CREAM

Take advantage of the accurate service we render and the price we pay. More so this summer on account of the cream grading. Over 90% of the cream received since the grading started is First and special grade. Our prices compared with many others, are absolutely the highest. A dollar is just as valuable if received in the form of the price paid to you, than if received in the form of dividends or profits. If you are not yet a shipper we would be pleased to have you as one.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

"Seagram's horse has won the King's plate and Seagram's whiskey has won many a palate," says the Chesley Enterprise.

Among the people who will appreciate the reduced letter postage rates to come into force on July 1st, is the youth who frequently has to write home to his parents for more money.

The Dundalk Herald tells of a man pulling thirty cars out of mud hole in front of his farm in one day at $2 for each haul. Just imagine asking a man like that to sign a petition for good roads.

If any of those gentlemen who are disgruntled because they must pay rather heavy tax on their incomes over $10,000, wish to exchange their "wad" for one they can escape taxation with, kindly call at The Tribune office.

Although it is understood that the Toronto and York Road Commission has taken over the 10th concession from Main street, Stouffville to Lincolnville, that piece of road is in abominable condition. The authorities of Stouffville and Whitechurch should continue to agitate for repairs on this road until notice is taken of their appeals.

Since the Tribune stated a couple of weeks ago that a certain well-known local gardener had potatoes up, his neighbors have been spying about to get a look at the early spuds. Unable to locate them, they are now suggesting that these murphies reported as up, never really were down this spring.

Since the lots in town disgorged themselves of such a quantity of tins and rubbish as was taken away last week during the collection-made under direction of the council, the community must be a cleaner and healthier place to live in. Certainly the back yards will look the better for having gotten rid of their accumulation.

This journal is in receipt of a volume of "Pioneering in the Prairie West" from Thomas Nelson & Son. The book is nicely bound, well illustrated with Prairie Scenes and covers shortly, the sketch of the Parry Sound colony. The author, W. C. Pollard, solicitor, of Uxbridge, then a boy in his teens, was a member of one group that settled near Edmonton in 1894, and he tells of adventures, privations and successes of Pioneer life in the Prairie West as he experienced it.

At last the Department of Public Highways has declared serious war on drivers of motor cars with glare lights. Last week no less than 40 were held up on the Kingston road by Provincial Police and warned about the matter. This week the department say they will call off the warning business, and issue summons to all offenders. Glare lights are the cause of more road accidents than any thing else, and the wonder is that the law against them has been condoned so long.

The editor of the Mitchell Advocate administers a terrific verbal drubbing to the young men who stand out in front of the church Sunday evening to wait for the girls to come out. He says that any girl who will permit herself to be picked up by a young man in front of the church is lacking in self-respect. He urges the young man to go to her house, take her to church, sit beside her during the service, and accompany her home.

Does this editor remember the days of his own youth? Was he reared in a country village? Then he will recollect that to take a young lady to church and to sit with her during the service required, fifteen years ago, more courage than a youth of eighteen or twenty could possibly muster? Go to her house, indeed! His knees would be knocking together, his eyes would be glassy, his lips dry, his tongue would refuse to function. Rather than face an ordeal like that, the average village, town, or city youth would abandon the idea of courtship and marriage altogether. It looks foolish now, of course; but, by the great horn spoon, it was no joke a few years ago.

THE TOWN COUNCIL

Following the Court of Revision on Friday evening last, the Stouffville Council held a short session to transact general business. The resignation of Rev. R. Young as a member of the Library Board was received and fled. Cause of resignation is the intended removal of Mr. Young from town.
