BLOOMINGTON

Miss E. Smith spent a few days at Hartman.

Murray Raymer was a Hartman visitor last week.

Mr. Douglas Booth was a Toronto visitor on Tuesday.

W. Gould and Miss Card of Locust Hill were visitors at E. Storry's on Sunday.

Many are talking about the mail service. No mail in four days is something new on this route.

Despite the condition of the roads on Saturday night quite a number met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Claughton and surprised them with a miscellaneous shower. An enjoyable evening was spent.

Who would saw wood? The men of the Christian church held a wood-bee last week, and Hood Bros. of Ballantrac are now in our midst with the buzz saw. Also W. Claughton staged an old-time wood bee, which quickly demolished the pile.

What might have proven a serious accident happened to W. A. Fockler on Wednesday of last week. While felling a tree in the bush, it fell striking Mr. Fockler on the head, a gash requiring several stitches. We are pleased to know that Mr. Fockler is able to be out again.

LEMONVILLE

Dorothy Hood has gone to Toronto to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Drewery visited with Mr. Thos. Drewery.

We are glad to see Leo Cook out again, after being in bed for a couple of weeks.

Rev. Mr. Burgess gave a very interesting lecture on missionary work in India last Monday night.

Miss Stella Cook of Winnipeg, who has been spending some time around here, has gone to Toronto before returning home.

CAPTAIN M. ROACH DEAD

Captain Martin Roach, well known in legal and sporting circles, died on Monday last at Beaverton in his 55th year. Deceased was a graduate of St. Michael's College and Osgoode Hall and enjoyed a large practice for some thirty years. During his college career he was prominent in baseball and other sports. He was born in Brechin, Ont., where interment took place on Wednesday.

In 1916 Mr. Roach enlisted with the rank of Lieutenant in the 116th Battalion and went overseas with Col. Sam Sharpe. In the following year he was wounded and was invalided home, when he resumed his law practice. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Fannie King Roach; one daughter, Marion; four brothers, Dr. J. J. Roach, Montreal; Rev. P. Roach, Sandwich, Ont.; Rev. W. Roach, St. Michael's College, Toronto; G. L. Roach, Toronto; and a sister, Mrs. J. F. Kormann, of Toronto.

Edward Coltham passed away at his farm in the Township of Whitechurch, on February the 6th last. Although falling for some time his end came peacefully. He was one of the oldest farmers in this locality having emigrated with his father from Kent County, England, some sixty-seven years ago and settled on a farm south of the town of Aurora.

In 1876 he married Lavina Kaiser, from this union, was born three sons and two daughters. With the exception of a few years in the Township of King, he farmed all his life in the Township of Whitechurch. In politics he was a staunch Conservative, having been elected president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of North York.

MONGOLIA

On Wednesday, Feb'y 24th, 1926, at the Baptist parsonage, Stouffville, the marriage was performed of Miss Dorothy Marshman of Pickering Township, to Mr. Bertram Williams eldest son of Mr. Arthur Williams of Mongolla. Mr. and Mrs. Williams have leased a house on the 10th concession, south of Mongolla, where they will make their home.

The Prodical Son never received a warmer welcome than that accorded to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Turner on their return to this locality to resume farming again, on the Arthur Williams property. Friday evening was not the most delightful outside but the neighborhood turned out in numbers at the Turner home and spent the evening in one round of enjoyment. In songs and games, K. G. Tarr, Archie Fleming and Wellington Wideman provided speeches or comic performance of some sort to the merriment of the gathering, and lunch was brought by the friends which was also enjoyed. We are all glad to have the Turner's
