LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mid-winter Clearing Sale Friday, Saturday and Monday. W.H. Shaw.

We have had a real January thaw this week, the weather being so mild up to Wednesday night, as to almost spoil the sleighing.

R. Y. Eaton has just sent a valuable saddle horse, Blarney Boy, for use of the girls at Shadow Lake next summer. Blarney Boy was shown at the C.N.E. and Royal Fair

Work on the new Baptist church is about completed, with little left to be done excepting the painting.
 This is not a long job, as the trim will mostly be finished in the natural wood, and will only be oiled.

Charlie Lee, a genial Celestial and friend of our "John" who keeps the men's collars clean, was in town on Monday from Cannington seeking a location for a Chinese restaurant or cafe. In Stouffville he found it impossible to secure a building suitable to his needs.

Jos. Williams has disposed of his 66 acre farm, being lot 24, concession 10, Markham. (Mongolia.) to Oliver Zellers, for $7,500. This property is equipped with good buildings and house. Mr. Williams intends moving to Toronto next spring.

The public auction sale of surplus stock on the farm of Robt. Eagleson concession 9, Markham, on Wednesday of last week, brought in over $2000. Prices ranged high, milk cows selling up to $150, with a male calf bringing $95. There are likely to be quite a number of spring sales shortly in this immediate section.

A former well known citizen of Stouffville died this month in the person of Orval Kester, whose aged mother, Mrs. Milton Kester, lives one door west of the public school on Main street. Deceased was 58 years of age, and had been ill for a couple of months just prior to his death which took place at his home in Detroit. The late Mr. Kester is survived by a wife and four children.

Mr. D. H. Rusnell has purchased Mr. Archie Stouffer's house in the north-west section of the town, Mr.
 Stouffer having recently bought Dr.
 Rowan's property on Church street.
 Mr. Rusnell will shortly become a fully qualified citizen of the town, although we have come to regard him as one of us owing to living so near and being in the community much of his time. He will now exercise the voting privileges of a ratepayer.

When scuffling with hockey sticks along with other young men last week, Lorne Gillion of the 9th concession, who is attending the Short Course in Agriculture now being held in Stouffville, was accidentally struck across the nose with an upper cut from a stick which fairly severed the lower part of the nose from the face. Although his face is bandaged as though he had just emerged from a Dublin riot, it is hoped he will suffer no permanent injury or disfigurement.

York County Teacher's Association second annual banquet followed by a dance will be held at the Carls-Rite Hotel, Toronto, Friday Jan. 22, at 6 p.m. Sir Robt. Falconer, president of Toronto University, will be the speaker of the evening. Miss Coe, elocutionist; Mr Shearer, vocal soloist, will contribute to the programme and Mrs. W.
 E. Groves, of the Toronto Board of Education, will read selections from her poems. It is interesting to note that 800 teachers are actively engaged in the public schools in York.

Representatives from North-Ont.
 County waited on the Minister of Highways, Hon. Geo. S. Henry, a few days ago, asking for an extension of the Provincial Highway through the 8th concession of Brock Township. Mr. Henry gave them a cordial hearing and said that at the present time the Dept. had no intention of extending the Prov. Road Systems as yet, as there was considerable work to be done on the portions of the highway now taken over.
 Both J.W. Widdifield, M.P.P. and T.
 D. Bell, were on hand, also warden John Ross, Beaverton, Reeve James Birchard, Beaverton, and others.

MILK IS A PERFECT FOOD

Father, Mother, for the Kiddies, milk is a perfect food, what's more, it is brought from a fine selected certified herd.

JUST THINK A MINUTE

If you have used $10 worth of milk since Sept. 23, 1925, this same amount would have cost you $13, and probably more.

The bursting of a radiator on an automobile resulted in a painful injury to J. W. Rowe, Beeton, last week, when the steam shot forth with such force as to penetrate the sleeves of two coats and severely burn his left arm.

The radio habit has hit this community. Everybody wants to hear the "noise" of the great cities, the speeches, the sermons, and the jazz music. It will not be necessary to go to the centres of population to have amusement and get enlightenment that cannot be secured in rural Ontario.

The announcement in these columns last week that a bus service was likely to be inaugurated between Stouffville and Toronto, did not materialize last Monday as anticipated. The Tribune has since been informed by long distance telephone that the service would not be commenced until a new bus now nearing completion is ready to put in the service between Stouffville and Toronto.

The Carew Cup has gone to Fen-elton Falls. Following the excellent defence of the silverware made by H. W. Sanders and his rink against the Queen City Club as reported last week, on Friday the Falls boys came down and caught the locals "off color", beating them 12-15. The locals just couldn't get the granite discs to lay where they were most needed, while the Falls quartette had the rocks well under control.

Messrs. A. E. Booth and A. V. Nolan were on Monday both elected to the Stouffville School Board by acclamation, to fill the two vacancies for which a nomination was held that day. Owing to lack of public spirit there were not enough men to stand at the regular nomination and one vacancy could not be filled, and since then Mr. Truman Holden whose term had not expired, resigned, which accounted for the second vacancy. Both men nominated this time were also nominated in December, but did not qualify for the position. The new 1926 board meets this week.

As a prisoner under death sentence is always given a chicken breakfast just prior to the execution, so a veteran Stouffville citizen on Main street west, who has learned to temper justice with mercy, believes that farmers before setting out with their hogs for the slaughter, might throw some straw over the pigs in cold winter so that the death journey into Stouffville might be attended with a little comfort by the porkers, which he declares, are particularly sensitive to the cold. The straw wouldn't be wasted, as it could be drawn back to the barn yard again, and if this little formality would enable us to eat sausages from pigs that died happy, it wouldn't be in vain.

The Young People's Society of the United Church staged an innovation on Sunday when after the evening service they held their annual weekly meeting in the hope that more interest would be taken in their department. The effort proved a success, for the basement was well filled. The program was in charge of the "Citizenship" department of which Miss Eva Hoover is president, and the subject for the evening was "Prohibition." After the opening exercises a dialogue on "King Alcohol" was rendered by the young people and appreciated by the audience. Mr. A. J. Ward spoke on the progress of prohibition, and in vigorous and forceful language set out the present position, urging the necessity for greater activity to maintain the ground already secured as well as advance in the right direction. He took direct issue with a statement published in a Toronto paper credited to the member for North York wherein he said that whereas when the referendum on prohibition was taken North York went dry by over 5000 votes, but on October 29th it went wet by 496.
 The question was a moral one, or-iginating with the Christian church, and politicians had adopted it as an aid to secure votes. Miss Ivy Sanders sang a solo in a very acceptable manner. Rev. Mr. Warren expressed the appreciation of the audience for the splendid program.
