ANOTHER SECT TO LOCATE WITH US

Although the corporation of Stouffville has seven churches or one to every 165 persons in the community, some of our people go on the belief that you cannot have too much of a good thing, hence an eighth denomination is shortly to bud out here. The new organization is a branch of the Cedarvale Tabernacle, Toronto, and several converts to this form of religion have recently been made in Stouffville, where meetings have been held in the Auditorium and on the street. The new organization has taken a year's lease of the building one door east of the fire hall, and owned by Mr. Amos Lehman, where they will fit up a suitable mission room.

Mr. O. E. Crockford, Toronto pastor, we understand, will have charge at Stouffville also, so soon as they are able to fit up the building.

JOINT POLITICAL MEETING

We understand that a joint Liberal and Conservative meeting has been arranged to Friday evening, Sept. 10th, to be held in the Armouries, Aurora, at 8 p.m. The only speakers will be Col. Lennox and Mr. Sifton, the candidates.

A FITTING FAREWELL

The School Room of the United Church was beautifully decorated and splendidly filled on Monday evening by a large gathering of members and friends who met to say farewell to Miss Anne Lehman, A.T.C.M., on the eve of her departure for Chengtu, China, where she accepted a position as teacher of music to the children of the Missionaries stationed in West China. Miss Lehman has brought additional honor to her family, her church and her town in accepting such an important appointment. As one of Stouffville's girls she has been actively identified in many of the activities of our town, but more especially her interest was centered in her church and its various organizations, filling many offices therein. As organist for several years, she rendered most efficient and acceptable service.

Mrs. Thompson of Toronto, assisted local talent in rendering a thoroughly enjoyable program. Messages of appreciation were given by Dr. D. C. Smith, Messrs. Brown, Barkey and Harris, as representing various departments of the church. On behalf of the congregation an address was read by Mrs. Fairles and a presentation by Mr. F. Rae of a club bag and a purse of gold, on behalf of Garret, Mission Circle, the address was read by Miss Betty Booth and a presentation of a life certificate membership and pin, also a fountain pen, by Mr. Reginald Button.

After refreshments, all wished Miss Lehman "Bon Voyage", success and enjoyment in her divinely appointed task.

Miss Lehman leaves town today (Thursday) sailing from Vancouver on Sept. 16th.

THE CONFERENCE

The annual conference of the Mennonite Brethren in Christ, will be held this year in the Stouffville church. A hundred or more delegates are expected here for the Ministerial Convention on Tuesday, Sept. 14th. The annual Conference will be held the following day, and many of the delegates will be on hand for this.

It is the intention of the local billeting committee to serve meals to the visitors, including breakfast, in the church basement, so that none need fail to be on hand for the opening session in the morning. The delegates will be billeted over night at the various homes, where they will find a hearty welcome.

Mr. Raymond Klinck of Jenner, Alberta, a student at the University of Alberta, where he specializes in classical languages, is spending a week with his relatives on O'Brien Avenue. Mr. Klinck who is only 20 years of age, is returning from a tour of several months on the continent where he made a special study of places and events connected with Ancient Greek and Roman civilizations.

Last Saturday afternoon we enjoyed a half hour visit from Rev. Gordon Duncan, pastor of St. Cuthbert's Presbyterian church in the Hochelaga district of Montreal. Rev. Mr. Duncan and his wife are on their return journey from a month's holiday in which they travelled to the Pacific coast, and well as visiting over in the southern states. Of all the vast country they visited, British Columbia, and particularly Vancouver, appealed to Mr. Duncan as the ideal spot to live. Twenty-five years ago or more Mr. Duncan left the old home town, but has never lost any interest in the place of his boyhood. He passed through the usual school routine given the present generation in Stouffville, and later entered University. Mr. Jas. Hand, our east end citizen, was principal of the public school during Mr. Duncan's primary days.

GUNMEN ARE STILL AT LARGE

While provincial police were racing around and through Stouffville Wednesday of last week in search of the three gunmen who shot and wounded Harold Archer at Port Perry the previous night, the "birds" had flown, and were safely hiding in Toronto. Archer was also in town that morning, and described the men as two of them being "short, dark fellows, while the third was a larger man wearing a cream colored sweater.

On Wednesday evening The Tribune, following up a story, got in touch with Wm. Yake, thresher, who lives at Goodwood. That same morning (following the shooting of the previous evening), three men answering the description of gunmen knocked at his door in Goodwood, and persuaded him to drive them to Yonge street, about 5.30 a.m.

Mr. Yake believed they had been on a fishing trip and drunk, and thus became stranded. He was unaware of anything having happened in Port Perry until we informed him of the trouble.

The men evidently caught the six o'clock car at Aurora, and made a clean get-away. Although a suspect was arrested, the gunmen are still at large.

The car which the thugs abandoned when it was ditched in Port Perry was a Dodge sedan, and is believed to be the property of L. J. Harman of Toronto.

LARGE AUDIENCE AT POLITICAL MEETING

Fighting Speeches by Liberals

The Dominion election campaign was opened in Stouffville on Thursday evening last for the Liberal organization by the presence of Hon. Duncan Marshall, organizer for the Dominion party in the last election, and a former Minister of Agriculture in the Alberta government, prior to his entering the federal field. He made a lucid speech in the interests of the local candidate Mr. Harry Sifton who was also present, and spoke after Mr. Marshall. Rev. C. E. MacLeod acted as chairman, and others on the platform were the riding organizer Mr. A. D. Bruce, Reeve Morgan Baker of Whitechurch, and Deputy Reeve J. R. Campbell of Markham, also Dr. W. A. Sangster.

Mr. Bruce was the first speaker, and touched for a few moments on the tariff, and enquired who was the Prosperity League, which is sending out literature for the Tories. They are never heard of only at election time, said he. He appealed to every Liberal to get out and vote on Sept. 14th. By changing three or four votes from the Tory to the Grit column in each division in North York throughout the seventy or more polling subdivisions, Harry Sifton would be returned by a majority of around one hundred.

Hon. Duncan Marshall, the main speaker, and a real platform orator, spoke for an hour and twenty minutes. This, he said was his first visit to North York in 23 years. He spoke in glowing terms of the ability of the Siftions, of which the candidate is descended. The late A.L. Sifton of Alberta was one of the five ablest men he ever met in his lifetime. "Harry", he continued will go far, if you elect him, to live up to the illustrious Liberals of the past. He will be able to return at the close of a session and give an account of his stewardship. "Turn to the tariff issue Mr. Marshall continued: "We never can have a high tariff in Canada for obvious reasons" Mr. Meighen had said in the House. "Never" is a long time, added Mr. Marshall, amid smiles from his audience. One of the "obvious reasons" which Mr. Meighen mentioned in his pronouncement at that time was that high tariff was "unsound in principle" because it excluded Canada the healthy competition provided by foreign goods coming into the country, a competition which the country had to have.

Now Mr. Meighen is changing his tune. There isn't a wooden rooster on top of the barn than can change its face to the exigencies of the weather, any better than the leader of the Tory party.

"As the Tories are supposed to be the staunch party in the principle of buying made in Canada goods," said the speaker, "I feel called upon to show you how closely they practise this imaginary plank, and the utter hypocrisy of the whole Conservative campaign." He submitted at this point a card advertising McLagan furniture, a firm of which D. Wright, Conservative candidate in North Perth, and opponent of F. Wellington Hay, was manager. The card bore the inscription: "Made by the Commonsense Novelty Company, Chicago, Ill., U.S.A."

A paper container given away at the C.N.E. here, and advertising the Maple Leaf Milling Company, which wanted an embargo on U.S. wheat, was also stamped "Made in U.S.A." And the first campaign literature issued by the Conservative party, he added, bore a picture of Mr. Meighen himself reproduced from a photograph made by a New York photographer!

"Protectionists by daylight, free traders by moonlight" he added.

Mr. Marshall concluded this illustration by saying that a man had a perfect right to admire United States institutions, but he had no right to stand up and say his was the British party and that Mr. King's party was an annex to the United States when he had christened his own son Theodore Roosevelt Meighen!

Mr. Marshall scored the action of a certain automobile plant for closing its doors in the faces of its employees when the Robb budget was announced. "He was afraid he wasn't going to make enough money to buy another yacht to sail around the Atlantic," he said, amid cheers. Despite the cries of alarm from the automobile industry one plant was now making 124,000 cars instead of 93,000, and putting up a $50,000 addition because the firm

Chicken thieves took twenty hens from a fattening crate belonging to Leland Johnston, on the Brown farm 10th con. Tuesday night. As the birds were removed from the pen, someone with knowledge of the situation, and no stranger, evidently did the stealing.

ATTENDANCE DOWN

School opened on Tuesday morning in Stouffville with the attendance somewhat below last year. In the Continuation School there were 62 scholars, but this number is expected to increase within a few days. The staff remains the same as last term; Mr. Stouffer being principal, and Miss Parker and Miss Guardhouse. One form will continue to meet in the Presbyterian church basement for a time at least. The same decrease is noticeable in the number of scholars in the public school, there being present on Tuesday 173, but in these figures there will also be some increase. The teaching staff consists of Mr. C. E. Watson, principal, Miss Orchard 3rd book; Miss Barber 2nd book, Miss Sargeant 1st book, and Miss Logan primer.
