HEALTH EDUCATION

BY DR. J. J. MIDDLETON

Provincial Board of Health, Ontario.

Dr. Middleton will be glad to answer questions on Public Health matters through this column. Address him at Spadina House, Spadina Crescent, Toronto.

Mark Twain's opinion of man is not very flattering on occasion. He sees human weaknesses and limitations very clearly and tells about them in his own humorous and interesting way. "Man can't sleep out of doors," says Mark, "without freezing to death or getting rheumatism; he can't keep his nose under water over a minute without being drowned. He's the poorest, clumsiest excuse of all the creatures that inhabit the earth. He has to be coddled, swathed and bandaged to be able to live at all. He is a rickety sort of thing any way you take him—a regular British museum of inferiorities."

of one sort or another. He's just a basketful of pestilent corruption, provided for the sport and entertainment of microbes. Look at the workmanship of him in some particulars! What's his appendix for? It has no value. It's sole interest is to lie and wait for a stray grape seed and breed trouble. What is his beard for? It is just a nuisance. All nations persecute it with a razor. Nature, however, always keeps him supplied with it, instead of putting it on his head. A man wants to keep his hair. It is a graceful ornament, a comfort, the best protection against weather, and he prizes it above emeralds and rubies, and half the time nature puts it on so it won't stay.

SPRING WEATHER HARD ON BABY

The Canadian Spring weather—one day mild and bright; the next raw and blustery, is extremely hard on the baby. Conditions are such that the mother cannot take the little one out for the fresh air so much to be desired. He is confined to the house which is often over-heated and badly ventilated. He catches cold; his little stomach and bowels become disordered and the mother soon has a sick baby to look after. To prevent this an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets should be given. They regulate the stomach and bowels, thus preventing or relieving colds, simple fevers, colic or any other of the many minor ills of childhood. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Known Only By Love. Of course man is useful to man, because his body is a marvelous machine and his mind an organ of wonderful efficiency. But he is a spirit as well, and this spirit is truly known only by love. When we define a man by the market value of the service we can expect of him, we know him imperfectly. With this limited knowledge of him it becomes easy for us to be unjust to him and to entertain feelings of triumphant self-congratulation when, on account of some cruel advantage on our side, we can get out of him much more than we have paid for. But when we know him as a spirit we know him as our own. We at once feel that cruelty to him is cruelty to ourselves, to make him small is stealing from our own humanity, and in seeking to make use of him solely for personal profit we merely gain in money or comfort what we pay for in truth.—Rabindranath Tagore.

A single grateful thought towards heaven is the most perfect prayer.—Lessing.

The Illusion of War. War I abhor, and yet how sweet The sound along the marching street Of drum and life, and I forget Wet eyes of widows, and forget Broken old mothers, and the whole Dark butchery without a soul.

Without a soul, save this bright drink Of heady music, sweet as hell; And even my peace abiding feet Go marching with the marching street. For yonder, yonder goes the life And what care I for human life?

The tears fill my astonished eyes And full my heart is like to break And yet 'tis all embannered lies, A dream those little drummers make.

O it is wickedness to clothe You hideous, grinning thing that stalks Hidden in music, like a queen, That in a garden of glory walks, Till good men love the thing they loathe.

Art, thou hast many infamies, But not an infamy like this— Oh, snap the life and still the drum, And show the monster as she is.

A RELIABLE TONIC FOR SPRINGTIME

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Give New Health and Vigor.

Not sick—but not feeling quite well. That is the way most people feel in the spring. Easily tired, appetite fickle, sometimes headaches and a feeling of depression. Pimples or eruptions may appear on the skin, or there may be twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia. Any of these indicate that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily develop into more serious trouble.

Do not dose yourself with purgatives, as many people do, in the hope that you can put your blood right. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. Any doctor will tell you that this is true. What you need in the spring is a tonic that will enrich the blood and build up the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do this speedily, safely and surely. Every dose of this medicine helps to enrich the blood, which clears the skin, strengthens the appetite and makes tired, depressed men, women and children bright, active and strong.

Proof of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills when the system is run down is shown by the case of Mrs. Lillian Lewis, South Ohio, N.S., who says:—"About a year ago I was badly run down. My appetite was poor, I did not sleep well and my nerves were all unstrung. I could not go upstairs without stopping to rest. As I was a long way from a doctor I decided to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in the course of a few weeks I felt like a new person. As an all around restorative I can heartily recommend this medicine."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail, at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Self-Made Monarchs.

In many a group of the East or West Indies, one hears now and then of a white man who has made himself the potentate of some little island unknown to the outside world. The Ross dynasty in the Cocos Islands is a famous case in point, and there are several others.

Early in the nineteenth century a certain French adventurer, Baron de Thierry, at the head of a hundred followers, recruited in Australia, proclaimed himself King of New Zealand. He soon discovered, however, that to be a successful king a man must have money, and it was the lack of this that caused the desertion of his subjects and the consequent collapse of his "kingdom."

A man named Antoine de Tounens established a monarchy in Araucania, a country just south of Chile. Antoine was luckier than de Thierry in that he succeeded in escaping to France when his people rebelled against him. He died in 1880 in comparative poverty, bequeathing his crown to his secretary, who, however, wisely elected to govern his kingdom from the safe vantage-ground of his rooms in Paris!

A self-elected potentate who wielded considerably more power than any of those already mentioned was William Webster, "King of Walou." Webster, an American citizen, was formerly a ship's carpenter on a whaler; but had deserted and joined a little band of settlers scattered here and there in Auckland. The great Comandante chief known as Hooknose took a fancy to this deserter, who married his daughter.

He then established trading stations all over the Gulf and Firth of Thames, through which he reaped a large profit when immigration to New South Wales began on a large scale, buying maize and potatoes for the natives and shipping them to Australia. He also kept a boarding house at the native village of Horkshire for the benefit of the numerous adventurers who kept coming and going.

Hard work may bring you wealth; saving it requires resourcefulness and often courage.

Flattery is the praise we hear given to other people.

With The BOY SCOUTS

Fire Marshal Praises Scouts.

The Scout Troops of Woodstock recently had a visitor in the person of Deputy Fire Marshal J. W. Pointon, of Toronto, who addressed them on fire-prevention methods. Mr. Pointon made the statement that Woodstock was the first city he had found in Ontario in which the Scouts were taking courses of instruction on fire-prevention. Recently a fire was halted in its early stages by the good work of two Woodstock Scouts, this being a direct result of their training.

U.S. Scouts at Sarnia. A splendid spirit of co-operation exists between the Boy Scouts of America and the Canadian Boy Scouts at all towns and cities along the Canadian-American border. This was recently demonstrated at Sarnia, where the Scouts of the 11th Port Huron Troop, Boy Scouts of America, presented their fine play, "The Boy Scouts," under the auspices of the 3rd Sarnia Troop.

A Library Helps Scouts. Ashcroft, B.C., has a public library which takes particular interest in Boy Scout readers. The librarian, in addition to making available books on subjects of general interest to Scouts, has picked out a set of 66 books covering the 66 proficiency badges which Scouts can earn. This is a great help to the local trooper. Show this note to your local librarian and see if something similar can be arranged for your troop.

A Boy Scout Orchestra. Bridgeburg, Ont., has a fine Boy Scout orchestra. They recently gave their first public entertainment and were greeted by a splendid audience. Scoutmaster Bruce Hogg is the leader.

Assistant Provincial Commissioner. Frank C. Irwin, of Toronto, spent an evening recently with the 1st Perth Troop. This is one of the oldest troops in the eastern part of the province and has been doing consistently good Scouting ever since its inception. It is fortunate in the possession of a very fine camp property on Rideau Lake, just at the end of the Tay Canal. Here it has a big stone house, a bunk house, row boats and a disappearing propeller motor boat. This property was given to the troop by a Perth lady who has always been most appreciative of the good work Scoutmaster Holmes has been doing for the boys of Perth.

An Old Boy Returns. Way back in 1912 a little fellow joined the 10th Ottawa Troop under the then Scoutmaster, Mr. W. A. Proctor, and played away and worked away until he became a First Class Scout. But that was not enough; he sought knowledge, and finally there were 23 bright proficiency badges in rows on his arms. He kept on with the Troop through many affairs up hill and through defeat, but one day it changed its meeting place and then it became the 2nd Ottawa Troop. And still this Scout kept on. But one day he went away to school and his old friends at the Troop went along without him, until recently he came back. Now he is a man, but still a Scout. His name is Dr. Brathwait Dixon, and just the other day he accepted a place on the Executive Committee of the Ottawa Boy Scouts Association. So you see, Scouts, the old phrase of "Once a Scout, always a Scout," holds good. Dr. Dixon returns to active Scouting with the best wishes of all Scouts, old and new, and we hope that his new experiences will be as pleasant as his recollections of the old 10th and 2nd Ottawa Troops of thirteen years ago.

The Same Pig. A young wife went into a grocer's shop and said: "I bought three or four hams here a month or so ago, and they were fine. Have you any more of them?"

"Yes, ma'am," replied the grocer; "there are ten of those hams hanging up there now."
"Well, if they're of the same pig, I'll take three of them."

Golf in Germany.
When the war broke out golf was just beginning to be popular in Germany. It now seems likely to regain its old standing. The Berlin Golf Club, says a despatch from that city, will soon open its new eighteen-hole course—an event that, even if it should please no one else, is sure to please the diplomatic corps in Berlin, especially the members of the American, the British and the Japanese embassy. The most flourishing golf club in Germany is at Bremen, where there are large American and English colonies of cotton merchants. Baden-Baden, Hamburg, Wiesbaden, Munich, Frankfurt, Cologne and Dresden also have golf courses.

FULL OF ACHES AND PAINS

Toronto Mother Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ontario.—"I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a splendid medicine to take before and after confinement. A small book was put in my door one day advertising Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines, and as I did not feel at all well at the time I went and got a bottle of Vegetable Compound right away. I soon began to notice a difference in my general health. I was full of aches and pains at the time and thought I had every complaint going, but I can truthfully say your medicine certainly did me good. I can and will speak highly of it, and I know it will do other women good who are sick and ailing if they will only give it a fair trial. Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills are splendid for constipation. You are welcome to use my letter if you think it will help any one."—Mrs. HARRY WESTWOOD, 643 Quebec Street, Toronto, Ontario.

The expectant mother is wise if she considers carefully this statement of Mrs. Westwood. It is but one of a great many, all telling the same story—beneficial results.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for use during this period. The experience of other women who have found this medicine a blessing is proof of its great merit. Why not try it now yourself? O.
