

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Let Everybody be at the School at 12:30 p.m., sharp, on Saturday to witness the Big School Parade of all the different schools carrying their flags and banners.

The contract for redecorating Stouffville Methodist Church has been awarded to a Toronto firm, Messrs. Stone and Crawford, church decorators, at a cost of $100.

Come to the Concert in Ratcliff's Hall on Saturday, Sept. 13th, at 8:15 p.m., under the auspices of Stouffville Women's Institute. Program to consist of Solos, Instrumental, Violin, Readings, Chorus and Monologue. Admission, adults 20c. children 10c.

The Eckhardt trophy bowling tournament will be played in Stouffville this Friday if the weather is all favorable. All teams in the County of York are eligible to compete, and valuable prizes are offered for the runners up, in addition to the trophy. At a meeting in Richmond Hill last week, Dr. Williams was elected president and W. R. Sanders, secretary-treasurer of the Eckhardt trophy competition for the current year.

Word was received in Stouffville on Monday of the sudden death of the Rev. J. C. Wilson, B.A., which took place at Weyburn, Saskatchewan, where he had resided for the past four years, following 14 years' ministrations at Acton, Ontario, where he went from St. James' Church Stouffville. He was 56 years of age and graduated from the University of Toronto and Knox College. His widow, three sons and two daughters, together with five brothers and two sisters, survive him.

Messrs. W. H. Brillinger and Sons report the present vegetable market the poorest in years, and many dealers are finding it difficult to get an outlet for their products at this particular season. However, the local firm are shipping tons of carrots, beets, turnips, cabbage and cauliflower to Winnipeg market, where there is a fair demand. It is expected that the general situation will improve within a few weeks. The Toronto market is said to have been lulled by the high prices demanded by store keepers, as compared to the retail price at which they can buy.

SILVESTER BROS.

Miss Anne Lehman, A.T.C.M. will resume her class in music the week of September 15th.

One of the most interesting events of the School Fair will be the Boys and Girls Public Speaking Contests, Saturday, Sept. 13th next.

Have you seen the Silver Cups in Shaw window, donated by the Women's Institute, for public speaking at the School Fair? They are beautiful.

Rev. and Mrs. S. Goudie, Rev. W. M. McGuire and Mr. A. S. Stouffer will attend the annual conference of the M.B.C. church, to be held in New Dundee, near Kitchener, beginning on Tuesday, Sept. 16th.

If you have any news for the Tribune, send it in early in the week if at all possible. All news items should reach the office by noon on Wednesday each week.

The drinking fountain which has been out of commission at the fire hall corner for some weeks, has been greatly missed. It was appreciated by the automobile tourist while passing this way.

There is an agitation on foot to have a Poultry Association formed in Stouffville. If you are interested in the project, make it known to the Tribune, and it will be the means of encouraging those who are willing to go ahead with the organization.

Christian Stouffer, a retired farmer who died in Whitchurch, Aug. 10th, leaving a farm valued at $10,000 and $1,750 in farm stock and implements, bequeathed his property to his son, David L. Stouffer, subject to the payment of legacies of $500 to his son, Christian; $400 each to his two daughters, and $50 to his son, Andrew Stouffer.

The report that Mr. Barton had purchased the store business at Baltrae belonging to Gilbert Wright, and thus combined the two establishments in the village, is incorrect. Both merchants are carrying on as usual. Mr. Wright is a returned soldier, and is worthy of liberal patronage, and we regret that such a report should have been circulated. After this notice, we expect to hear of the usual rush of business to Mr. Wright's store again.

We have often heard of men falling off the water wagon in a figurative or metaphorical way, but Leonard Staley, of Uxbridge Township had a genuine fall one day last week, resulting in a fractured collar bone. Mr. Staley, who lives on the 4th concession of Uxbridge Township, was assisting the threshers, which necessitated him being on top of the water tank. As he is 76 years of age, the accident is quite serious.

The sale by Walter Bennett of the fine farm of 100 acres, on the 8th concession of Markham Township, two miles south of Markham village, to David Shadlock, whose place adjoins, at $110 an acre, or $11,000, constitutes one of the highest prices for purely farm lands outside of the speculative area for some time. The land is said to be remarkably free from weeds and for years Mr. Bennett has been disposing of his grain of all kinds for seed purposes.

We have heard of farmers who allow the weeds to grow on their farms higher than the corn, but in Stouffville the Streets Commission of the Council allow the weeds to climb and spread until they hide the whole beauty of the community. Citizens should take a look at the vacant lot opposite the post office, and note the unsightly appearance of one of the town's most conspicuous corners. A few cents is the small cost to clean up such spots in the community, and the Horticultural Society would do well to influence the municipal fathers to make the expenditure.

Stouffville School Fair—The Stouffville District 1st Annual Rural School Fair will take place at the School grounds on Saturday, Sept. 13th. The following schools will take part in the Fair: Ringwood, Bloomington, Lennoxville, Mongolian, and the five divisions of the Stouffville Public School. Mr. Rogers, the district representative of North York, is working hard to make this one of the best fairs in his district. Each pupil has in his or her possession a copy of the prize list, which is varied and very extensive. We expect the parents to co-operate heartily with the children in making this one of the best school fairs in North York.

The marriage of a former Stouffville citizen, Eli A. VonBuseck, son of the late August VonBuseck, a harnessmaker of this place about a quarter of a century ago, took place at Erie, Penn., on Tuesday, Sept. 2nd, the bride being Miss Elizabeth VonBuseck, whose home is in Erie. Until recently the groom had lived at Sunderland where he disposed of his harness shop last spring. Rev. Mr. Frampton, of Ashbury, M. E. church, tied the nuptial knot, assisted by the bride's cousin, Rev. John H. Lawrence of Etawah, India. Following a visit to Canada the couple will be at home to their friends in Erie. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis VonBuseck gave a reception for the bridal couple in West Bridge Road, which was attended by about sixty friends and relatives.

School Fair Next Saturday—All roads lead to Stouffville School grounds that day.

Don't fail to hear the Kitchener Band in Ratcliffe's Hall the night of the School Fair. Admission, adults 20c., children 10c.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. G. Robinson on Tuesday, Sept. 16th, at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

The Mary Haig Senior Mission Band (Presbyterian) will hold their annual verandah sale of Aprons, Bibs, Wash Cloths, etc., on Friday, Sept. 19th at the home of Mrs. George Collard.

After two years service as cornetist in the famous Anglo Canadian concert band of Huntsville, Wm. R. Coates has returned home to take up farming on his father's place at Claremont.

The Women's Institute will have a booth at the School Fair to be held on the school grounds on Saturday, Sept. 13th. They will also serve lunch sandwiches, Coney Island's pie, cake and tea. Will be ready for business by 10:30.

The Seventh Annual Sunday School Convention of the Brethren in Christ (Tunkers) is being held in the Heise Hill Church, Gormley, Sept. 11th and 12th. All are welcome. Thursday evening session at 7 o'clock and three sessions on Friday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be at the home of Mrs. J. A. Lewis, Main street, on Wednesday, Sept. 17th at 2:30 o'clock. Program—Paper, Mrs. Connor; demonstration, fruit salad, Mrs. R. Rae, Mrs. Hodgins, Mrs. Badgero; duet, Mrs. Grove, Miss A. Barkey; community singing; social hour. Everybody welcome.

As this issue of The Tribune is being printed, the Horticultural Society fruit and flower show is in progress in the Curling rink. The number of entries in this, the first exhibition of the society, surpassed all expectations, exhibits coming from as far away as Toronto and Port Perry. The extreme cold weather which prevailed all day was not conducive to a successful show, still in the face of this, the whole affair was a grand triumph. The names of the prize winners will appear in our next issue.

One of the duties that devolves upon the ratepayers at the present time is to see that he or she has his or her name properly recorded on the voters list. In this issue of The Tribune and last the clerk of the various municipalities in this locality are giving notice to all persons to examine the lists, now hung up in the clerk's office, to make sure you are properly recorded. Next month there will be an important vote on the liquor question, and any whose names are not on the voters list will be unable to vote.

Stouffville baseball club are still waiting orders from the O.B.A.A. as to their next game. It looks like a lot of bad management on the part of O.B.A.A. officials to allow a team to stand idle so long.

HARVEST NOT COMPLETED

With the thermometer flitting around 40 degrees, it was only by a miracle that farmers and gardeners all through the county were saved from serious losses, on Friday and Saturday nights. At some points on Friday night, there was a sudden change in the temperature and this was followed by a drizzling rain which continued well on into Saturday, but on Saturday night and Sunday morning there were no alleviating conditions, and the greatest apprehension generally was felt.

Happily these fears were not realized, unless in the case of buckwheat, a tender grain and which may be seriously affected. Up to Wednesday the weather still remained cold and damp.

The Tribune received a call from Brer R. J. Corson, Editor of the Markham Economist on Wednesday.
