

WATCH YOUR TIRES!

RUBBER has advanced 500% this year. Tire prices look to be going higher. I still have some tires in stock that I bought at the lowest price during 1925, others I have bought as the market was advancing, but all prices quoted here are considerably below today's wholesale prices. Advise anticipating your wants for next year, by buying now and saving money.

LICENSE PLATES

WE HAVE 1926 MOTOR LICENSE IN STOCK. You are expected to have them on your car by Jan. 1st. Call early.

Thos. H. Lewis

THANK ELECTORS
I am deeply grateful to the electors of Uxbridge Township for their excellent support at the polls on Monday, returning me as reeve for another term. The return of the polls in the south were particularly gratifying in view of the fact that I could not easily get over that part object to look after your interests to the best of my ability. Thanking you again, yours truly
William G. Cassie

GORMLEY
This community is grieved over the death of Mrs. Alexander Duncan who seemed to be called yonder rather suddenly. She is survived by her husband and seven children. So many of our people have received the final summons lately that it behooves us to "keep our lamps filled with oil."

CLAREMONT
D. A. Taylor has added groceries to his bread and ice cream business. Miss Barton of Toronto, commenced her duties on Monday as assistant teacher in our continuation school.
A choral class is being organized by Mr. Fletcher of Toronto. The first meeting will be next Wednesday evening.

Miss Osborne of Chicago, is visiting the Rev. Mr. Osborne at the Baptist parsonage. She sang a solo very acceptable Sunday evening.
The annual New Year's gathering of the Cooper family was held at F. M. Cooper's on Friday. About thirty-five descendants of George Cooper were present.

BLOOMINGTON
Miss Alta Fockler spent a week in Toronto.
Miss Burnett who has been ill is slowly recovering.
Miss Battersick of Midland, was a guest at O. H. Tranter's on Sunday.
Mrs. Paisley of Markham, spent a couple of days at Mrs. W. Storry's.
Mr. and Mrs. Stouffer of Toronto, were visiting Mrs. Law.
Mr. and Mrs. Dean of Thornhill, were visiting her sister, Mrs. Robt. Burnett on Saturday.

Miss Irene Harper, graduate nurse of New York, spent New Years with her sister, Mrs. Booth.
Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wag of Toronto, were at her mother's, Mrs. Patterson and her sister Mrs. Winterstein.

RINGWOOD
(Too late last week.)
J. Fisher was returned as school trustee.
Miss Alma Brownsberger is at present in Toronto.
Miss Gertrude Boyd is spending her holidays in Toronto.

Miss M. E. Cook of Lemonville, is visiting at Mrs. Orval Drewery's.
The school concert brought in $40. Congratulations to Teacher Smith and his band of hopefuls.
Mrs. Wm. Pipher isn't so fortunate in taking a tumble with a pail of water as the Jill mentioned in the story of "Jack and Jill went up the hill." When Mrs. Pipher fell with the pail she injured herself quite severely, and was on the sick list for a few days last week.
Ganton Barnett's son, Billy, received severe scalds one day last week on the shoulder and side, when he tipped a kettle of boiling water over. Although badly burned he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

GLASGOW
Miss Topper is back at her school duties again.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Eckardt, Mr. and Mrs. L. Slack and families, Mr. and Mrs. J. Slack, were visitors at Wm. Slack's, Altona on New Years Day.
Walter Davis has moved into his new house.
We welcome Mrs. March into our burg. She has moved into the house where Mr. Davis had been living.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Slack, Mr. and Mrs. W. Proctor, were city visitors on Monday.
C. Tindall of Halliburton, W. Tindall of Kirkfield, have been visiting Mrs. March.
We are all invited to the lecture to be given next Monday evening in the United Church, Stouffville, by an eminent speaker, Mr. Geo. E. Morley of Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Wild visited her parental at Altona here during the Christmas holidays. Our former residents are doing well on their new place near Markham. Joe is nothing short of a first-class man in his line of business.

On Tuesday of last week Arthur Latham left on a trip to Florida in company with a couple of Toronto boys. The trio will make the trip by motor car, carrying their own tent and equipment so that they will see the country to the best advantage, stopping when and where they choose. Arthur expects to be gone about three months, and by that time we hope to have the weather shaping more like spring time.
