LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Wednesday afternoon, Col. T. H. Lennox, was nominated by the Conservatives of North York, to contest the riding against Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.
Last Friday, Mrs. A.S. Collins took quite seriously ill at her home in the east end with a peculiar form of gripple, and although she is still needing careful medical treatment, she is recovering nicely.
A local merchant who is giving credit says that the trouble with people who buy on time is that they don't know when time ends and eternity begins.
There are still a great number of overdue subscriptions to the Tribune. In order to keep up the standard of the paper, it is necessary that subscribers remit for their paper. Look at the label on this issue, and if you are in arrears, why—
The heavy downpour of rain which fell most of the day last Sabbath, noticeably affected the church attendance, at most of the Stouffville churches. Towards evening the rain let up, and the streets became quite well filled with people, after being forsaken all day long.
The peach and cream social on the lawn at the Christian church on Friday afternoon last, proved very successful, considering that rain fell most of the morning, and it looked more or less threatening all afternoon. Those who turned out were treated to a splendid lunch, peaches with real cream, cake, bread and butter and coffee. During the evening the Stouffville band played.
George Hearn, who died in a Toronto hospital, as a result of injuries received in a motor accident on Yonge street, and whom the Toronto papers reported as having from Stouffville, was not actually a resident of this town. The late Mr. Hearn was a resident of Whitechurch Township, living on the 5th concession, just south of Bethesda. Deceased was 52 years of age.
Melville United Church, Sixth line of Markham, will celebrate its 80th anniversary on Sunday, October 4th, to be followed on the evening of the Fifth by a tea meeting. Rev. J. McP. Duncan, D.D., will be the speaker on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. and the Rev. J. W. Pedley of Toronto, will give a humorous lecture on Monday evening. The names of singers taking part and other details will be announced later.
The McCormicks of Toronto, junior championship baseball team of Central Ontario were billed to meet the St. Andrews of Oshawa, who hold the championship of Eastern Ontario, in Memorial Park, Stouffville, on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The teams had played two games each winning one, and the Stouffville game was to break the tie. In the first game the McCormicks won 8 to 3, and in the second meet Oshawa won 5 to 1. The winners of these teams will meet Guelph in the finals with home and home games.
On Saturday Mr. Frank Baker sold the fifty acres on the 10th concession at Mongolla, known as the D. Moyer farm, to Mr. Cedric Watson, of Goodwood. Mr. Watson, who is a pedagogue of no mean ability, is not forsaking his profession for the farm, as he is teaching near Agincourt this year but rather his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Watson of Goodwood, will move onto the newly acquired place. Mr. Baker purchased this farm only last spring from Mr. Harman Jones, who in turn got it from Mr. Moyer, all within a short space of time.
When a car driven by Stanley Jones of near Altona crashed into a horse drawn vehicle in charge of Vincent Wagg of the 9th concession, in front of Monkhouses, tailoring shop about eight-thirty on Sunday evening, the noise of the collision drew a crowd akin to the jam in front of a midway show. As usual the horse drawn chariot came out the worse of the head-on, with one wheel demolished, and other minor breaks, but fortunately the horse did not get away. The benzine buggy stood up well under the circumstances and appeared to be little the worse. Vincent Wagg being thrown broad-side into a mud hole, his repair bill may consist of a new suit of clothes. The general opinion places the cause of the accident to the failure of the drivers to see each other soon enough, although the street lights were good at this point. Each driver is reported to have had a lady friend along, so the supposition, "love is blind," is put down as the real cause of the mix-up.

Lost, a wicker table, between Unionville and Ballantrae. Reward. E. J. Cable, Ballantrae.
Corn cutting of one of the best crops for some years, is now engaging the time of many farmers.

On Sept. 2nd, 1925, Eva May Gibner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gibner, east end, was married to Earl George Heisey, son of Mr. Sam. Heisey, 6th concession, by Rev. W. W. Fleischer. The bridesmaid was Miss Annie Smith of Stouffville and the best man was Mr. Lorne Heisey. Although Stouffville is not looked upon as an apple raising section, there will be abundance of them here this year. Almost everywhere one sees props under the apple trees to help them bear their load which is growing heavier as the fruit increases in size. Indications are for a bumper crop all over Ontario. Some growers in the Oshawa-Belleville apple belt predict a half million barrels, and mostly from sprayed orchards which carry the best fruit.

We are informed that Mr. Harry Perry, who was recently appointed a constable to control the motor traffic and see that the law is obeyed in general here in Stouffville, now has the law on motor traffic down finer than a mosquitos eye lash and unless more heed is paid to the requirements of the act, there is going to be a wholesale array of drivers in police court. Too many are driving without lights or with only one light on at night, while others are guilty of too much speed.

Our esteemed citizen, Mr. A. D. Bruce, of Markham Township, met with a mishap last week, resulting in the fracture of a bone in his left arm just below the wrist. Mr. Bruce was in the act of picking fruit in his orchard, when the ladder on which he stood slipped, precipitating him in a more or less unceremonious manner to the ground. Medical aid was summoned and the arm is now carried in a splint, but Mr. Bruce will be able to carry on his clerical duties with his efficient right arm and hand, although progress will be somewhat impeded. To Mr. Bruce this is the most disastrous downfall of man in the garden since Adam, and Eve made their eventful fall at the beginning of time.

Eglinton United Church of Toronto, lovely with gladiolus and palms was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Hilda Bessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Simonds, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter Stanton Muston, second son of Mrs. Muston, and the late Mr. Walter Muston of Stouffville. The Rev. Mr. Caswell performed the ceremony, and Miss Winnifred Cozens played the wedding march. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white canton crepe, trimmed with gipure lace, her embroidered French veil was caught with orange blossoms, and her shower bouquet was of butterfly roses and lily of the valley. Miss Gladys Whitmore was bridesmaid, in a frock of shrimp georgette, with black picture hat and bouquet of Pernet roses and baby's breath. The groom's brother, Mr. James Muston, was best man, and the ushers were Dr. C.H. Warriner and Mr. Jack Currie. During the signing of the register, Miss Ruby Tait sang "For Thee Alone". A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother wore a sand and blue costume, with blue velvet hat and corsage bouquet. Mrs. Muston, mother of the groom, was in black brocaded crepe and corsage bouquet. Later, the newly wedded couple left for a honeymoon by motor. The gift of the groom was a platinum fox fur. Mr. and Mrs. Muston will reside at 138 Brookdale Ave., Toronto.

When the last animal has passed through the auction ring, when every implement of the farm equipment has been sold, what then? The vast majority of farm auction sales are conducted on a credit basis, but if the sale is to be counted a success—a trained banking expert must pass judgment upon the soundness of all settlements.
