

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Keep sweet—it will soon be over!
Premier King's majority in Stouffville four years ago was 355.
Don't wait to be drawn to the poll. Vote early, it's your duty to do so.
To Rent a good frame house with all conveniences. Apply Edw. Baker, Stouffville.

"What are you going to name your baby brother?" "Bob, after grand-mother's hair."

East York Plowmen will hold their match to-morrow (Friday) on the farm of Robt. Stiver, Unionville.

This week's Friday half holiday will be the last for this season, as beginning with November stores remain open all day each Friday as on other business days.

Douglass Ward, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ward, east end, left on Saturday to serve an apprenticeship in the mechanical department of the Canadian National Railways at Stratford.

At the Peel County plowing match last Friday, Stouffville men again came to the front, with an enviable number of wins. Winfred Timbers won first in the open class in sod and first for best crown and finish. Lloyd Turner took first in jointer class and Fred Timbers, the youngster plowman, won first in a class of six men. Each of the Stouffville trio got $27 in cash.

WANTED—Brick Layers for new Post Office. Address, Contractor, New Post Office, Stouffville.

Thanksgiving Day and Armistice Day will be observed on Monday, Nov. 9th.

This week Mr. Joel Nendick, one of our veteran citizens, completes his 33rd year as caretaker of the United Church (Methodist), of Stouffville. He has established a record for holding down a job, and also for faithful service.

Mr. N. Castle, Smith, who conducted the Ford agency in Stouffville during the past summer, has purchased a general store business at Zephyr, and moved his household effects this week. Zephyr, although a small place, has a good weekly market, and we wish Mr. Smith success in his new undertaking.

Fred Beaver of Uxbridge, a Salvation Army worker, who had frequently assisted in the services on the street in Stouffville this summer, died suddenly last week. He was enroute to Toronto to attend a meeting of Salvationists, and had to be removed from the train at Unionville. Although rushed to the hospital, Mr. Beaver died without regaining consciousness.

Farmers are realizing as high as 22c net per bushel for their turnips at Stouffville station. Prices have varied from this to as low as 14c bushel. Only the higher price was reached through shipping the co-operative way, under which system 10c per bushel is paid cash, and the remainder is not forthcoming until Christmas.

Election returns at Ratcliff's Hall Tonight

The Annual Bible Conference will be held in the Tunkard Church, Gormley, from Tuesday, Nov. 3rd to Nov. 5th. Daily sessions.

The Stouffville Creamery will close every evening, excepting Saturday at six o'clock after Nov. 1st. Patrons please note this.

Showing of Mid-Winter Millinery, in all the latest shades, including black and metal. Prices reasonable. Mrs. F. Wilson. 36

Arrangements have been made whereby the election returns will be given in Ratcliff's Hall Tonight. Both sides invited. Silver collection only to defray expenses.

COMING—Dr. F. E. Luke, Optometrist, 167 Yonge St., Toronto, may be consulted about your eyes for glasses at J. Boadway's drug store, Stouffville. Thursday, Nov. 12th. Glasses if required at right prices.

Owing to the unusual amount of snow which fell Monday and Tuesday, and melted as fast as it came down where there was any traffic, the gravel roads are getting in bad shape.

T. Madill of Locust Hill, brought a Wolf Mountain apple into The Tribune office on Tuesday, which resembled a turnip in size. It measured 15 inches round, and 6 inches across. Can anyone beat it?

The regular meeting of the Horticultural Society has been postponed to Thursday, Nov. 5th. A large attendance is requested as the winter program and future work of the society will be discussed.

One of the very oldest men in Markham Township, Mr. Daniel Hoover who lives on the 7th con., about 3 miles from town, reached his 93rd birthday on Tuesday. He is quite bright, and recently recovered from a serious illness.

A dog belonging to Mrs. W. H. Clark, Church street, fell into a deep hole at the station where changes were being made to the waterworks, and remained there all one night. The dog failed to recognize the lighted lantern as a danger signal, and consequently had a very uncomfortable time until rescued in the morning.

Of all the farm stock sales this October in the local territory, that of last Thursday at Gormley, on the farm of Mr. George Bell, is the largest. It totaled $4300, and auctioneer Silversides made the turnover in about four hours. Mr. Bell is a capable farmer, and had his stock and implements in good condition. As he is giving up farming, we understand Mr. Bell will locate at Richmond Hill.

All the errors made are not in the newspaper offices, as was discovered here last week by four of our townsmen. It so happened that Recording Secretary W. R. Sanders of the local Oddfellows Lodge received a written invitation to attend a special function in honor of the Past Grand Master at Agincourt on Friday evening. In some manner the date became confused and the local photographer in company with two "seamsters" (one on harness, the other on cloth), namely Morley Barker and J. Monkhouse, and Dr. F. A. Dales made the trip to Agincourt on Wednesday evening. Not until they arrived in the Scarborough village did the quartette discover they were two days ahead of time, and rather than bide the time there, all returned home, not sad, but wiser men.

Ratcliff's hall was jammed to the doors, out into the vestibule, and half way down the steps last Thursday evening, by those who came to hear Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, and his co-supporters, Hon. Geo. P. Smith of Hamilton, and Mr. Frank Denton of Toronto. Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Denton proved themselves able to hold the big audience from eight o'clock until the arrival of Mr. King at nearly 10 o'clock. Hon. Mr. Smith occupied over an hour, and Mr. Denton was nicely into his address when the arrival of the Premier was a signal for him to cut matters short. The Premier arrived from Markham where he spoke earlier in the evening, and he was given a hearty welcome on his entrance to the hall. Mr. A. D. Bruce acted as chairman, and a special orchestra from Uxbridge was engaged to render music. As The Tribune will not be read by most of our subscribers this week until after they have voted the remarks of the speakers are not published.

The Board of Trade regular meeting for October, is to be held Friday night. All members kindly attend.

Jas. Lee of Markham, was up for the plowing match on Tuesday, and was called on during the supper hour for a speech, but he had just rushed away to catch his train home.

Evangelists Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Conner, will conduct their farewell service on Sunday night at 8 o'clock in the Auditorium. Mr. Conner will speak at this service. Wm. Grove will speak on Thursday night.

Mr. Wm. Barkey is placing a hundred or more barrels of apples in cold storage, from his orchard a half mile east of Altona. As cold storage charges are not abnormally high, this may be a successful means of holding the fruit until after the glut is off the market.

The Women's Institute held a social in Ratcliff's hall, Wednesday evening to dispose of the big surplus of supplies not even placed on the tables for the plowmen on Tuesday. When the ladies of the Institute undertake to feed the multitudes they never trust to a repetition of the parable of the loaves and fishes.

Although election day has been decreed a public holiday, it will not be taken advantage of in many rural parts, and the stores in Stouffville will be open as usual. The next day Friday, is the final half holiday of the season.

The Annual Picture Show under the auspices of Christ Church W. A. (Anglican) will be held in the Auditorium on Thursday evening, Nov. 5th. As in former years, this will be a specially high-class picture, and will be one of the finest treats of the season. Don't miss it. Admission 25c., children 15c. The title of the picture is "Oh Doctor", and is a continual laugh from beginning to end. There will also be two reels of comedy.

From France there arrived in Stouffville on Tuesday, consigned to Mrs. F. A. Hutchinson, west end, the old wooden cross which marked her soldier son's grave in Flanders. The wooden cross had been replaced by a permanent stone cross, and in accordance with arrangement, the original marking was sent her. The cross, as one may see them in France was somewhat weather beaten, and bore the name on the plate of Wm. Hutchinson, who was a machine gunner.

For the most part political meetings are being extra well attended this election, due perhaps to a broadening out of the average mind by a desire to vote for what is best rather than along party lines. Thus thousands of Liberals are hearing Conservative speakers, and thousands of Conservatives are attending the Liberal meetings. Following the tremendous jam which attended the Liberal meeting in Stouffville Thursday evening, another big crowd took in the Tory meeting in the Auditorium Monday evening. The same good order was displayed on this occasion as at the Liberal gathering. The speakers were: Hon. Jas. Lyons, W. J. Trebilcock, Frank Hughes, K.C., and the candidate Col. T. Herbert Lennox. Mr. Jas. McCullough of Stouffville acted as chairman, and the meeting held forth until near midnight.

Evidently pick pockets were busy in Stouffville during the time of Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King's public meeting on Thursday evening last, but fortunately the ill-gotten haul was not overly large, in all being about $40. James Gould of Ringwood, suffered heaviest, being relieved of $27, while Race Foote of Whitechurch Township, was touched up for $12. Mr. Jac Fockler of Stouffville was the most fortunate loser, he being relieved of only a small amount of change from one pocket, whereas had the thief delved into the opposite pant pocket he would have gotten

Pulling Ontario's Feet out of the Mud
That's what Good Roads are doing
Look back ten years and you will remember that rarely did you drive beyond your own township. You could not know the people or the country forty or fifty miles away. For months each year impassable stretches of mud confronted you in almost every direction.
Today, at all seasons of the year, you may travel almost anywhere. Good roads are pulling Ontario's feet out of the mud.
To help keep the roads in repair, see that you use them sanely. The law provides restrictions in the loading of trucks, and a speed limit of 25 miles an hour for passenger cars. When you fail to observe these provisions, you do unnecessary damage either by breaking down the road foundation or tearing up its surface.
As the cost of road building and maintenance is falling more and more on the user of the roads, motorists should realize the necessity of obeying the law, and also, the advantage of securing the co-operation of others in doing so.
To know more about the size and importance of the good roads problem, take a motor trip this fall. Note the development in farm and home improvements. Observe the well-kept lawns. You will at once realize the vital relationship that all these have to good roads.
An advertisement issued by the Ontario Department of Highways to secure the co-operation of motorists and truck drivers, Automobile Clubs, Good Roads Associations and all other public spirited bodies, in abating the abuse of the roads of the Province.
The HON. GEO. S. HENRY, Minister. S. L. SQUIRE, Deputy Minister
