GORMLEY

Miss Addie Wilson spent the week end under the parental roof. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Klees of Victoria Square, visited at Geo. Baker's last Sunday night. Mr. Roy Nelson was unfortunate enough last Monday to break his arm while cranking his tractor. Mrs. Chas. Hoover is spending part of this week at her home, Mr. Simeon Hoover's, on the 8th concession.

The farmers here held their second meeting for a decision on the beef ring question, but went home disappointed, owing to the insufficiency of share takers.

We are very sorry to say that after a lingering illness, Mrs. James Conner passed away on Sunday evening last and was buried Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Conner had reached the age of seventy-three.

The meetings in the Mennonite church are being continued another week. Rev. Mr. Warden of Stouffville, has so far been unable to attend, but Rev. Mr. Bricker of Toronto and Rev. Mr. Yates are doing their utmost to make them a success.

The farm stock sale of the estate of the late Peter Steckley held on the farm here on Thursday last was regarded by the general public as an unqualified success. The total receipts were $2250, which is good for the chattels on a 70 acre farm. The best team sold for $300, while the binder which had been used for twelve seasons brought $168. Other implements and furniture sold high, but cattle prices were not so cheerful. Peter Steckley, jr. will take the farm, while Mrs. Steckley moves into the heart of the community.

BLOOMINGTON

Miss Eva Smith who has been very sick is recovering.

Mr. Stonehouse of Manitoba, is visiting the Misses Fairies.

Lagrippe seems to be very prevalent in this neighborhood at present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Brumwell and family have moved to Deepdale, Manitoba. They will be very much missed in the church and Sunday school where Mrs. Brumwell was a teacher. But our loss will be gain to those with whom they come in contact.

The funeral of the late Mr. Wm. Storry was largely attended on Tuesday of last week. Deceased who was born and had lived in this neighborhood all his life will be very much missed. He was a faithful member and also steward of the Methodist church for a great many years. The family have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

CLAREMONT

Mabel Wagg, Ruben Storey, Alex. Morgan, were week end visitors here. Fred Ward shipped two cars of stock to the Toronto market on Saturday.

The effects of the late Miss Agnes McFarlane were disposed of on Friday.

Mrs. H. Gregg and Mrs. Wm. Palmer spent Thursday with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. J. Mundell returned Saturday evening from Bolton, where she attended the funeral of her niece.

Miss Emma Underhill has returned home after spending the winter with relatives at Toronto and Guelph. David Pugh of Lakefield, was home over the week end. It is rumored that he is offering his business for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott of Brooklyn, spent over the week end at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gregg.

James Underhill is getting along satisfactorily after his recent mishap at Agincourt, where he slipped on the icy road, breaking a small bone in his right leg.

T. Burkitt's sale on Friday of last week, was a decided success. Prices were high and the crowd extra good, considering the state of the roads. The sale amounted to $864.

The Missionary Society of the Union church quilted eight quilts last Thursday. At the evening service at the Union church, John Palister rendered a solo very acceptably.

John and Mrs. Underhill of Aurora, and Mrs. A. Rawson were here Saturday on account of their father's birthday. A very pleasant time was spent with the members of the family at the home of W. S. Cook.

GOODWOOD

Buzzing wood is the order of the day for White Bros.

Some of the cellars in town are partly filled with water.

John Thompson is busy plowing and opening the Stouffville road.

Robt. Hynes and Howard Hackney of Toronto, were here over Sunday.

Jos. Alsop of Haliburton, spent a few days with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Edw. Davis received a bad scald on the legs last week, but is improving nicely.

Foster Wagg of Mongolia, was visiting his cousin, Mrs. Geo. Maye on Friday, March 13th.

The Hon tainers closed their season with a progressive euchre party. The first prize was won by G. Faulkner, being a silk tie; second, a pipe by J. Alsop.

J. Reid and Viola were in Lindsay over Sunday and report that Marion is much better. She will be home this week.

Fred Middleton has secured the Rawleigh business of this territory, which has been worked by Wm. Pugh of Uxbridge. Fred intends to start next week and we wish him success.

The Mission Band have arranged a splendid Easter program for 3 o'clock on Sunday, March 29th, in the Methodist church. There will be special music with orchestra assisting.

Effective Saturday,
March 21st, 1925

Direct Toll Service to Toronto

On and after March 21st, to telephone any number in Toronto you need not ask for Long Distance.

Give the number wanted to your local operator just as on a local call. Do not hang up the receiver but hold the line while connection is being established.

Direct toll service is available only on Station-to-Station calls, that is, where you ask for a number rather than a person. If you do not know the number, ask "Information."

The rate is 25 cents for a three-minute talk to Toronto.

If you must speak to a particular person ask, for "Long Distance" and give her the details of the call

The Bell Telephone Co.
of Canada

GLASGOW

Miss Mary Wellman visited friends in Toronto last week.

Our esteem citizen James Brown, is quite seriously ill.

Mrs. Wm. Pearson spent the past week with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. F. Forsyth visited friends in Hamilton and Toronto, recently.

The local Dramatic Club have set the date for their play as April 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Slack visited at Mr. S. Slack's, at Claremont, on Friday last.

The heavy rain on Wednesday night of last week did considerable damage to the hill just east of Glasgow.

BALLANTRAE

Walter Rymill's auction sale went off with flying colors on Monday. Walter, was the tenant on the Jaynes farm, one and a quarter mile from of the lake, and he decided to give up farming for the present because a suitable place was not available for him. His sale totalled a good figure, some of the feature prices being a sow, due in May, knocked down at $58, while 90 pound pigs brought $15 each. Cows sold at $50, and a binder which had cut 18 crops realized $40. There was a good crowd on hand, for such heavy roads. F.W. Silversides directed the sale, with his assistant Alvin Farmer. Mr. Hamilton has taken the Jaynes farm.

RINGWOOD

Mrs. T. Grove is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Lee, Goodwood.

A number from here attended A. B. Raymer's sale at Lemonville on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. L. Barrett who has been on the sick list for a few days is regaining her health again.

J. R. McKenzie has purchased the blacksmith shop, and we hear he intends to build a residence after removing the shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Maskell of Toronto, have moved to our burg. Mr. Maskell has hired to D. L. Stouffer for the summer.

L. R. Pipher, who has a Mennonite pastoral charge in the Parry Sound district, has disposed of his house and lot in Markham village, to a Toronto man, for a good figure.
