SEMI-FINAL BASEBALL

Stouffville Defeats Sutton in Sparkling Game

In the fastest game of baseball played in Aurora for many a day Stouffville nine, winners of the York-Simcoe League, sent down to defeat the snappy Sutton nine, champions of the Tri-County League to their first defeat this season, by a score of 3 to 2. The game was the first in the O.B.A. semi-finals and was a sudden-death meet. As a result of the win Stouffville were ordered into the second round on Saturday with St. Clair's of Toronto. The first innings on Wednesday was a shut out for both sides, but Sutton notched a run in the second, and their few fans were wild with excitement. Stouffville counted in the third. The fourth, fifth and sixth innings brought no further score for either team, although in the sixth Stouffville had the bases packed, but failed to get the necessary hit to bring someone over home plate. Sutton was again shut out in the seventh, but Stouffville took the lead by racing two men around the circle. Norm Dales started the fire-works, by smashing the old apple on the nose for a two-bagger. Bruce Lehman singled safely to first, and a wild throw over first base allowed two runs in. The heavy fan support from Stouffville made a din of noise that would put the midway speelers in the dum class. In the first of the eighth, Sutton filled all the bags and were counting a win for themselves, when Lehman in the pitcher's block allowed no hits, and fanned two men in succession, thus putting his team out of a dangerous corner. This ended the base running and the game ended 3 to 2 with an innings to spare for Stouffville.

Bruce Lehman on the mound for the locals struck out fifteen men and played a famous game, showing good ability when hard pressed in tight positions. Learoyd for Sutton struck out eight men, but was replaced in the block in the seventh.

Sutton made four errors and Stouffville two, and the play all through was snappy, and free of any disputes.

The line-up hasn't a weak link, every man being right on his toes in his own position. One of the thrills of the game was provided by "Red" Forsyth who pulled off the nicest "bunt" in many a day, at an opportune moment.

Here is the line-up of last Wednesday: Bruce Lehman p., Lou Lehman c., N. Dales 1b., E. Britnell 2b., Earl Cook 3b., Earl Clendinning s.s., H. Cook, r.f., Pete Clendinning c.f., H. Forsyth l.f., W. J. Mather, manager, H. Perry, scorer.

St. Clair's win close game. Although they played a strenuous game of ball on Wednesday the O.B.A. ordered the Stouffville boys to play again on Saturday, three days later, in a sudden-death meet with the St. Clair's of Toronto, city champions, in which game we were defeated by 3 to 1, and thereby forfeit our right to further effort to win the O.B.A. championship for this season. The Stouffville infield was a little off-color, and several costly errors were made, and this together with some poor base running cost the boys the game. With two nothing for the St. Clair's in the fourth, Stouffville lost a golden opportunity to even the score—at least, when two men were caught between bases. Stouffville had their last innings and made a valiant effort to rally three runs, for up to this time they had been shut out. The rally looked to be all but successful, one man crossed the pan and the crowd went wild. Two more on bases at second and third, and only one out, but the necessary hit to bring them in was not forthcoming, and the game ended. Lehman who pitched on Wednesday, was replaced in the box by Earl Cook who duplicated the fine performance of Lehman.

He had 14 strike-outs against his opponent's eight and had been given the same field support as was put up on Wednesday the St. Clair's would never have made a run. The St. Clair's have a hand-picked team of first class ball players whose Saturday pitcher is a semi-professional man and captain of the team. The Toronto boys were superior base runners, in fact they could not be surpassed. By dropping this game Stouffville concluded a most successful baseball season. The team have travelled a greater distance than was expected at the outset with a team of purely local boys, and they are to be congratulated for the process show.

Score by Innings
St. Clair's . . . 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 —3

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Mrs. Dwyer of Vancouver, B.C. is visiting her sister Mrs. W.J. Mather.

Mr. Walter Stouffer who conducts a garage business in Kitchener, was home here over Sunday.

Mrs. James Muston, and family have been camping at Port Bloor, Lake Simcoe, Mr. Muston going up for the weekends.

Mr. Victor Barkey of Chicago is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stouffer and other relatives here.

Mrs. Stetzenyer of Rochester, and Mrs. Westwood of Lockport, U.S.A. are visiting their sister, Mrs. Shankel.

W. A. Bruels of Hamilton was in town on Saturday, having come over to attend the Forsyth gathering at Claremont the same afternoon.

Mr. Thos. Graham of Crosswell Mich., spent a week with Mrs. H.J. Malloy and other relatives. Mr. Graham was born 71 years ago in the old stone house which is still in use on the Rae farm at Lincolnville.

Visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hopkins recently were: Mr. A. Kaiser of Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. Goodyear, Mr. and Mrs. Snider, of Schomberg, M. and Mrs. Drake and son of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Hanna and daughter of Toronto.

L.A. Hare and wife, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Hare of Markham were in Peterboro last week attending the gladioli show. Bad weather interfered with some of the big exhibitors, but the show was a beautiful display despite this.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ward of "The Brier Bush", Stouffville, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Dorothy Ellen to Mr. Albert C. Rau of Boston, Mass. The marriage to take place quietly on Wednesday, September 8th.

On Thursday morning of last week Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Pennock returned from a two months' trip to Filmore, Sask. where they visited their daughter Mrs. Ross Anderson, as well as with friends along the way. Crops in the Filmore section were very promising, the grain being ready to cut, and in fact some was being cut when they left ten days prior to arriving home. Mr. Anderson had 400 acres of grain, of which 200 was wheat of excellent quality. Continuous rain interfered with the harvesting operations just as it did here in old Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lawson were in Toronto a couple of days last week to see Mr. Lawson's nephew, Mr. Arthur Baxter, who is in Canada at present from the old land, but owing to pressure of business was unable to visit in Stouffville, as he had done on previous occasions. Two years ago when the editor of The Tribune was in England, he spent a pleasant few hours with Mr. Baxter who held the position at that time of editor in chief of the London Daily Express under the ownership of Lord Beaverbrook. Mr. Baxter is now holding an even more important post under Lord Beaverbrook.

MRS. THOS. MONKHOUSE

In her 85th year, Jane McFarlane, relict of the late Thos. Monkhouse of Altona, passed away at the home of her step-son, Mr. John Monkhouse merchant tailor of this town, on Saturday last, August 28, 1926.

Despite her advanced age the deceased was active almost to the last, and possessed an unusually keen intellect. The pioneer days in Altona section were fresh in her memory and she loved to tell of its early happenings. Born in Toronto in that section now known as Rosedale, but then virgin forest, the late Mrs. Monkhouse with her parents located at Claremont and later at Altona. She was the second wife of the late Thos. Monkhouse, (he having married two sisters), who conducted the pioneer store in the little hamlet for so many years, but who passed away 40 years ago. After her husband's death Mrs. Monkhouse settled on the Dan O'Boyle place east of town, but finally she moved onto Church St. and four years ago gave up her home to live with her step-son. She was a staunch Presbyterian, and the funeral on Tuesday afternoon was in charge of James Dickson, pastor of the local church. Interment took place to Altona cemetery. Three children born to the deceased are dead, but she is survived by 4 step-children; Mrs. R. Underhill of Toronto; Robt. Monkhouse of Niagara Falls, N.Y.; and John and Sophia of Stouffville, two sisters also survived her and two brothers.

BIRTHS
Moyer—In Markham Tp., on Aug. 30 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moyer, a daughter.

DISTRICT and GENERAL

One can imagine what a commotion Pickering village could raise if she cared to publish all her great achievements along gardening lines on the front page of a daily paper.

Two phenomena have been brought to notice, quiet recently. Mr. McEwen is the proud possessor of a castor bean plant which stands over 6 feet high. But, more marvellous than that Mr. Wm. Dickie has a pumpkin growing on one of his apple trees. Both of these gentlemen are quite willing to show these oddities to anyone who is in doubt concerning the authenticity of this report.

Another link with the first railroad days of Stouffville and Uxbridge has broken and gone to his last rest, in the person of Mr. George Jobbitt, who died at his home in Peterboro on Thursday, Aug. 19th, 1926, in his 68th year. The funeral took place to Little Lake cemetery, Peterboro. The late George Jobbitt was born in Uxbridge and spent his early days there. When the Toronto-Nipissing railroad was first built he was employed as brakeman, and later promoted to conductor, which position he retained for many years on different runs in the province; after the road had been merged with the Grand Trunk system.

Markham Economist—Councillor Jas. S. Honey, wife and daughter, Miss Helen of Milliken, arrived home on Friday from a ten weeks' motor trip through the prairie provinces, over the Rockies, into British Columbia and through some of the Western States. They left home on June 10th and crossed the line at Port Huron, visiting en route Detroit, Chicago, Minneapolis and Fargo, crossing into Manitoba at Emerson, thence to Winnipeg and via the main highway west through Manitoba, Saskatchewan, via Moose Jaw to Fernie, through the Crow's Nest Pass to the Okanagan Valley to Salmon Arm, where they visited a brother of Mr. Honey's. After a week's visit at Salmon Arm, they went by train to Vancouver. They came back by the Windermere Highway, via Lake Louise, Banff and Calgary, going from there to Edmonton and Saskatoon. From Saskatoon to Regina, coming home via Port land, N.D., Grand Forks, to Duluth, following the south shore of Lake Superior to the Straits of St. Ignace, crossing to Mankanaw and down to Saginaw, crossing the line again at Port Huron. In all they motored 8,250 miles. They took a camping outfit along.

Liquor of practically every known variety, including, whiskey, gin, champagne, brandy, cognac and wine, over five hundred bottles of which was seized by the Oshawa police, last Thursday, acting on a tip received from the Fire Department of that city. A large Studebaker sedan, specially fitted for the transportation of this costly cargo, which is valued at over $6,000, was also taken over by the police. The driver of the car, Adolphe Marchand and Charles Thibodeau, of Windsor, appeared before Magistrate Hind, Friday morning charged with illegally transporting liquor in Ontario. They asked and were granted a remand for eight days, and were released from custody on $1,500 bail each. Surrounded by well over a hundred bottles of scotch whiskey, which were carefully packed beneath the hood of the car, the ignition of the "liquor boat" caught fire on the Kingston road just inside the city limits, Thursday morning. Word that a car was on fire, was telephoned to the Fire Department which hastily responded only to find that the two custodians had been successful in their efforts to extinguish the blaze. But for the diligence of Station Captain Cullings the big haul might have been missed. Mr. Cullings knew from experience that a car fire is completely extinguished with difficulty. Moreover he believed that the fire in the big sedan was not completely out. Accordingly, despite the protestations of the drivers, he lifted the hood of the car and looked in. He saw an amazing spectacle. Scores of bottles of whiskey, each neatly packed in a cardboard container and wired for greater protection, were piled row on row on a specially constructed shelf, which rested on the cylinder case of the engine. Below additional bottles were packed around the engine in such a manner as to utilize every available inch of space. On the left side, which was the one into which Mr. Cullings first looked, the excelsior packing which had separated the individual bottles from their container, still smouldered. There was broken glass and the odour of liquor abundantly strong as to make quite plain to anyone within several feet of the car, what it contained.

PRIZE BUTTER MADE

BY OUR CREAMERY

The Stouffville Creamery Co. have been distinguishing themselves in the Canadian butter market, for the excellency of their product. At the Ottawa fair last week, the local manufactory carried off a first prize in a large field open to any Canadian creamery. The exhibit was made in a solid fourteen pound block and the competition was a very keen one.

The company will also exhibit this year at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto and at the London, Ontario, fair. The management inform s that since the cream grading act came into force they have been able to put out a still better product, which in turn will react to the benefit of the farmer who brings his cream to this company, as they are able to, and do pay the top notch price when their butter product is in such high demand.

NOTES ON THE FAIR

Horticultural Exhibition Friday.

Get your evening refreshment on Friday at the Horticultural Fair. Tea, cake, sandwiches and ice-cream.

The fair will be held in Ratcliff's hall and not in the skating rink as previously advertised. Note the change in place.

The work of preparing the Curling Rink for the Fair is to be done on Wednesday afternoon. The Directors hope there'll be a generous turnout of volunteers, you included. Bring your flags and bunting.

Surroundings of churches and public buildings are being entered for competition under No. 83 of the prize list, and business fronts under No. 84. Competitors should notify Secretary of the Society immediately.

All members of the Horticultural Society are urged to exhibit in as many competitions as possible. Make this year's fair surpass its two predecessors. Look over that prize list again, and don't forget to bring your exhibits as early in the morning as possible. Entries must be made before 12 o'clock, noon, Sept. 3rd.
