BETHESDA

The Vandorf correspondent has the following to say: "Mr. J. Moran and two daughters with their friends spent Sunday with Mr. Sam Atkinson who had the chance in his wife's absence, to demonstrate his ability in the housekeeping line. We won't tell what Mrs. Atkinson said when she came home. Glad to hear that he didn't sweep the dirt of the floor under the rugs instead of gathering it up properly as one citizen of Bethesda was known to do." Now what Bethesda man did this?

MOUNT ALBERT

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 8th, a large number of citizens assembled in the basement of the Methodist church to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rowland, who are taking up their residence in Newmarket. A pleasant evening was spent in songs, speeches, music and readings, and at the conclusion of the program a presentation of a beautiful reading lamp was made by the citizens, the address being given by Mr. W. T. Lloyd and the presentation of a fountain pen and pencil in handsome case by the I.O.O.F. of which Mr. Rowland was an active member. The presentation was made by Dr. Johnson. The best wishes of the community go with Mr. and Mrs. Rowland and family in their new home in Newmarket.

Don't forget the Baptist entertainment on Christmas night, which promises to be another well spent evening.

Come to the United Church Sunday School next Sunday morning. A special program is being prepared as this is review Sunday and several are taking part with special singing and music.

RINGWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mortson arrived from Cochrane last week to spend the Christmas season at the home of her father, M. Timbers.

The man at the cross roads says: "Business is good. The farmer sells a load of wheat, and all the world grows fair and sweet; he hums a couple of cheerful tunes, and pays the grocer for his prunes. The grocer who had the blues, now buys his wife a pair of shoes. That ten the shoeman thinks God sent, and runs and pays it on the rent. Next day the rent man hands the bill to Dr. Carver for a bill. And Dr. Carver tells his frau that business is improving now. And cheers her up and says, 'My dear, you've been quite feeble for a year. I'm thinking you should have a rest; you'd better take a trip out west.' And in a couple of days the frau is on the farm of Joshua Howe, who takes the bill and says, 'I saw. Here's something that just can't be beat—this bill's the one I got for wheat.' He hums a couple of cheerful tunes and goes and buys a lot more prunes."

"Well, Well," said the absent minded Stouffville man as he stood in the bath tub, "Now what did I get in here for?"

The loss amounted to well over $2000 and unfortunately he carried no insurance. The men of the community gathered and were successful in saving the residence by a real hard fight. The sympathy of a host of friends, goes out to Mr. Stoutenberg in his loss.

York County lost one of its oldest citizens in the death of John Leary, at his home, in his 92nd year. He was born in County Fermanagh, Ireland, and came to this district with his parents when a little more than a year old. Fifteen years ago Mr. Leary retired from farming and has lived in the village. In religion he was a Methodist, and in politics was a Conservative. The deceased is survived by his widow, three sons, Deputy-Reeve Leary, Wesley G., both at home, Edward P. on the old homestead, and one brother, Joseph of Whitevale.

Elder Aaron Hunsperger of New Dundee, Ont., who died Dec. 8th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jos. Farmer, Gormley, following a stroke of paralysis, was buried in Blenheim cemetery near New Dundee. In the same plot reposes the body of his first wife, the mother of his family. The late Mr. Hunsperger united with the Tunker church of Canada, in 1875 and was elected to the eldership in 1879, remaining in that capacity until his death. His third wife, Lovina Geiger, died Feb. 7th of this year. PEACHES. 7th MARKHAM

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hoover was the centre of a very pleasant social evening on Friday, Dec. 11th, when about fifty friends gathered in honor of Miss Maisie Miller and Mr. H. Warriner. The high esteem in which both are held was evident by the splendid shower of useful and valuable gifts of which they were the recipients. Since the shower there has been the wedding, the honeymoon and the home-coming, and now the happy couple are settled down in our midst, and the entire community wish for them a long and happy married life.
