Former Resident Dies
In Saskatchewan

A telegram was received here on Friday, Nov. 19th, by Mr. Alex. W. Scott announcing the passing away of his mother at Caron, Sask., that day. The remarkable survival of Mrs. Scott following the terrible accident which befel her almost three months ago when she lost one foot through coming into contact with the binder on their farm, seemed almost impossible for a woman of 70 years of age. Some time ago she left the Moose Jaw hospital, and returned to Caron, where she continued to improve, but a few days prior to passing away, she contracted pneumonia, to which she suddenly succumbed. Only four days prior to her death, a public auction sale of the farm stock and implements was held at the farm, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott intended to return to Stouffville almost immediately. The late Mrs. Scott was a daughter of William Kellington of Uxbridge Township in which municipality deceased spent her girlhood days. Her husband was a well-known farmer of that township, but when the western movement was on he and his wife went to Saskatchewan, where their son Alex was located, and took up land. Later they returned to Stouffville, but after a residence here of three years they returned again to their western farm in the spring of 1921, where they remained until the present time. Besides their only son, Alex, there is an adopted daughter, Mrs. Emerling of Buffalo, who is here for the funeral. Four sisters and three brothers also survive. Mrs. Washington Paisley of Whitelock, Mrs. Hart of Toronto, Mrs. Grenkie of Rosseau, Mrs. Hodgson of Caron, Sask., Thomas Kellington of Whitelock, John of Lemonville and William of Raglan. The funeral on Wednesday afternoon took place from the son's residence here to Goodwood cemetery. The divine service was held in the United Church at Goodwood, where fitting tribute was paid to the beautiful life of this Christian mother. The pall bearers were:

Our teacher in the public school; Miss Foote of Lemonville, is to be congratulated on the success of the Memorial Concert in connection with Armistice Day at the Community Hall on Friday evening of last week. The recitations by the pupils were well prepared fitting in perfectly with all the other selections given by the older ones. A violin and piano selection given by two of the pupils was exceptionally good as was also piano solo. Captain Cane gave a very interesting talk on how he came to see Jerusalem. Rev. T.R. White explained the work the League of Nations were doing, and

Rev. Mr. Perry of Newmarket spoke on what peace meant to us as a people.

Aged Mother Dies
In Her 83rd Year

A life-long resident of this section, and native of Musselman's Lake passed away on Thursday, Nov. 18th, 1926, in the person of Susan Graham, relict of the late Wm. Reynolds, in her 83rd year. Mrs. Reynolds passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R.S. Hope, who lives on the farm a couple of miles west of Goodwood. Only about three weeks ago Mrs. Reynolds visited friends in Stouffville, and was surprisingly bright and active for a woman of so great an age.

Mrs. Reynolds was a daughter of the late Richard Graham, a pioneer of the lake district, and of a family of six or seven children. Mr. Andrew Graham of Stouffville is the only surviving member. After her marriage to Mr. Reynolds, they took up farming in the vicinity of Stouffville, and Altona. Finally they located in Stouffville, and Mr. Reynolds was well-known as a county constable. Almost 20 years ago he passed away and his widow remained in town until three years ago when she went to live with her daughter near Goodwood. To them was born 12 children eight of whom survive the mother being six sons and two daughters, namely, Walter of Chicago, John of Toronto, Thomas or Portage la Prairie, Philip of Aurora, Fred of Pickering, Frank of Saskatchewan, Mrs. Thos. Hunt of Croswell, Mich., and Mrs. R. S. Hope of Goodwood.

The funeral on Sunday, Nov. 21st, from the daughter's home to Stouffville cemetery, was attended by many old friends and sympathizers. The service at the house was in charge of Rev. E. Morton, pastor of the Christian Church, with which the deceased mother had been closely identified for many years. The pall bearers were her six sons, and the presence of the eight children bore silent testimony to the love and esteem for this grand old mother who has passed over to the side of the great majority.

LEMONVILLE

Ralph Baker was in Toronto a few days last week.

Herman Burkholder has been in ill health during the past week.

P. W. Pearson, Liberal candidate, was here last Friday night. When is Mr. Keith coming?

A number from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Dawson Davis at Dixon Hill.

There was a good turnout to the weiner roast at Harry Talbot's on Tuesday night. All report a good time.

POLLING DAY, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 1st

VOTE

Hon. Geo. S. Henry
Conservative Candidate East York

Mr. Ferguson versus The People!

IS the Prime Minister of Ontario successfully to flout the decision of the people?

Is the verdict of the province, plainly expressed by ballots, to be set aside as nothing?

Are the brewers, the distillers, the rum-runners and bootleggers to rule this Province?

These are the questions you will decide by your Vote on December First.

The Ferguson Liquor Policy Is Not a Conservative Policy

In 1916, a Conservative Government enacted The Ontario Temperance Act.

In 1919, Conservatives had their part in securing a huge majority for the O.T.A. in a referendum.

In 1920, the Conservative Party, in convention, declined to receive two motions calling for a change in the O.T.A. The convention passed a resolution declaring for the carrying out of the law in accordance with public opinion.

In 1923, Mr. Ferguson asserted "the Conservative Party is not going back on its offspring" (meaning the O.T.A.)

In 1924, thousands of Conservatives again supported the O.T.A. in a plebiscite.

In 1924, at an Ontario Conservative Association meeting, a resolution calling for Government Control on a local option basis received only two votes.

In March, 1926, at a meeting of the Ontario Conservative Association, another attempt was made to move the same resolution. The man who was to have seconded it disappeared and it did not go to a vote.

In October, 1926, without a mandate from his party, and in opposition to the expressed will of the people, Mr. Ferguson announced a policy of Government Sale of Liquor, which would destroy the O.T.A.

In voting against Mr. Ferguson on December 1, Conservatives are not going back on their party. It is Mr. Ferguson who has deserted the party and the party's policies, evidence of which can be found in the resignation of Hon. W. F. Nickle, late Attorney-General in the Conservative Cabinet
