One animal belonging to W. J. Mathers' fine black team got caught in a barbed wire fence in the pasture field one day last week, and suffered a nasty cut about the fetlock of one forefoot. Although the cut was deep, it is not expected that the cords were injured, so that there will be no permanent injury.

Harry Wellman, one of the newly appointed constables, living near Glasgow, met with an accident near Unionville on Saturday evening. While passing another automobile and a horse drawn vehicle at the same time on the roadway, Mr. Wellman's car went into the ditch and his sister Miss Mary was thrown out through the windshield. Fortunately she received no permanent injury although the shock was severe, as well as a number of minor cuts and bruises.

This has been one of the best years for the production of large cabbage in the history of this section, according to reports from various gardeners about Stouffville. Unfortunately the market is glutted and it is difficult to make sale in quantities just now, although it is anticipated that the market will improve considerably for the late cabbage.

Brillingen Bros. have some heads weighing six pounds, while a quantity of sixty dozens weighed 4200. What is true of cabbage regarding the unusual growth is also the case with small fruits, such as raspberries and cherries. The berries are large and extra good quality, while cherries are so plentiful that many of them will not be picked.

By furnishing your own container and doing your own picking they can be had at 25¢ per basket, although they are only demanding 50¢ and 60¢ per basket at the stores. The growers are having difficulty in getting sufficient pickers. Boys and girls, who are anxious to earn some pocket money, can readily find a job these days.

I have a good assortment of all kinds of Plows, Riding and Walking in different makes, also Ensign Cutter with Blower.

It is just announced that 5000 barrels of flour have been used this year in making ice cream cones. We always thought they were made of paper.

Alterations at Burkholder's grist mill have been going on for some time, but are now about completed. An extra building has been erected to accomodate the increasing business of this enterprise, which was started only last fall.

The Methodist Sunday School picnic was held last Friday afternoon at Musselman's Lake. It proved one great round of enjoyment for the younger folk, who delighted in the games played and the good things provided later at the tables.

With dozens of cherry trees laden with luscious fruit, and all kinds of raspberries, and other good things. A. S. Collins' big fruit garden in the east end, surely looks as inviting as the Garden of Eden did to those early inhabitants.

If you should be overlooked by the canvassers for subscription to the Horticultural Society prize list and wish to share in the contributions, please communicate with W. H. Shaw or Archie Stouffer. Prizes of cash or goods gladly accepted.

We see by papers coming into the Tribune office that gasoline had dropped as much as 16¢ per gallon in some Ontario towns during a fight between the two big rival companies. That's a kind of war citizens of Stouffville would welcome any old time. Someone please tell us how to start it.

Miss E. Sangster, President of Stouffville Women's Liberal Association entertained about 40 of her Liberal lady friends at her home last Friday afternoon. It was unanimously decided that the Association with assistance of some of their friends, would engage the Stouffville Band to head the procession on August 16th.

A new sidewalk, 3½ feet wide is to be built on Blake street so soon as the necessary petition can be got before the council again in the proper form. At the regular meeting on Monday evening, the members expressed their willingness to construct the walk without further delay, after the petition comes in.

Mr. David G. Scott, father of our townsmen, Mr. Alex Scott, writes the Tribune from Caron, Sask., on July 30th, stating conditions there at that time. He says in part: "We are renewing our Tribune, for we would not be without it. We have very dry weather now. Old settlers say they never saw it so dry, and that they would be satisfied if only they had feed for their animals. Wheat sowed on summer follow stood the dryness best, but one wonders how anything can stand out against the very hot days and high winds. Fortunately the nights were cool, and last Monday we had a rain which revived some grain, wonder-

On Thursday afternoon last week the funeral of the late Mrs. John W. Ratcliff took place to Stouffville cemetery. The sad event was marked by the attendance of a very large number of friends and sympathizers and the Rev. W. W. Fleischer, pastor of the local Baptist church; in which the deceased loved to labor during the days of her activity, took the funeral service, being assisted by Rev. Mr. McLeod and Rev. Mr. Loney, the latter being a former pastor of this church, and a son-in-law of the deceased. Mr. Fleischer spoke very feelingly of the virtue of the Christian life of the departed, basing his remarks on the text, "Precious is the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." The floral tributes were beautiful, bearing testimony to the high esteem in which Mrs. Ratcliff was held by so many friends.

Mr. Parkin is high in his praise for the manner in which he was given attention while in the hospital, and for the consideration given him by the Canadian National Railways.

The English people grow what they believe to be the finest gooseberries in the world. The variety is particularly large as compared to berries grown in Canada, but on Wednesday morning Mr. Simeon Stouffer brought into the Tribune office a box of these English gooseberries grown on his property, Church street north. They compare everyday with the berries grown in the old land, both as to size and in point of flavor. Mr. Stouffer has our thanks for this very liberal sample of such excellent fruit.

Judging by the great stir over on the Uxbridge-Whitchurch townline last Friday afternoon one might have thought a big fair was in progress, but not so, it was the barn raising on the farm of Carman Morris. Over a hundred people took part in the contest of raising the six sets of bents. The teams were captained by Messrs. Richard Rae and Albert Elson, the latter coming out victorious. Strange to say on the victor's side were several Stouffville men, but we are not suggesting that this accounted for the victory. Those present from town included Dr. and Mrs. Smith, Rev. W. M. McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Button, Robert Brown, Miss Jean Mackenzie, and others. The splendid supper provided touched the appreciative palate of every one present.
