Chicken Thieves Are Active Again

Some time Sunday night thieves trespassed on the farm of Barkis Reesor, east of Stouffville, and carried off over 100 Plymouth Rock pullets. They were a choice flock weighing six and seven pounds each, and as the thieves were able to locate them readily in the orchard, more or less out of the way, it is believed that mantraders were no strangers. The Stouffville Felon Association has the matter in hand, and it is to be hoped they will run down the guilty party or parties. Two years ago Mr. Reesor suffered a similar loss, and the offender served a jail term as a consequence. If this theft business from the farms in Ontario continues the time is not far distant when the barns and hen coops will be equipped with an alarm system such as is being used on a few places at present. The alarm will be the signal for the farmer to get out his old musket loader with a liberal supply of buckshot. Only when the thieves are sure of this treatment will they desist.

Enamored with their success on Sunday night a second visit was made to the Reesor farm on Monday night. As the remaining hens were secure in the barn the thieves were lured nearer the house and were heard, whereupon they quickly made their escape, taking a few roosters which had camped out in the orchard.

The Felon Association, if they are to be of any value to their members, should take prompt and strenuous action to bring the guilty ones to task.

Bought the Markdale Creamery

Mr. Harold Borinsky of Goodwood has just purchased the creamery business at Markdale, and is now in control of the plant. It is situated in one of the finest farming sections in Ontario, and enjoys an almost exclusive patronage. Some years ago Mr. Borinsky operated a creamery in Dufferin county, when there was plenty of opposition, but it is now reduced to his present plant.

Mr. Borinsky is offering his Goodwood mercantile business for sale, but failing to get a buyer who can finance this large going concern, he will put on an extensive sale and reduce the stock to the liking of any purchaser.

The Election Slate

Mr. P. W. Pearson, warden of York County, and Reeve of Newmarket, has been chosen at a combined convention of Liberals and Progressives in Newmarket, to contest the riding of North York in the forthcoming Provincial elections on Dec. 1st.

The Conservative candidate is Wm. Keith, who is backing the Government control policy of Premier Ferguson, while Mr. Pearson will stand behind Mr. Sinclair and the O.T.A. Mr. Keith is the sitting member, and both men are regarded as strong candidates, but as North York voted by nearly 6000 to retain the O.T.A. in the last plebiscite, there promises to be a warm contest.

Big interest is being awakened in the campaign, as was evidenced by the two nominations last week which were so largely attended, that scarcely all could gain admittance to the halls.

Although the election is less than four weeks away, neither the Liberals or Conservatives have a candidate in the field in East York riding, which includes Stouffville and Markham Township.

It is altogether likely that Hon. G. S. Henry, the sitting member, will receive the Conservative nomination when the time comes, although he has been mentioned for another of the Yorks, but is not likely to accept. His normal majority in past contests exceeds 2500, but a big city vote has been taken off East York this time, which have a tendency to reduce the minister's strength, as he received his big majority in the south end.

So far only one Liberal has been mentioned for the seat, being Wm. Douglas, a Toronto lawyer, who is quite well known in the riding. At one time he taught school at Dixon Hill, and some of his supporters claim he would prove a strong candidate. Arthur Robuck has also been mentioned, but with his great diversified views on many matters, and mixing with different movements, he is not likely to be acceptable to the Liberals, who would prefer a straight Liberal candidate.

FIRE DESTROYED BARN

Damage, estimated at about $25,000 was caused at 8:15 on Sunday evening, when the large frame and concrete barn on the Jenkinson farm near Agincourt, was completely gutted by fire. The flames consumed the season's crops of hay, grain and roots, as well as the bulk of the farm implements.

The farm, which is rented by two partners, Hardy Cooper and Wallace Hawkins, is located on Kennedy Rd at the intersection of the Westford side road.

The fire was first discovered by Wallace Hawkins, who resides close to the barn. He had left the barn at 7:30 following his chores, and was seated reading when the dog commenced to bark. He looked out of the window and noticed smoke issuing from the barn. Soon it was a roaring mass of flames and illuminated the neighborhood for miles, and several Stouffville people enroute from Toronto saw the blaze.

With the assistance of neighbors, Messrs. Cooper and Hawkins succeeded in rescuing the cattle, horses and poultry, housed in the barn. Four or five horses were rescued in the nick of time from the stables beneath the barn.

The reels of Scarboro, East York and Unionville were quickly on the scene, and with the aid of chemicals the flames were kept from spreading to other buildings. The efforts of the firemen and volunteer assistants saved the dwelling house almost adjoining the barn.

During the night large crowds of people and hundreds of automobiles arrived at the scene, attracted by the fire, which smouldered until an early hour on Monday.

Markham Presbyterians hope to have their new church completed in that village by the first of December. Mr. Fred Cole is almost through plastering, and the concrete walks have been laid.

Mr. L. B. Heise of Victoria Square has received word from his son, O. L. Heise, to the effect that he and his family arrived safely in Orlando, Florida, from the Square after a pleasant homeward journey of 1666 miles. He reports an eventful trip and good roads most of the way.

Brownscombe's departmental store in Uxbridge was broken into on Sunday night last, and several valuable coats stolen. One Persian lamb coat valued at $350 was taken out of the window, and two muskrat coats removed from the store room upstairs. The thieves gained entrance by forcing the lock on the front door with tools.

One night last week some "hoodlum" up at Ballantrae broke the large plate glass window in the dining room of the home of Mr. Job Jordan. We are informed that a number of boys and young men who congregated around the corner cause more or less of a disturbance, and a police investigation into this last infraction of the law is likely to be held.

The Claremont correspondent of the Pickering News says: "A number of trucks are passing through the village every day on their way from Uxbridge to Toronto with heavy loads of potatoes. On account of this heavy demand the price is gradually soaring, until now the buyers are paying $2.00 a bag, 50 cents higher than they were a week ago."

R. J. Brown of Seagrave, for many years a prominent worker for the Conservative party in South Ontario riding, and a well known resident of Reach Township, has received the appointment of Returning Officer for South Ontario in the forthcoming provincial election. For plebiscite in 1924 the returning officer was Mr. Albert W. Jackson, who held this office for the federal election in September.

Owing to the serious illness of Mr. John Walker, Vandorf, who is in the General Hospital, Toronto, receiving treatment, the family have decided to rent the farm and plans are being worked out for an early sale of the stock and implements this fall. The family will move to Aurora as soon as a house can be procured and the business of the farm in other hands. This means another big loss in many ways to that community and church as Mr. Walker had lived there all his life and with his wife has been an active worker in any cause that has been of benefit to the neighborhood.

Many of our readers will recall the days when the travelling show put on their entertainment in the old town hall, and among the most popular was the Marks Bros. The head of this troop, Tom Marks, was well and favorably known and his retirement from active work is commented on by a contemporary paper as follows: "Mr. Tom Marks, the far-famed comedian, after making his millions, has retired to 'The Marks' Homestead," a beautiful farm of about 300 acres, properly cultivated, on the shore of Christie Lake and on banks of the Tay Canal, about four miles west of the town of Perth, Ont. This farm has been operated by the Marks people for over a hundred years. They came from Ireland and during the American war took refuge in Canada as true British subjects—United Empire Loyalists. Most people when they retire move to a city, town, village, or hamlet—not so with Tom Marks—he returns to the place of his birth to spend the rest of his days on the playgrounds of his childhood."

TOLD THEM OFF

An old gent, who was quite a religious man, and who wore a long white beard, was walking down the street, when he met three young chaps, who, knowing of his religious attitude thought they would have some fun at his expense. "Hello, Abraham," said the first. "Hello, Isaac," said the next. "Hello, Moses," the third greeted the old man. "Boys, you are mistaken," returned the old gent. "I am neither Abraham, Isaac nor Moses; but Saul, the son of Kish, who went forth to hunt his father's asses, and I have found them."

E. J. Davey and Dr. Ira Freeland to the effect that these gentlemen would not be called upon to pay for any part of this new walk, nor would they be held liable for any snow shovelling. Here is the wording of the letter sent to Messrs. Davey and Freeland by the town clerk, J. S. Dougherty:
"At a special meeting of the Stouffville Council on Saturday, there was a resolution passed to lay a sidewalk on Lane leading to Barkey Bros' lot. This resolution contains a proviso that you will not be asked to contribute any payment for such walk, and that no person will be asked or bound to shovel any snow on such sidewalk."

THE MILLIONAIRE'S SECRET

To be a millionaire, a man must not only get rich; he must be able to stay rich. A certain well-known millionaire, when asked how he stayed rich, said: "I invest my money only in sound, established companies."

That man has learned a valuable secret. But a man's money, however much he has, is never worth so much to him as his mind, his intelligence.

Has it ever occurred to you that you should invest your intelligence just as carefully as you invest your money?

Why not invest your intelligence in a sound company by subscribing to the Youth's Companion? It is the oldest magazine for young people in the world—and nearly the oldest of all the American magazines. It is also one of the most interesting. Practically every famous author of the past hundred years has written at one time or another for the Companion. Only this fall, for example, the Companion published a new story by Jack London. Do you like stories of adventure? Mystery? They are all in the Youth's Companion.

Here are the terms of an investment guaranteed to be profitable:
1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1927, and
2. The remaining issues of 1926. All for only $2.00.
3. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $2.50.
