GLASGOW
We are again experiencing real winter weather.
Master Orval Woods is spending a week at his home at Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hopkins and children of Brougham, visited at F. Slack's on Thursday of last week.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather of Friday evening last, a number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr. L. Slack and presented Mrs. Walter Davis with a shower of many pretty and useful articles.

Mrs. Ed. Lewis and Bruce spent Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Weir of Uxbridge.

A number of our citizens felt the tremor of the earth quake last Saturday evening, while others were unaware that anything unusual had occurred.

We wad ha'e ye ken about the play the young folk's 's ga en ta ha'e at Glasgow afoor lang. These nights which ha' been sa caud a' murky the bairns an' lassies ha' been comin ther pairts an' purpose to ha'e a play entitled "Bread on the Water" tae which ye will nae doubt be comin. Dilly wha's Blanche Slack an Butts wha's Freddie Paulkat an' the rest ill be g'ien ye mony an' mony a laugh. But we canna tell ye mair aboot it a' noo.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nichols of Victoria Square were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Kinlock, O'Brien Ave. on Tuesday.

Miss Dora Lepard of Mount Albert visited with Miss Daisy McConnochie over the week end.

CLAREMONT
Our curlers brought home a dandy cup from Oshawa bonspiel.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Maitland Anderson, a son, Feb'y 23, 1925.

Saturday was a busy day in town. Our drovers shipped two car loads of mixed stock.

Mrs. McCallum has now opened up her millinery establishment in the Bundy block.

Despite the inclement weather the annual school concert was again given to full houses on Thursday and Friday night. The concert was of a very high order and those who came expecting from past experience to see something good were not disappointed.

Rev. Mr. McLellan gave an arousing address in the Union Church, Sunday evening. Next Sunday evening service will be in the nature of song service with special music.

Several of our residents felt the earth quake shock here Saturday night. The shock was so slight locally that most of those who noticed it at all did not know what it was until hearing about it Sunday morning.

The following young people spent the week end with parents and friends here: Miss Violet Sargent, Toronto; Miss J. Evan, Aurora; Clifford Pilky, Milton; Miss Myrtle Thompson, Toronto; Horace Lambert, Toronto.

A big tree planted by J. Bundy was safely felled on Saturday. Wm. Thompson had purchased it from the trustees of the village. Albert Mantle and Wm. Thompson did the sawing act, while four able bodied men with the aid of a good stout rope pulled it in no desired direction.

J. S. Bundy, got tired of paying good coin to feed a horse, that had the he-be-dees and turned it over to the tender mercies of a man capable of handling such a case. He may have her hide on the fence or take it where it will be turned into leather to make boots for the rising generation.

For Sale—Good Jersey Cow, calf by side, third calf. J. H. Mertens. Phone 7905.
