

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Trout fishing is ended for another year, or until May 1st next.

Toronto has returned to standard time, and thus ends the confusion.

Markham Fair dates are changed this year, and the fair will be held on Sept. 30th and Oct. 1st and 2nd, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The late Mrs. Gordon Ferrier has left a bequest of $50 to the Missionary fund of the United Church of Canada, according to information received by the church trustees from the solicitors of her estate, Messrs. McCullough & Button.

There is a great deal of thieving going on in the mails and several letters have been intercepted between Stouffville and Toronto, and money stolen. Register money letters or purchase money orders or postal notes, and be safe.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gilmour who have been in Newfoundland the past three or four years, have returned to Canada, and are located in Quebec City. Mrs. Gilmour is a daughter of the late Chas. Radmore of Stouffville, and she spent her girlhood days in this place.

Mr. James Little has gone back to the lumber camps of Northern Ontario, where he is engaged as chief cook for a large lumbering concern, during the season just commencing. The lumber camps are opening a month earlier this year than last. During his absence the store next Bank of Nova Scotia will be in charge of Mrs. Little.

THE BEST

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love" but in the long autumn evenings, young and old enjoy a cup of good COFFEE.

We sell the one grade of Coffee. It has proven its quality and allurements for 25 years and public opinion announces the verdict. IT IS THE BEST.

Our Flannelettes, Flannelette-Blankets and Cottons are all good value.

The large Comforter Bats 72"x84" at 75c. are getting their share of praise, they are so fluffy and pure white.

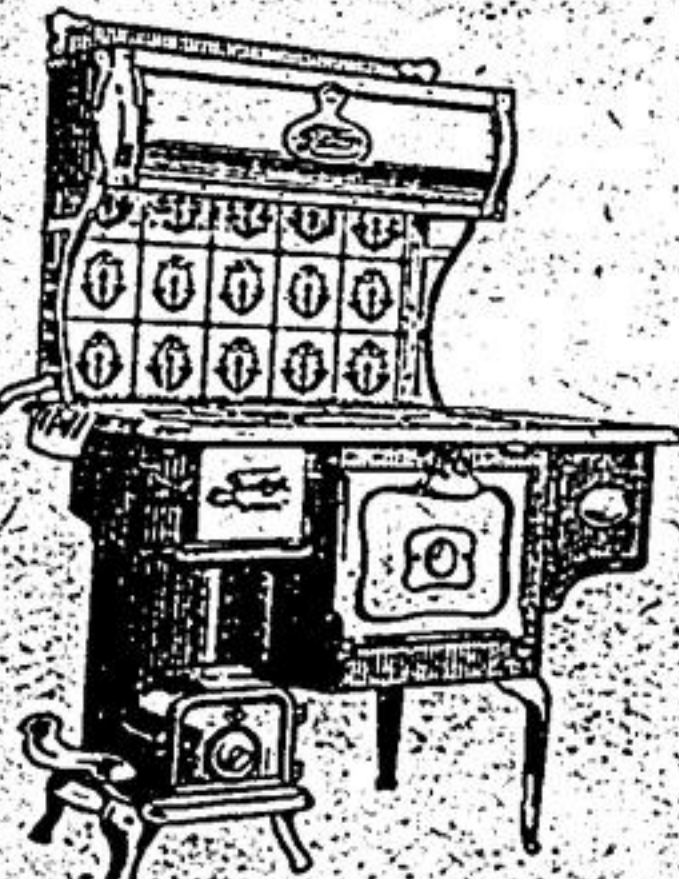

We have a full range of Groceries at reasonable prices. Special announcement next week.

Stouffville Rural School Fair Today (Thursday).

To the victor belongs the spoils! Now the Liberals may proceed with the appointment of a new postmaster for Stouffville.

Miss Sara L. Middleton, teacher of Piano and Theory lessons, is now open for engagements at her home, Main street. Terms reasonable.

Are you a booster for Stouffville? Remember, when a mule is kicking it isn't pulling, and the same logic may be applied to the two-legged mules.

With prospects for very fine weather the next few weeks, it gives a splendid opportunity for clearing the vines and growth from the gardens, getting up the bulbs, cleaning the town reservoirs, and generally setting the community in order for the winter season, which is fast approaching.

Mr. J. I. Dickson, divinity student, who has been conducting religious exercises at St. James' Presbyterian church, Stouffville, during the summer months, is leaving this week for Princeton Seminary to resume his studies, preparatory to undertaking Missionary work in Korea. After preparatory service on Friday evening last, this congregation presented notes of appreciation and a small donation, and wishes him success in his studies and future work.

The continued wet weather has been no detriment to the root crop in this locality. Cauliflower, which early in the season promised to be a failure owing to being infested with maggots which killed out about 50% of the crop, is now making great headway. The crop which escaped the pest is producing wonderful results, and prices are holding up well. The carrot crop is also good, and contrary to expectations, there is no worm or grub among them, despite the continued wet.

A couple of bus loads of supporters of Harry Sifton, and the Stouffville band journeyed to Yonge street on Wednesday night of last week in the special busses chartered for the occasion, to participate in the demonstration for the Liberal candidate, who was defeated in the campaign, and for the King Government, which put the Tory regime out of business completely. About 70 motor cars formed the procession at Thornhill, and headed for Newmarket, where a big demonstration took place in the arena. Mr. Sifton thanked his supporters and workers for the hard fight they put up, and in return received a wonderful ovation from the huge crowd assembled.

Cattle Sale Tomorrow.

Prune and Lombard Plums for Sale. E. Walls, Phone 6513.

Let us hear more often from our country correspondents, during this season, now that harvesting time is about over.

Hear the public lecture on "Roses" by A. H. Moore, in Ratcliff's Hall, Friday evening, Sept. 24th. Silver collection only.

Mr. Nathan Tarr last week sold the 75 acres of land on the 9th concession of Markham, opposite the farm of Henry Grice, to John Robinson, who has one of Mr. J. R. Campbell's farms rented.

The large brick residence in the extreme east end of the town, known as the Brown property, which was purchased by the Burwashes who met such sudden deaths there last spring, has been sold to a Toronto man for $2800. The property adjoins Mr. John McKinnon's to the east, and the house has water and electric light installed.

Some time Friday night the barn of Mr. Robt. Cowie, 14th con. Brock was entered by thieves and some sixteen bags of cleaned alsike were taken. For some reason the plunder was secreted in a corn field some distance from the barn where it was later found. The circumstance is a warning to farmers to see that their premises are well secured.

Rev. A. W. Banfield, missionary from West Africa, was a guest in town during the Mennonite Conference last week. Mr. Banfield is secretary of the British and Colonial Bible Society, and since he went to the mission field in 1900 has learned the native language and translated it to English. On Saturday afternoon and evening he showed views and gave an interesting discourse in the church on his great work among the heathen people.

Earl Clendenning and Alfred Hill left on Monday morning for North Bay, where they will enter the Normal School, from which they hope to emerge next spring as full-fledged pedagogues. History tells of many famous "Earls", nor have we forgotten all about "Alfred the Great," and who knows but that the two young men who went north on Monday may make names for themselves that will also go down in history. Certainly Earl and Alf. will spare no effort to make good in their chosen profession.

The Newmarket Era says that goods roads have a lot to do with the impression visitors form of one's town. Ipso facto strangers and visitors to Stouffville, should they motor along the roadway from Todd's premises to the old Baptist church lot, will form a mighty poor opinion of our town. The logs from the old corduroy road which at one time bridged the swamp at this place, have worked up to the surface, and now one gets a semblance of what the old time corduroy would have been like had their been cars to drive forty years ago.

Among the many visitors in town last week for the Mennonite Conference and Convention, was Rev. D. S. Schantz of Castor, central Alberta. Probably thirty-five years ago or more Mr. Schantz was pastor at Mount Joy, Dixon's Hill and Altona, prior to the formation of the Mennonite congregation in Stouffville. Ill health forced Mr. Schantz to go west, and for twelve years he was postmaster at Didsbury, Alta., but is now living a retired life at Castor. On his visit east he is accompanied by his wife, and they met many old acquaintances in this locality, as well as up in Waterloo County where they are spending some weeks.

Postmaster Nutting of Walkerton has resigned his position and gone to Florida, owing to ill health. In connection with a new appointment the Walkerton Herald last week said: "Two officials from the Post Office Inspector's Dept., London, were in town on Monday to personally interview all applicants for the vacant Postmastership in Walkerton. Candidates for the position, who didn't present themselves before these officials, will not have their applications considered by the Civil Service Commission, to whom the above officials are sending their information and other data they secured here on Monday. We understand something over twenty applicants met the officials and gave them a line of talk on their particular special aptitude for the job. As the Civil Service Commission is said to be outside the pale of politics the change in the Government on Tuesday, it is considered, will have no bearing on the chances of any of the candidates for the sit. The applicants will be considered solely on their merits, according to these two officials. Miss Violet Kramp, formerly assistant at the P.O., has been duly sworn in as Post Mistress pro tem."

An Urgent Meeting of the Odd-fellows Lodge will be held in their lodge rooms next Monday, Sept. 27, at 8 p.m. Very important business is being brought before the members and it is requested by the Noble Grand that a full attendance should be on hand. Don't fail, it's your business. W.R. Sanders, Rec-secretary.

The expected detour at the west end of the town between Stouffville and Ringwood will not inconvenience the public very much, as a thorough thoroughfare may be made after six o'clock each evening and on Sundays. It will not be until the tarvia top is being applied that the road will be permanently closed, and then only for a short period of time. In order to construct this mile and a quarter of new roadway some three or four thousand tons of stone is being used. This represents probably eighty or ninety car loads which is being taken from the cars at Stouffville station.

While proceeding from Yonge street to Unionville on Sunday evening in his father's Gray Dort car, Heber Rusnell, son of David Rusnell of this town, was ditched as he attempted to round the "S" shaped bend just east of the jail farm. The car turned completely over, and all occupants escaped uninjured. A more serious accident happened a few moments later however, when Mr. Rusnell lighted a match to make a more careful survey of the situation as it was after dark, when suddenly the machine caught up in flames, and was a total loss in only a few moments. Heber was burned about the hands and face in his effort to extinguish the blaze, but the other four men were uninjured. The cause of the car turning over was the fact that the front wheel went over the side of the culvert which the driver failed to see, and like the chapters of a ten cent novel, each succeeding moment of the thrilling incident became more exciting, until the last embers of the fire left the occupants with nothing but "shank's mare" to bring them home.

Mr. Alex. Scott, one of our local merchants, arrived home on Saturday night, from Saskatchewan, to which province he left just a month previous, owing to a serious accident which befel his aged mother, who suffered the loss of a foot. Mr. Scott states that his mother is resting in the Moose Jaw hospital, and last week underwent a second amputation, which she withstood bravely. Exact details of the accident were obtainable when Mr. Scott met his father who was an eye witness to the terrible incident. Mrs. Scott had taken a lunch to her husband who was driving the binder with four horses, one of which was a colt. When Mrs. Scott attempted to urge the steeds on for her husband, the colt forced the other three horses to turn completely around, and before the woman could escape her foot was drawn in to the knives and completely severed. The nearest doctor was 5 miles away, and it was over an hour before he arrived at the scene of the accident. Mrs. Scott who is 70 years of age, is in a serious condition, but the manner in which she is holding up under such suffering, is nothing short of marvellous.
