DISTRICT NEWS

The post of boarding in Simcoe County jail is sixteen cents a day.

J. E. Thompson of Arnprior, the new Judge of the County Court of Ontario, will arrive in Whitby early in November with his family. Mr. Thompson was just recently appointed to succeed the late Judge McGillivray.

The Eaton farm near Georgetown has been purchased by the Federated Jewish Farmers of Ontario and will be equipped as a training farm for Jewish immigrants. Councillor Jos. Borinsky of Stouffville, is one of the officials of this organization, for the advancement of farming among the Canadian Jews.

Darling & Kaufman had a freak calf on exhibition last week. The animal was about four months old, and its heart was placed in its neck, immediately in front of its shoulders. Normal bovines usually carry their hearts behind the left shoulder. This calf's heart, which bulged its neck very noticeably, could be seen pulsating some distance away. The calf was in fine condition, and the misplacement of its vital organ did not seem to seriously inconvenience it in any way.—Midway Gazette.

A cow owned by J. Keys, a Brant township farmer, became separated from the rest of the herd during a blinding snow storm Monday of last week and fell into an ungrazed well situated about the centre of the farm. The well, which is 40 feet deep, had 10 feet of water in it, and when Mr. Keys discovered the animal at night its nose was all that was above water. With the assistance of about fifty men, who worked the greater part of the night, the animal was safely rescued with block and tackle.—Alliston Herald.

Sunday morning of last week, while Russell Reesor was taking a walk through Mr. Lapp's wood at Cedar Grove he came across a golden eagle sitting on a stump, and picking up a stick he approached it unawares and gave it a clout which knocked it down. It fluttered to a little knoll with Mr. Reesor after it, and another clout stunned it for the time being, and Mr. Reesor now has it in captivity at his home here. It is a young bird of goodly size, but its wings will take a lot of stretching to measure ten feet when spread, as the Globe in its southwest corner intimates.

Struck from behind by a south-bound Hydro-Radial car north of Richmond Hill on Monday night, an unidentified woman, aged between 65 and 70, was instantly killed. The accident occurred on a grade near the entrance to the Summit Golf Club, three miles north of Richmond Hill. The woman was walking south on the radial tracks, and the rain and snow falling at the time, together with the fact that the car was also going south, is believed to have contributed to the cause of the accident. Dr. Langstaff of Richmond Hill was called, only to pronounce the woman dead.

To be bitten on the hand by a large wildcat was the experience of Alex. Pattison of Owen Sound last Thursday. Pattison, in company with several others, was hunting rabbits in Fraser's bush, not far from Owen Sound, and the three dogs they were using drove some animal down a hole. Thinking it might be a bear, one of the party managed to dislodge the animal. It proved to be a large wild cat, which sprang at Mr. Pattison's right hand and chewed it up badly. The hunters could not get their guns at such close range, owing to the danger of injuring one of the party. The cat was finally wounded by the butt of a gun, but managed to get away in the woods.

The barns on the farm of Capt. Robert Reesor, on the 10th concession, Markham, a mile north of Cedar Grove, were destroyed by fire early Tuesday of last week, together with all this season's crops and practically all of Mr. Reesor's live stock, eleven milch cows, six calves and three horses. The hired man had just started milking in the stable a few minutes after 6 o'clock, when he noticed some sparks falling from cracks in the loft above. He rushed into the house to give the alarm, and during the two or three minutes he was absent the whole building burst into flames, and it was impossible to enter the building to save the animals. In answer to the telephone, many neighbors soon congregated, and through their efforts and that of the Unionville fire brigade, who arrived later with the chemical engine, the driving house, dairy house and the two residences, south of the stable, were saved. The barn which adjoined the stable to the north, full of this season's crops, was also burned. Mr. Reesor's loss will be close to $10,000, on which he has an insurance of between $6,000 and $7,000. The cause of the fire is a mystery.

HOLIDAYS FOR MAIL COURIERS

Instructions have been issued by the Postmaster General of Canada that, provided the patrons do not object, rural mail delivery contractors are to be allowed the following holidays: New Year's Day, Good Friday, Victoria Day, Dominion Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day. As these days are holidays with the town and village post offices, it is felt that a like consideration might be extended to the couriers.

The holiday arrangements, however does not apply to contractors conveying mail between Post Offices and railway stations.

ALTONA

The defeat of Halbert, who is endeavoring to ride two parties this election in the Muskoka-Ontario riding is looked for. In South Ontario where many of our people vote the outcome is not so easy to forecast. In the last Federal election, it was a three-cornered fight, and here are the figures for Pickering Township:

The annual big social gathering of the local Women's Institute was held for this year on Friday evening last, at the home of Mrs. J. B. Hoover and Mrs. Eli Lehman near Atha. Fortunately these ladies possess a fine spacious residence, as there were 160 people assembled. The excellent program was quite in accord with the fine spirit of the meeting, and while the men are not usually called upon to attend Institute meetings such as ours, this time they responded splendidly, and no doubt enjoyed the treat. There was no special appeal, still the collection amounted to $12. The program was followed by a splendid social time with refreshments, the items on the program being:

Piano duet by Miss Stapleton and Mrs. Stafford; Readings by Miss Mable Bie; Green River Quartette; Solos by Miss Luella Gayman; Readings by Miss Ada Michell; Duet by Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. Winterstein; Altona Male Quartette; Piano solos by Miss Gee; Solo by Mrs. Smith; Music by Allan Meyer and Jim Murray; Solo by Miss Vera Turner; Solo by Mrs. Winterstein; Piano duet by Miss Stapleton and Mrs. Stafford. Mr. Wm. Reesor as chairman, proved a real orator, and ably filled the position.

Dredging out of the first canal in the marsh drainage work near Bradford is being pushed along fast. A night shift has been instituted and the work will be continued on double shift. Electricity to light the work is produced on the scow.

Meaford recently had a visit from a young California giant, M. Abbott, who is 19 years old, stand 6 feet, 9 inches in height, weighs 250 pounds and wears 16 shoes. He has a reach with both arms of 50 1/2 inches.

IN MEMORIAM

Ward—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mary E. Claughton, who passed away Oct. 30th, 1922.

The birds with their beautiful hymns of joy,
 Won't let us forget our dear lost one.
 Tears of remembrance scald and burn,
 God took what He lent, how vain to yearn.
 With nature so gentle, and action so kind,
 'Tis hard in this world, her equal to find.
 But God knows best, His will be done
 Frank Ward and the family

In loving memory of my dear mother
 Clara Quigley, who passed away
 Oct. 28th, 1924.

Deep in our hearts lies a picture,
 Of a loved one gone to rest.
 In memory's frame we will keep it,
 Because she was one of the best.
 Our lips cannot speak how we loved her

Our hearts cannot tell what to say,
 God only knows how we miss her.
 As we battle along life's rough way,
 And when the evening shadows are falling,
 And we are all alone,
 There often comes a longing,
 If she only could come home.
 The trails of life, but trifling seemed
 When you were nigh to cheer
 The roses always hid their thorns,
 When your helpful hand was near,
 Friends may think we have forgotten you,
 When at times they see us smile,
 But they little know the sorrow,
 That the smile hides all the while,
 Sadly missed by daughter,
 Mrs. Mable Jarvis
