, by the York County Commissioners at a meeting on Thursday last. This appointment is being made following the request of Magistrate T. H. Brunton that he needed a clerk in his office to take the evidence in the police court and to look after the book-keeping. The York County Council a few weeks ago passed a resolution instructing the County Comers to make the appointment. A large number of applications were received by the commissioners for the position, and following very careful consideration, Mr. Bowkett was recommended. This recommendation will come before the Ontario Government in the very near future to be confirmed. The salary for the position was not decided upon.
