THE CLERKS' OFFICE

The town clerk's office was changed this week, and anyone having business to transact with Clerk Dougherty will in future find him in the council chambers at the rear of the fire hall. A suitable building has been erected at the rear of the hall to carry the electrical supplies, and Clerk Dougherty is now at home to his friends during the usual hours. Also Clerk W. H. Clark of Whitechurch Township will be at home to the township ratepayers in the new quarters, for he has arranged with council for suitable space in the municipal block.

The vacated building on Main street, next Bowdway's drug store, was long established as a clerk's office. It was first used for that purpose 20 years ago, when the former clerk Mr. John Urquhart took on the municipal job. At that time it was also used by Mr. Urquhart as a store, but later he gave up the mercantile trade, retaining the building as an office only.

CONTRACT LET FOR OFFICE

The contract for the new post office building at Stouffville was let last Friday, according to advice received from Mr. W. H. S. Cane of Newmarket, president of the North York Reform Association.

Mr. Cane was in Ottawa on Friday last when the tenders were dealt with. A Toronto firm was awarded the contract.

CONTRACTOR IS RESPONSIBLE

It is evident that the mile and a quarter of new road built last spring on the sixth concession of Markham, adjoining the Markham-Whitechurch townline, is not standing up, and shows signs of wearing out.

To meet such conditions, twenty per cent of the contract price is withheld from the contractors for eighteen months or more, and this money will be used to bring the road up to the requirements. We understand the Commission will protect the Township in this matter. The fact that the road is now under control of the municipality will not alter the situation in respect to the contractor's obligations.

TORIES ORGANIZE

The first gun in the present political campaign here on behalf of the Conservative candidate, Col. T. H. Lennox, was fired on Monday evening in the Auditorium, when over eighty-five Tories assembled to arrange the organization in this section. The attendance was described as the largest ever assembled in Stouffville for a Conservative organization meeting in this Liberal stronghold.

Mr. W. H. Todd was elected to the chair, and was later elected vice-president of the Stouffville Association, with Mr. Robt. Miller as president. Mr. F. L. Button was re-elected as secretary.

In addition to the appointment of officers, short speeches were made by the candidate, who was acclaimed by loud cheers. Other speakers were Messrs. Clifford Case of Aurora, Arthur Treblcock of Toronto, and Wm. Keith, M.P.P. for North York.

Col. Lennox spoke chiefly along organization lines, but also touched briefly on the issues of the present campaign. He claimed the policy of the Meighen government was a protective tariff for the Canadian farmers. Here in our own midst the farmer suffered from serious competition by American vegetable growers, he said. Since his nomination he had travelled the entire riding, and could sincerely say that no campaign augured of greater success for him in all the many battles he had gone through in North York than the present fight.

The meeting closed with cheers for Hon. Arthur Meighen and the candidate.

COURT ADDS THIRTEEN

At a Court of Revision for Uxbridge Township, held at Goodwood last Saturday, for the revision of the Voters' List, there were thirty appeals dealt with, mostly names of persons alleged to have been left off the list. Only thirteen of these were allowed, by His Honor Judge Ruddy who presided. The appeals were signed by ex-Reeve Owen Davies, whose activity would indicate that he will seek re-election next January.

SENATE REFORM AND LOW TARIFF

PART OF LIBERAL PLATFORM

An enthusiastic public meeting, given additional pep and interest by the attendance of an orchestra from Newmarket, and a choir of young people gathered from parts of the riding, was held in Ratcliff's Hall, on Tuesday night in the interests of the local Liberal candidate, Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Prime Minister. The hall was well filled, and the meeting was marked by excellent order, and the best of attention to each speaker, of which there were three, Reeve Morgan Baker of Whitechurch, Mrs. G. F. Richan of Ottawa and Hon. Geo. N. Gordon, cabinet minister in the King government. Prior to the meeting the band rendered several aires in front of the hall.

Mr. Gordon, who was deputy speaker in the last parliament was the main spokesman. The tariff, reduced taxation and our present prosperity were the main issues dealt with. "According to Mr. Meighen protection is the main issue." As for protection, it was a tax placed on goods coming into Canada. "We get," said the speaker, "$300,000,000 in national revenue from this tax. I call that pretty good protection. I believe in protection." Mr. Gordon continued, "but it is protection for the man and woman with a little family to support, where the pay envelope is brought home and every dollar allotted to its place—the consumer we must not tax, but we must have a tariff for revenue to pay our national debt.

The failure of a glass company at Hamilton has been cited as a lamentable instance of the tragedy of low tariff. It was only a tragedy of silica sand. Silica sand, indispensable to the manufacture of glass, costs 25c a ton at Antwerp, but $5 a ton laid down at the dock in Hamilton. That is why the glass company could not pay," said Mr. Gordon. The speaker accused Mr. Meighen of being inconsistent on the matter of protection. "He was once," said he, "a free trader, in bogus butter." By that he referred to his action in letting oleomargarine into Canada, and "almost wrecking the dairy business of this country."

Turning to the senate the speaker struck a responsive cord, when he flayed the upper chamber for its short comings. "An irresponsible senate," he said, "have throttled good legislation. The race track bill and mothers' pensions. The former sought to stamp out gambling and the latter proposed aid for dependent widowed mothers. Meighen is a defender of the senate. Every time he put down his thumb, he killed the bill. Action must be taken to make this body responsible to the people, and that's a plank in the Liberal platform.

The Meighen blue ruin cloud is a farce. Canada is prospering despite this talk. Factories are humming. In Peterboro where the speaker knew the situation, the Quaker Oat Co. are running 24 hours per day, and Canadian General Electric had just taken a large order for a million and a half new business. Massey Harris stock which sold at $25 per share nine months ago, has jumped to $65—all evidence of increased business.

Tory financing was poor, thought Mr. Gordon. "When in office they issued $1,650,000,000 of 25-year tax free bonds, bearing 5 1/2 per cent interest. But with all this liability left on our hands, we have reduced the debt of Canada this year so far by twenty millions of money." All this and more has been done despite the fact that the government has only 45c out of every dollar it gets to operate public works, etc.

Mr. Gordon predicted that in two years the C.N.R. would be paying its own way, if the debt is decreased the same rate as in the past two years.

Referring to the candidate, Rt. Hon. Mr. King, Mr. Gordon said he was at the front of the most democratic government Canada ever had—a government for the people. The people of North York were privileged to have such a man as Mr. King to vote for. He is a man who had championed the rights of the people, he is faithful and loyal, and his heart is right, his citizenship sound, and it's your enduring privilege to elect him over the Toronto lawyer."

Reeve Morgan Baker spoke briefly on the tariff issue, and declared as a farmer that the King tariff policy was the right thing for us. Even though you may not be a follower of Mr. King or of Liberalism, for the sake of the country's welfare everyone should support the policy of the Liberal party at this time, he thought.

Mrs. Richan, of Ottawa, said she had been asked to come into the premier's riding, and do what she could, along organization. She described Hon. Arthur Meighen as the apostle of gloom and Premier King as the apostle of faith.

Mr. A. D. Bruce was chairman of the meeting.
