Mr. and Mrs. Ross of Toronto, visited at S. P. Foote's on Sunday.

Mrs. Bowman, who is nearing her 90th year, is quite seriously ill, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Isaac Pike. We sincerely hope she will be spared to our community.

Under the spreading maple tree The village smithy stands The door is closed, the fire is out, Will's gone to till the land.

In the death, on Sunday last of Thomas Moran, this locality loses one of its most aged citizens, he being 87 years old. It is just 30 years since Mr. Moran came into this section from near Toronto. He bought a farm at lot 6, con. 4, and had resided there ever since. Twenty-six years ago in the local Methodist church the most important event in his life transpired for at that time he forsook evil ways and became converted. Mr. Moran was regarded as an excellent neighbor, and of kind disposition. So long as his strength lasted he worked in the interest of the church at Bethesda, and was quite active up to a week ago when pneumonia attacked him. Mr. Moran is survived by his second wife and seven children, the family having left here some years. The funeral on Tuesday was largely attended, the pall bearers being six grandsons. Rev. Mr. Burgess conducted the service, assisted by Mr. D. M. Heise. Interment took place at Heise Hill cemetery.

When not occupied in turning the crank, Jac will be glad to take on the job of sheep shearing, as he has purchased the necessary shearing implements. How about starting on Allan Wideman's kid, Jac?

SEEDING WELL ADVANCED IN WESTERN PROVINCES

In Manitoba from 50 to 75 per cent. of the wheat is sown in some sections, being fully a month earlier than last year. In Saskatchewan farmers are working on the land everywhere and seeding is general. Alberta farmers are held up by the cold weather, though seeding has started in some districts. Moisture is plentiful and many districts will have increased areas.

TENDERED RESIGNATION

Alexander MacMurchy, Reeve of King Township, at the last meeting of the council, tendered his resignation. Reeve MacMurchy has served his municipality fourteen years as councillor and reeve, and has proved an efficient and popular official. King council has recently had to deal with several weighty problems which have proved more or less contentious.

RINGWOOD

An interesting family reunion took place in Toronto this month when the nine children of Mrs. Timothy Bruels, one of our former residents of Ringwood, met at her home where they spent a week in solid enjoyment. In addition there were present 29 grandchildren during the week. The Bruels family had not been together in the past nineteen years, hence it was an overjoyous occasion. Those to come the longest distance were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bruels of Farrell, Pennsylvania, who motored to Toronto and brought along his sister Mrs. Klippert of Detroit. Mrs. Mary Cober was present from Hespeler, Mrs. Mossie Pipper of New Liskeard and Mrs. Millie White of Burford. Other members of the family live in Toronto, being Mrs. Florence Campbell, Mrs. Victoria Johnston, Mrs. Anniebell Elasser and John Bruels. John returned from Weyburn, Sask., over a year ago. The old friends in this vicinity congratulate the mother and her family on this unique occasion. Mrs. T. M. Bruels returned with her son Willis to spend some time in Detroit.

Last week F. W. Silversides purchased a car load of cattle which were shipped here today, and are being placed on his newly acquired property, the McDonald place, on Church street. There is 40 head in the shipment, good stockers, which are for sale.
