

ONE WOMAN KILLED, NINE INJURED, IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH NEAR TORONTO

Toronto, June 14.—When a motor car driven by William Patterson, Claremont Street, capsized in a ditch while going at a fast rate past the home of Lady Baillie, about two miles west of Oakville, Ont., on the Toronto-Hamilton highway, at 2:15 Sunday morning, one young woman was killed and four of the occupants were badly injured and may not recover, and five others, one young girl and four men, sustained slight hurts. The victims are as follows:

DEAD.

LORETTA BOSLEY, aged 19, of 107 Peter Street. Miss Bosley died in a motor car while on her way to St. Joseph's Hospital.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

MUSSE PERRY, age 15, of 40 Maypo Avenue, serious head injuries, possibly a fractured skull, and internal injuries.

SLIGHTLY INJURED.

W. A. LANAN, 27, Bain Avenue, seriously injured; GLORIA GRAY, age 20, of 104 Mainland Street, left shoulder broken, head injuries, and possible fracture of right arm; DULCE BOSLEY, age 16, sister of the dead girl, serious head and internal injuries; NORMAN McMILLAN, age 22, of 15 Westminster Avenue, fractured skull, concussion and internal injuries.

SLIGHTLY INJURED.

W. A. LANAN, 27, Bain Avenue.

THE MARKETS

From Toronto.

Mac. wheat, No. 1 North, $16.62; No. 2 North, $15.82; No. 3 North, $15.25; No. 4 CW, nominal.

Mac. oats, No. 1 CW, nominal; No. 2, spot quoted; No. 1 feed, 50c; No. 2, 47½c. Western grain quotations in C.I.T. bay ports.

Amt. corn, track, Toronto, No. 2 yellow, 86c; No. 3 yellow, 84c.

Millfeed, Del. Montreal freight rates included. Bran, per ton, $31.25; shorts, per ton, $39.25; middlings, $40.25; good feed flour, per bag, $2.30; Ont. oats—4 to 46c, f.o.b. shipping points.

Ont. good milling wheat—$1.37 to $1.39; c.b. shipping points, according to freights.

Barley, malting—62 to 64c.

Buckwheat—No. 2, 72c.

Rye—No. 2, 85c.

Canian flour, first pat., $9, Toronto; second pat., $8.50.

One flour, Toronto, 90 per cent. pat., per barrel, in cartons, Toronto, $3.95; seaboard, in bulk, 65c.

Straw—Carlots, per ton, $9.10 to $9.50.

Screenings—Standard, received c.b. bay ports, per ton, $22.50.

Cheese—New, large, 20c; twins, 21c; triplets, 22c; Stiltons, 23c. Old, 25c; twins, 26c; triplets, 27c.

Butter—Finest creamery prints, 38c to 40c; No. 1 creamery, 38 to 39c; No. 2, 37 to 38c. Dairy prints, 29 to 31c.

Eggs—Fresh extras, in cartons, 39 to 40c; fresh extras, loose, 38c; fresh firsts, 35c; fresh seconds, 30 to 31c.

Live poultry—Chickens, spring, 1b.; chickens, 1b.; hens, over 4 to 5 lbs., 22c; do, 24c; 20c; roasters, 20c; ducklings, 5 lbs. and up, 30c; turkeys, 30c.

Dressed poultry—Chickens, spring, 1b.; chickens, 1b.; 27c; hens, over 4 to 5 lbs., 22c; do, 24 to 26c; 20c; roasters, 20c; ducklings, 5 lbs. and up, 30c; turkeys, 40c.

Beans—Can. hand-picked, $2.00 per bushel; prime, $2.20 per bushel.

Maple produce—Syrup, per 1imp. gal., $2.30 to $2.40; per 6 gal., $2.25 to $2.30 per gal.; maple sugar, 1b., $5.50 to 26c; maple syrup, new per gal., $2.40.

Honey—50-lb. tins, 11c to 12c; 5-lb. tins, 12 to 14c; 2½-lb. tins, 14 to 14½c.

Smoked meats—Hams, med., 34 to 36c; cooked hams, 48 to 52c; smoked rolls, 25c; cottage, 28 to 30c; breakfast bacon, 35 to 40c; special brand breakfast bacon, 39c to 42c; bacon, boneless, 40 to 45c.

Cured meats—Long clear bacon, 70 to 70 lbs., $24.25 to $29.90 lbs., $23.75 to 20 lbs. and up, $22.84; lightweight rolls in barrels, $42.50; heavyweight rolls, $39.50 per bbl.

Lard—Pork tierces, 17½ to 18c; tubs, 18½ to 19c; hams, 16½ to 19c; prints, 20 to 21c; shortening tierces, 14½ to 16c; tubs, 15 to 15½c; pails, 16 to 16½c; blocks, 17 to 17½c.

Heavy steers—choice, 88 to $8.75; do, good, $7.25 to $7.90; butcher steers, choice, $7.70 to $8.35; do, good, $7.00 to $7.25; butcher steers, choice, $7.35 to $8.25; do, good, $7.00 to $7.25; butcher steers, choice, $6.50 to $6.50; do, fair to good, $4 to $5.25; butcher bulls, good, $8 to $2.25; Bologna, $3.50 to $4; canners and cutters, $2.50 to $4; good milk cows, $85.00 to $95.00; springers, choice, $95.00 to $115.00; med. cows, $45 to $60; feeders, good, $6.50 to $7.50; fair, $5 to $6; calves, choice, $11 to $12.50; do, good, $9.50 to $11.

Angiers, June 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vandale, of Ville Marie, were drowned and four others were rescued from certain death through the courage of a guide, Angus Chevrier, who was driving in that vicinity when he saw the accident and rushed to the rescue. His prompt and efficient efforts succeeded in saving Mr. Golinski and the three children. He effected the rescue by cutting a hole through the top of the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Vandale were driving in the front seat and were evidently thrown from the car as it rolled down the embankment. The others, riding in the back seat, were not thrown out.

Judge FREDERICK M. MORSON

Who, on June 4 celebrated the 35th anniversary of his appointment to the York County bench. All alone he handles one-third of the division court work of Ontario.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal) had another, that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.

Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin

said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence St., George) had an amendment to exempt 1926 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Montreal)