Amminster Rug 9x9 in perfect condition, will be sold at a bargain. Mrs. J. Boadway, Church street. 3

Miss R. Tobuy of Toronto, has leased No. 1 Queen's Court, and has moved to town together with her mother and sisters.

The newspaper should be the town's business directory. Everybody in business should be represented regularly—if only by a card.

The regular March meeting of the Board of Trade, will be held next Monday. You will be interested in this meeting, so reserve the date. F. R. Crawford, secretary.

Mr. E. A. Button, hardware merchant, last week purchased en bloc the hardware stock of the late Chas. Boirel of Markham. The stock was moved to Stouffville last week and absorbed in the local store. Markham still has two hardware stores in operation.

Roy Strong who has occupied the house in the east end owned by Rev. W. M. McGuire, next Noah Baker's, has leased the Hodgson property, a mile east of Stouffville on the town-line Uxbridge-Pickering and Markham.

Mr. D. M. Heise has sold his residence on the corner of Albert and Main streets to Mr. John W. Ratcliff who has tenanted the property since the Heises moved to Toronto. Mr. Heise has recently purchased a house in the Queen City at 58 Brookside Drive.

Whitchurch Township council meets for general business on Saturday, March 21st.

The Stouffville markets this week remains unchanged for butter and eggs. The hog market advanced 25c $12.50 and $13.75.

Some people are flush enough to put out bread tickets for milk tickets. There is quite a difference in the price. When the bottles return to the dairy, there is no means of telling who made the mistake, so housewives should be careful.

One of our esteemed citizens of many years, Mrs. David Forsyth, was the recipient this week of a box of luscious oranges and grape fruit of extraordinary size, sent by a friend down in Jacksonville, Florida. A gift of this nature, of such quality and freshness, is naturally greatly appreciated.

With the snow and ice once more removed from the sidewalks, the bad condition of the pavements is again revealed to view. There is very little pavement laid in Stouffville that is worthy of the honest attempt of men to lay good sidewalks. In most cases there was never a proper foundation, and the walks were laid too low on many of the streets.

There is never any necessity for the miracle of the loaves and fishes to be re-enacted on behalf of the ladies of the local Christian church. These women, like the wise virgins in the parable, always have their lamps trimmed and ready for any emergency. It had been suggested that the usual large crowds which characterized the Christian church suppers of the past, would not be so great this year because no program followed the feast. Notwithstanding, on St. Patrick's night, when the annual supper was staged, the crowd came in droves, and from 5.30 until around 8 o'clock, the town and country people once again sat down to the abundantly laden tables of all manner of good things. The fact was demonstrated that a program at these affairs fades into insignificance if only a good supper is assured. Proceeds amounted to about $85.

Band Concert To-night.

Notice—Washing done, also chickens hatched, 5c. per egg. Apply Mrs. Morrison, con. 2, near Glasgow.

Free public clinic this Thursday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock, in the Council Chamber. Bring the babies and children of pre-school age.

Last Friday evening at a general meeting of Richardson Masonic Lodge, it was decided to hold their annual banquet and ladies night early in May.

Next Sabbath will be the fourth Sunday in Lent.

Today, Thursday, is the sale date of the late Peter Steckley's farm stock and implements, at Gormley.

Farmers will have an opportunity to purchase fresh milk cows at Geo. Talbot's sale on the 8th of Whitchurch, next Saturday. Twenty head will be sold.

A Listowel merchant was fined $100 and costs last week for selling ungraded eggs. We publish this as a "tip" to the merchants in this locality, so that they will not meet with similar fate through inobservance of the law.

Mr. Joseph Wild moved this week to his farm at Mount Joy, where his labours will help to swell the vegetable and fruit market next summer if he has anything like good success on his new place. Mr. and Mrs. Wild have lived in Stouffville for seven years, prior to which they were residents of Altona.

Some of our readers will remember Robert S. Beatty, who left Stouffville about fifteen years ago as a very young man. He is now located in San Bernardino County, southern California, and being a member of the Chamber of Commerce, whose duty it is to advertise their beautiful county, sends along an illustrated booklet, vividly portraying the attractive features of the State of California, particularly San Bernardino County, noted for its fruit growing, agriculture, summer homes etc.

Work of renovating the local Canadian National Railway station is in progress. A number of workmen arrived here this week to carry out the much needed repairs. Later in the season, it is the intention of the company to paint the exterior. Although Stouffville is one of the most important business points on this line of railway, it has one of the poorest stations along the route. Owing to this condition, a little repair work will be greatly appreciated by our people in general.

GEO. W. PETCH DIES SUDDENLY

George W. Petch, a prominent agriculturist of Whitchurch Township (Vandorf), died at the Private Patients Pavilion, Toronto General Hospital, on Tuesday evening of last week. Mr. Petch was taken to the hospital on Monday evening and operated on, and was thought to be progressing favorably when he suffered a relapse.

The late Mr. Petch was born in Whitchurch Township 56 years ago and had lived there all his life. He was well known throughout the county and highly respected. He is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter. The funeral took place Friday, from his home, Maple Hill Farm, at 2.30 to the Aurora cemetery.

Reeve M. Baker, S. P. Foote, F. W. Silversides and Ora Reaman were among those attending the funeral from the east side of the Township and Stouffville.

In this issue Morris Gillion is offering his four acres of land and good home on the 9th concession of Markham, just south of town, for sale, having rented from his father-in-law, Mr. Truman Holden, the fifty acres adjoining the Holden farm on the north. The latter place has recently been worked by Mr. Holden's son, Arthur, who intends to move into Stouffville after the 1st of April.

There will be six outside sections participating in the Stouffville school fair this year which is likely to be held in September, namely, Lemonville, Bloomington, Ringwood, Mongolia, 9th Line Markham, and Dixon Hill. The live stock prize list appearing in last week's issue of the Tribune, is open to each and all these sections, and we understand that some of the farmers are selecting their animals now for the show. This year's fair promises to rival those held in the surrounding country by the local agricultural societies.

The auction sale of farm stock and implements belonging to E. R. Sinclair on the 8th concession of Whitchurch, last Friday, was very well attended, although it was hard to hold the crowd owing to the raw wind which induced some to get away home before the sale was over. The total goods sold amounted to $2313, the cattle casing in price a little, although horses and farm implements ranged high. The grain sold above market value.

The Methodist church choir indulged in an oyster supper at the conclusion of the regular practise on Friday evening last. 35 or 40 members participated, and enjoyed the repast. At the conclusion, Miss Morgason, choir leader, moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Scott who furnished the oysters and to the members who contributed the other good things enjoyed.

Word has been received from Galveston, Texas, of the death there of J. L. Hoshel, who passed away on Feb'y 12th last. The late Mr. Hoshel will be remembered here as a school teacher, having taught for years at Baker Hill and also at Almira. For the past few years he held a position as school superintendent. His wife, who was a native of King Township, died two years ago. The late Mr. Hoshel is survived by two sons and one daughter, and was about 70 years of age at the time of his death.

On Sunday last Senator W. H. Bennett of Midland, member of the Canadian Senate for eight years died at his home there. He was born at Barrie, where an only brother, John still lives. Deceased was also a cousin of A. S. Leaney of Stouffville. Senator Bennett, who had been an outstanding figure in politics in the Dominion since 1891, and who was also one of Ontario's prominent lawyers, had been in the best of health up to the beginning of the year, but early in February suffered a general breakdown, and had been ailing for the past six weeks, his death not being entirely unexpected.

Our garage men are quite busy these days getting the cars ready for spring.

Jas. Underhill had the misfortune to breaking a leg by falling on the ice at Agincourt on Monday.

The hockey club will hold a carnival on Tuesday, March 24th. Watch for bills, giving prize list and full information.

The Mission Band of the Union church purpose holding a box social on Wednesday evening, March 25.

The Curlers had a carnival last Friday night. The big event was a game of broom hockey between the curlers and the farmers, resulting in a win for the curlers 6 to 1.

F. M. Cooper will hold an extensive sale of registered horses, cattle, breeding ewes, etc. on Friday, Mar. 27th. This will be one of the largest stock sales here for some time. The auction will be held on the farm opposite Graham Bros., Lot 22.

One of the largest farm stock sales in this vicinity was held on Thursday of last week on the farm of W. A. Dunkeld, 8th concession of Pickering. It was a clean-sweep sale, his nephew, Murray Dunkeld, taking over the farm this spring. The sale totalled over $4000, and everything ranged high in price, excepting cattle. Cows went from $90 to as low as $40, while horses demanded fancy prices. The heavy team sold to Mr. Dunkeld's nephew, Murray, for slightly over $400. Sheep ranged anywhere from $23 to $27. A registered bull, 2 years old, sold for $67 to a buyer from Highland Creek. Mr. Dunkeld left nothing undone to advertise his sale well, and the results were apparent, the crowd being similar to that attended a horse race or fall fair. The Dunkelds have resided on this farm for 25 years, and as they retire from active participation in the farm work, we wish for them years of solid enjoyment, in this locality.

The first public health clinic was held in the council chamber on Thursday afternoon of last week. It was well patronized, but there wasn't enough babies, and when the Tribune scribe made a call, he found Nurse Hally demonstrating to a class of young girls, with a dummy "child". We didn't learn what the nature of the instruction was as the demonstration was suspended during our presence. We found the room nicely fitted for the work, and this Thursday it is hoped that between the hours of two and four, more of the mothers will take advantage of the special instruction afforded. Those from the surrounding country are also invited to attend the clinic.

Frank Graham of Kincaid, Sask., son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Graham of Stouffville, who had spent part of the winter with his parents here, left on Saturday, for his farm in the West. Mr. Graham has a half section of land near Kincaid, but as he has never popped the question of matrimony to any woman yet, he has a married couple on the place. Last year Mr. Graham's wheat crop averaged 18 bushels to the acre, which at the present price of this world commodity, made a successful financial year for the owner.

The special missionary day in the local Methodist church last Sunday, proved most successful and very gratifying to the women's organizations under which the special services were held. The ladies were fortunate in securing Rev. J. J. Coulter of Toronto, brother of the pastor of the church, who delivered two addresses, morning and evening, as well as preaching in the afternoon at Bloomington. The morning text, "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ," was the basis of a scholarly discourse, highly illuminating, and full of interest. The evening service, under the Garrett Mission Circle also proved full of interest, the sermon being directed along missionary thought. The morning collection exceeded $600. The choir assisted with special music at each service.

The Whitby Gazette reports in connection with the late Mrs. Pile, mother of Mrs. Richard Ward of Stouffville: "At the hope of her daughter, Mrs. Parish, Whitby Township, on Thursday, March 5th, the death occurred of Rachel Duff, beloved wife of Wm. Pile, in her 76th year. The late Mrs. Pile had been ill for several weeks. She was born in Pickering township, a daughter of the late Abram Duff, and lived in this district all her life. Fifty-five years ago she was married to Mr. Wm. Pile, who survives, and to whom deepest sympathy is extended. She is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ward, of Stouffville, and Mrs. Parish, Brooklin, two brothers Thos. and Robt. Duff, Myrtle, and one sister, Mrs. F. L. Brown of Myrtle. Mrs. Pile was a Presbyterian in religion. The funeral was held on Saturday, March 7th, interment being made in Ashburn cemetery."
