LOCAL HAPPENINGS

"Backbone" Postponed.

A splendid choice in Spring Millinery, suitable for the Easter season at Mrs. F. Wilson's.

Butter sold at 30 to 31 cents and eggs at 27 to 29c. on the Stouffville market last week. There was an extra heavy amount of produce brought in.

Twenty-two farmers just north of Stouffville, joined in the "wood-bee" at Wm. H. Clarkson's one day last week. It was one of the old-fashioned assemblies such as they held in the pioneer days here. Why not have more of them? They tend to promote a good spirit and deeper interest in our neighbors.

In the old home of Wm. Kirby, over at Niagara, very valuable letters and papers have been found throwing much light on the earlier life of our country. Read the fine little story of Wm. Kirby's life and work in the Public Library, and also his great story, "The Golden Dog."

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Stouffville Horticultural society, Mr. Harry O. Klinck was unanimously chosen as president to fill the unexpired term of the late Walter Muxton. All the members of the executive were present excepting two, and Mr. Klinck was the unanimous choice of the meeting. So soon as the president, who has been indisposed, is able to leave the house again, a general meeting will be called and active work started for the spring.

On Tuesday, March 31st, 1925, our estimable citizens, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rae, reached the 55th anniversary of their wedding day, and although Mrs. Rae is 79 years of age, and Mr. Rae 85, both are bright in mind and enjoy a goodly measure of health. Fifty-five years ago as maiden and young bachelor the couple went to Toronto and were quietly married. On their return they took up farming just north of Stouffville, but soon located in town, where Mr. Rae had a long career as a business man. Mr. and Mrs. Rae have attained an enviable record which few are spared to make. Doubly bestowed upon them have been the words of Shakespeare when he wrote: "Look down, ye gods, And on this couple drop a blessed crown."

The William Rennie Seed Co. have sent us a couple of beautiful hangers, vividly displaying the various vegetables and flowers grown from seed of this well-known firm. The hangers are a fine piece of work of the lithographic art, and Old Nature will surely have to do her best to compare with these illustrations. The inference is that nature and Rennie's seeds will do it.

A life interest in an estate amounting to $10,455 is bequeathed by the late Jonathan Brillinger of Markham Township, Richmond Hill, who died on January 23, to his widow, with reversion to a daughter, Cora Allen. Deceased left a farm of 64 acres on the first concession of Markham, worth $8,000 and a lot of ten acres, worth $300, on the second concession.

Last week Auctioneer F. W. Silversides purchased the Margaret McDonald estate property on Church street, consisting of nearly six acres of land, house and barn, for $2600. Mr. Silversides intends to start early this spring to renovate the place, especially the house and putting in a furnace. When completed this will make one of the most desirable properties in town, having the advantage of plenty of land, with good pasture and water.

On Saturday, 1st Deputy Reeve J. R. Campbell, in company with Mr. Eric V. Thompson of Unionville, Road Supt. for the Township of Markham, gave the Tribune a brief call. They were travelling Mr. Campbell's road division in the township in order to decide what work would be carried out this spring and summer. The greatest problem they have to solve is how to make the amount of money provided for the division do all the necessary work that came to their view.

Word has been received by Mr. T. W. Klinck, O'Brien Avenue, that his brother, Mr. Elias Klinck of Toronto, died suddenly on Tuesday afternoon, while visiting friends in the town of Arthur, where he had gone to spend the week-end. The late Mr. Klinck returned only a few weeks ago from Florida, where he had a winter home. Although 75 years of age he displayed wonderful ability, having travelled some 20,000 miles unattended during the past year. Mr. T. W. Klinck is now the only remaining member of a family of twelve.

The dates for the Stouffville Chautauqua for 1925 have been set as Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday, July 16, 17, 18, 20. It is fortunate that Stouffville is again able to swing a week-end date, rather than having the first four days of the week, as larger crowds are usually to be had on Saturday. Among other attractive features this year on the program there will be two plays. A definite announcement of the program will be made later, for which every effort is being made to maintain the high standard of previous years.

There was an enthusiastic gathering of some 30 baseball supporters assembled in the council chambers on Friday evening when the local club was re-organized for the coming season. Although the boys had a successful season last year, financially it wound up about $50 short of expenses, and new suits are required for this year. A subscription list started at the meeting raised about $39, and the citizens in general will be asked to contribute more. An effort will be made to curtail the printing and other expenses this coming season. Officers elected are: Hon. Pres.—Dr. W. A. Sangster. President—Ed. Pennock. Vice-Prest.—B. H. Miller. Messrs. F. W. Silversides and Ora Reaman were summoned before a Toronto court last Friday, as witnesses to give evidence in connection with a case brought by W. A. Fanning, cattle dealer, against A. M. Neville of Uxbridge Township. The case was adjourned, and a portion of the note has also been paid. The evidence has not yet been taken as to why Mr. Neville refused payment.

At the public auction sale of the effects and lands belonging to the late J. B. Wurts on Monday afternoon, Mr. Percy Brillinger was the successful bidder for the garden lands, it being knocked down to him at $1025. The small buildings on the property were sold separate. Mr. Brillinger's purchase is said to contain four acres of land. It is located to the north of Beebe's blacksmith and Dr. Freel's residence, having an entrance on Main street between Beebe's shop and the creek.

The first automobile accident of the season in Stouffville happened last Thursday night, when a car driven by Harry Paisley struck a horse drawn vehicle driven by Fred Mowder. The accident happened in front of the public school, and it was quite dark at the time. The left front wheel of the buggy was demolished also other damage to the vehicle. Fred Mowder and Casper Stover who was also in the buggy, now think they are endowed with the virtues of the cat which is said to have nine lives, for both the boys escaped any injury.

The tractor demonstration school held last Friday afternoon at the International Sales room of Frank Baker at Baker Bros. garage, may be termed a good success. The seating provided was all taken up and many had to listen to the lectures or talks while standing on their "pins". F. H. Wood of the International Harvester Co. gave an excellent discourse on the tractor, explaining many of the common troubles and how to remedy them. This service was especially appreciated by the farmers present who owned tractors. His talk on "How to Grow Potatoes," also proved valuable. While all the farmers made mental note of much of what he said, others used paper and pencil that they might take home the information and apply it to their own farms. J. Loughlin, International Sales Manager at Hamilton was also present and addressed the meeting. While the whole demonstration spelled "service," by the company to their customers, Mr. Baker states that he took a good number of orders for repair parts, and met several prospects for tractors and other implements.

It is not many years since horses were being shipped from Ontario to farms in Western Canada, and many a carload had left Stouffville station with other settlers effects. The situation is now completely reversed, and we find western horses being shipped back to many parts of Ontario. Last Saturday, Councillor Abner Baker of Ringwood, sold a carload at the Mansion House stables here, realizing prices ranging from $60 up to $195. An unusual interest was taken in the sale which attracted a tremendous crowd. The quality of the horses was not up to the standard desired by the farmers of this section, still there seemed to be plenty of buyers. The better class animals in the sale sold more readily and always brought a good price. Robt. Burnett of Whitechurch bought the top-notch at $195 and the same farmer also bought two others at $125 each. Wm. Hopkins of Claremont was also a leading buyer, taking away four with him. Indications are that good horses will continue to increase in price and they may not reach the peak for two years. Prior to the sale of horses, Auctioneer Silversides disposed of a number of cattle and pigs belonging to George Talbot.

DOUBLING THE ARGUMENT FOR SAVING

All that can be said in favor of opening a savings account in the Standard Bank may be repeated with greater emphasis as regards a joint savings account. Joint accounts are primarily for convenience of depositors, but where two people are bound together by common interests, the moral as well as the practical value of working together, planning their financial betterment with the aid of a joint bank account is clearly evident. The Standard Bank solicits your joint savings account.
