Allin Pike's.

Next Sunday morning, the pastor will begin a series of Sunday morning sermons on "The Gospel—The Power of God unto Salvation". The first message will be, "The need for the Gospel."
"A quiet talk with a young man," is the subject of sermon for next Sunday evening in the local church. This is the third in a series of "Quiet talks with Jesus".

CLAREMONT

Stanley Cook and family, left on Friday, for a week's visit with his parents at New Hamburg.
On Saturday evening our football team defeated Ashburn by a score of 6 to 2.
On the holiday a goodly company of old Claremont residents now living in Toronto motored out to our park and enjoyed themselves. Quite a number of games were played and a number of interesting races run off. A couple of bag-pipes furnished the music. It being rather cool, the meals were spread in the town hall.
A very enjoyable time was spent on July 1st at the second annual gathering of the Forsyth clan, when about 300 assembled at the beautiful home of Mr. Malcolm Forsyth, Claremont, to renew old acquaintances. Members of the clan were from different parts of Canada and United States. Among those from a distance were: Mr. Peter Forsyth, of Washington, D.C., Mr. and Mrs. George Guibord and family, Mrs. O. Kester, of Boston, Mass., Mrs. Carukin Winchester of Grand Rapids, Mich., Mrs. Morie of Windsor, also a number from Hamilton, Guelph, Toronto, Cobourg, Aurora, etc. An orchestra, the bagpipe, and bright speeches were part of the program. Community singing was enjoyed by all. Mr. Malcolm Forsyth was appointed chieftain of the clan which decided to meet annually.

The Orange walk to the United Church of Canada was well attended last Sunday evening, about 70 members being present. The address given by Rev. C.G. Otten was very impressive and instructive.
Mrs. Moses Norton met with a painful accident, while visiting at Mrs. Wm. Lapeer's last week. While carrying bread down cellar she fell, becoming unconscious for some time. She is much better again, and we hope for a speedy recovery.
On July 4th an exciting game of football was played here between Cherrywood and Goodwood, resulting in a victory for the home team by a score 2 to 1. Don't forget the game on Thursday the 16th with Pickering, which team has been greatly strengthened.
While taking a calf to Uxbridge last Friday, a neighbor of ours on the 2nd concession fell asleep in the wagon, when the horse got too near the ditch, upsetting the whole outfit. As there was no eye witness the predicament of the farmer was interesting. Being resourceful, he hitched the horse to the side of the wagon and pulled it right-side up and went on his way rejoicing.
