Fixed her up at once

That's what a woman said the other day who had been doctoring for "stomach trouble for years. She had taken two bottles of Nyal's Digestive Tonic and thought it as the finest stomach medicine made. Stopped the distress and gave an appetite that had been lacking. Now she can eat anything she fancies. It doesn't take much to put the digestive apparatus out of order but if you get the right remedy the relief is prompt and grateful. A big bottle for a dollar and worth trying.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Samuel Pockler, who passed away Nov. 6, 1923. God saw how her footsteps did falter. And the way had grown too steep. So He closed her weary eyelids. And gave his loved one sleep. More and more each day we miss her. Friends may think the wound is healed. But they little know that sorrow lies within our hearts concealed. Sadly missed by her daughters, May and Eva.

VETERANS HONOR DEAD COMRADES

The Auditorium Theatre was comfortably filled on Sunday afternoon for the Decoration day service held by the Stouffville War Veterans. Rev. J. Templeton, rector of Christ Church of England, was the speaker of the afternoon, and delivered a forceful message from Isaiah's gospel wherein he wrote these words: "Call to remembrance these things, and call yourselves men." The speaker made frequent reference to the Great War, and predicted that some day God would reveal to us why such a terrible conflict was to be, and the advantages of the stronger nations protecting the rights of the lesser bodies. If the war stood for anything it stood for liberty, and we also called it a holy war when the cannon roared and the din of battle was on—but how do we refer to it today? Have we forgotten that it was a holy war? Another point brought out by Mr. Templeton was the thought that if half the energy which the nations exerted in the war was manifest in God's war against sin, this would be a vastly better world.

At the conclusion of the service a parade was formed headed by the Stouffville band, and followed by a large number of citizens marched to the cemetery where the graves of all departed war veterans were each decorated with a beautiful wreath.

York County Junior Farmers competition brought a good number of the awards to the Stouffville section. A. J. H. Eckardt has presented Harold Cowie of Markham and Fred Steckley of Whitchurch, each with silver tea sets, donated by himself as prizes. ## AGED SISTERS DIE WITHIN A DAY

In her 84th year Mrs. Joseph Lunau a native of Markham Township, passed away on Sunday, Nov. 10th, 1924, at the home of her son in Markham village. Until just recently deceased had lived with her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Parkinson in Stouffville, and last week she suffered a stroke from which she never regained consciousness. A strange co-incident was the death of the aged lady's sister in Stratford on the day previous to Mrs. Lunau's death and from the same cause. When word was sent to Stratford of the serious condition of Mrs. Lunau, the sister suffered a stroke due to shock which proved too much for her. The funeral of the two sisters took place on Sunday, at the same hour, Mrs. Lunau being laid to rest in Bethel cemetery, Markham. The late Mrs. Lunau's maiden name was Elizabeth Clegg, being born between the 4th and 5th concessions, and in the year 1862 was married to the late Jos. Lunau who died about ten years ago. She is the last of a family of eight brothers and sisters. Practically all her life was spent in the township, and she is survived by a family of three children, two sons, Reuben of Markham, Councillor, Edward Lunau of Stouffville and one daughter, Mrs. L. A. Parkinson. The funeral service was conducted by her nephew, Rev. Austin Lunau of King City, and the pall bearers were six grandchildren. The aged mother lived an exemplary life, and from girlhood had been a consistent member of the Methodist church.

BIG PAY FOR GABY AND LUCAS

The amazing irregularities being unearthed today in connection with men in responsible positions, is astonishing. Government and bank officials are being properly dealt with, and now comes the enquiry into hydro matters. It looks as if there is real cause for an investigation into the Settel charges and the Ontario Government should see that the charges against Gaby and Lucas are thoroughly probed and dealt with in the manner of those against Peter Smith who is now serving a jail term.

Owing to the steady increased cost of hydro since the war, there is another cause for investigation. Water is just as free today as before the war, and there should be no advance excepting in material and operation, and it is the latter item which runs so high. There has not been any reduction since the war wages in the salaries of the officials of the Hydro Electric Commission, although farm produce has greatly reduced.

Though Sir Adam Beck is a rich man he still pulls down $18,000 per year for the abuse he has to take in promoting the great white light that has brightened many a dull home. But perhaps his vision is worth that to Ontario. Then there is the man now under the public inquiry, F. A. Gaby, who pulls down the enormous salary of $17,000. The latest figures we have show that he actually got $17,400 for his yearly services, which is enough for any man to keep a wife and family on. In addition it ought to build that fine home he is charged with having run hydro material into without paying the Commission. Hon. Ike Lucas, whose sons are charged with getting fat rakes off from hydro insurance was getting the commendable hand-out of $7,200 for part time. Another salary with which the recipient ought to have been able to keep his family without wire-pulling for his sons. Let's have a real clean-up in this hydro matter, and if there has been crooked work, then penitentiary for the offenders is mild enough.

GORMLEY

Ed. Harvey who is retiring from farming, has his new house nearly completed. Thomas Johnston's eldest daughter is recovering from her recent operation for appendicitis. Miss Pearl Phillips spent her vacation with her uncle and family Mr. and Mrs. B. Heise in Toronto.

Heise, who had the misfortune to be thrown from a wagon, breaking his collar-bone, seven weeks ago, again is moving about as usual. Walter Henderson, an enterprising neighbor is supplying the towns within a radius of 20 miles, with fresh cider, horse radish and comb honey. Ed. ## MORE ROBBERY AND HOLD-UP

The wave of crime in this district as well as in other parts seems to go uninterrupted, despite the attempts of the police to round up the offenders. Last Friday night three stores in Uxbridge were broken into, being a drug store, clothing store and a grocery, where clothing, bonds, etc. were stolen, amounting to $1000, there being $700 in bonds taken from McPhail's grocery alone. There is no clue to the thieves. The same evening while coming from Toronto Cecil Storey of the 3rd concession of Uxbridge was held up on the 6th concession of Markham while on the unfinished piece of road near Brodie's farm. A car overtook the truck which drove slowly over the bad road, when one of the gang slipped onto the running board of the truck and shoved a revolver into Mr. Storey's side demanding him to keep on going, while the thief rifled his pockets. All he got for the effort was $1.80 the total monies the truck man had on his person. After securing this the thief stepped over to his car which was kept along side by an accomplice, when they glided away at high speed. Again on Tuesday evening, when John Musselman of Uxbridge, was driving home from Toronto, an attempt was made to stop his truck just north of Cashel, but he turned into a farm lane unexpectedly and phoned to Stouffville. Constable Pennock and Charlie Ward hurried to the scene, but on reaching there the car which followed Musselman's truck speed away without their identity being known.

AGED MARKHAM RESIDENT

A number from town attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Abraham B. Grove on Tuesday afternoon this week which took place from the late residence at lot 32, con. 8, Markham. The deceased was in her 78th year and had lived all her life on the 8th concession, being born on that line. She was the second wife of the late Mr. Grove and to them were born seven children all of whom are living, being Joseph, Abraham of the homestead, Isaac, Jacob, Mrs. Geo. Gover, Mrs. Wm. Hare, and Miss Ada. Of five step-children two survive, being Mrs. Elias Lehman of Stouffville and Henry Grove of Ringwood. Mrs. Grove was a Mennonite in religion and a faithful follower of the Master. The remains were laid to rest in the Wideman cemetery, the funeral service being taken by Rev. Mr. Norton of Stouffville and Levi Grove of Pickering Township, who spoke to the friends in German.

USELESS PROFANITY

The trouble with profanity, says an exchange, is not so much that it is wicked, as that it is just plain dirty. It is not so much that you shock religious people as that you disgust decent people that we object to. Swearers are behind the times. They are holdovers from a former century. Nowadays anybody who swears is set down at once as being coarse and vulgar. The young man who wants to succeed needs to take advantage of everything that may help him in any job he may have. And if he wants to associate with the right sort of girls he must keep his talk clean. Nobody wants a swearer in the office, nor in the workshop, nor in the train, nor in the hotel. The only place swearing fits in is in a low-down saloon. Swearing means you don't know how to talk. Your vocabulary is limited. It is the sign of ignorance. Swearing means weakness. You will notice that forceful men, whose words carry weight, use simple plain words. When you swear, it shows your impotence. It is the petty refuge of the helpless. If you can help a thing, help it, if not, keep still, anyway don't swear.
