Stewart Thompson of Toronto, was called to his mother-in-law's, Mrs. J. Middleton, on account of the illness of his 14 months' old boy, who is very bad with the whooping cough.
Now is the time for entertainments so arrange your business and dates accordingly and don't forget the entertainment at the Goodwood Methodist church on Friday night. Also a good entertainment and box social at Miss McKenzie's school on the Second, Monday, Dec. 22, where another good time is being prepared.
A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Miss Jessie Todd last Friday evening, when about 30 of our young people gathered to celebrate the 22nd birthday of Miss Irene Tindall. The evening was spent in games and contests. Some very beautiful presents were received by Miss Tindall, and all left in the small hours of the morning, well pleased with the evening spent.
There passed away at Kearney on Dec. 8th, Mrs. Abraham Shaver, aged 74 years, 2 days, formerly Miss Long. The remains were brought to Goodwood to Mrs. Jos. Cooper's, sr. a cousin of the deceased. They remained there until Thursday. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. C. C. Otten, who preached a very touching sermon. Mrs. Shaver will be sadly missed by her many friends as she was of a cheerful nature. She spent her girlhood days in Goodwood and vicinity. The flowers were beautiful, in loving memory of the departed. The pall bearers were: Messrs. T. Downswell, B. Stewart, P. Vanhorne, A. Haynes, I. Wagg and J. Ashenhurst. Those of the family left to mourn her loss are the husband, three sons and one daughter: Mrs. Thos. Stoner and Frank Shaver of Kearney, Norman Shaver of Toronto, Arthur Shaver and wife of Toronto, also many other relatives and friends from Stouffville and Toronto attended the funeral. The interment took place at Goodwood cemetery.
