COMING—Dr. F. E. Luke, Optometrist, 167 Yonge St., Toronto, may be consulted, about your eyes for glasses at J. Broadway's Drug Store, Stouffville, Thursday, Jan. 26th.

The spring-like weather of last week removed much of the ice from the sidewalks, which was almost impossible for the faithful snow shoveller to remove.

Mr. Wm. Bruels of Hamilton is making good progress towards recovery since he has been able to leave the hospital there, which information will be received by his friends with general satisfaction.

Mr. Chester Brown of Toronto was in town last Saturday. Thirty years ago he operated a stumping machine at Altona and rooted up more stumps in his time here than a cyclone. At present Chester is conducting a billiard room on Yonge street, a business he has been following for ten or fifteen years.

Mr. Simeon Hoover has leased his farm of 70-acres on the 8th concession of Markham, to Messrs Barkley Bros. (Clarence and Elmer) and will hold an auction sale of his stock and implements on January 26th. Mr. Hoover's sale will be a large one, as he has accumulated a great amount of goods in his time, the implements all being well cared for.

Carnival tonight (Thursday) in the Arena.

Fresh Pork Sausage and lard for sale. A. E. Booth, Phone 8112.

Dr. W. A. Summers (formerly with Robt. Simpson Co.) Eye Specialist will be at Jacob Yake's Jewelry Store every Thursday. Free consultation.

Mr. George McKuen of Lemonville is expected to return from Toronto this week after a couple of months confinement in Wellesley Hospital, Toronto. He was able to be at Lemonville New Year's Day to cast his ballot.

Monday, January 16th—Markham in a Junior O.H.A. game. This will be one of the big features of the hockey season. Markham lead the league, and Stouffville believe they can beat them. You come and see the outcome.

Wm. Morgan, farmer of Glasgow now retired in Goodwood, renewed his subscription to The Tribune last week, to which he has been a subscriber since the paper was established in 1888. In fact Mr. Morgan has taken the Stouffville paper since the first issue of the first paper since he has 50 years ago.

W. R. Sanders, the photographer and Jos. Borinsky, the creameryman, are carrying about with them summons to attend the petit jury in Toronto for the assizes. As there are a couple of cases to be heard of wife desertion and domestic troubles of one sort or other, we can't see where the local photographer is qualified to pass any opinion, but he will at least be able to take a panoramic view of the situation should he be called as jurymen on one of them.

The value of vaccination against smallpox is being broadcast through the newspapers, boards of health, and by radio talks. Parents in Stouffville should give heed to them, and have their children vaccinated. Every medical practitioner in town voices this opinion, and as their advice is sought in time of trouble it is of value on other occasions. We note that some municipalities in York County through the local B. of H. are urging butchers, bakers, and all who handle food products for public sale to be vaccinated against this disease. Dozens of new cases have broken out the past ten days in Scarborough.

Some of the new councillors who expect to shine this year, may be thinking about their bald spot.

Fancy Dress Carnival in the Stouffville Arena, this Thursday evening. Prizes will be awarded for costumes. Admission 25 and 15c.

Writing from Kitchener, Mrs. Lehman, wife of Rev. F. J. Lehman of that city state that they look forward to the arrival of The Tribune each week, carrying to them the local news of their home district.

Smallpox has broken out in Scarborough Township and in the town of Durham there are two cases. All public meetings have been banned for two weeks, to prevent a spread in the Durham case.

Due to almost spring-like weather so much of the time this winter and to the large number of storage eggs on the market the farmers are feeling the easier prices for hen fruit. On the local exchange last Thursday the best eggs demanded only 50c. per dozen, or a drop of 10c. from the previous week. Butter remained at from 35 to 40c. pound, and chickens which had not reached the old hen stage realized 25c. to 30c. pound. The old birds themselves were plentiful at 20c. pound dressed.

In the presence of a large congregation which assembled in All Saints Anglican Church, Toronto, a few evenings ago, a tablet was unveiled and dedicated by the Bishop of Toronto to the memory of Watson T. Bradshaw, a member of the church for more than 40 years, and People's Warden from 1914 to 1926. The flowers which adorned the chapel of the church had been presented by Mrs. James Rennie of Stouffville, sister to the late Mr. Bradshaw. Both Bishop Sweeny and the Rector of the church paid eloquent tribute to Mr. Bradshaw and his outstanding record of church service.

Mr. Hugh Clark, son of Clerk W. H. Clark of Whitchurch Township, has sold his farm near Ballantrae to Mr. Elmer Clarke of the same township, who will turn the property into a ranch farm. Hugh has purchased a small farm in Norfolk County, two miles and a half from the thriving town of Simcoe. This is one of the sections where tobacco farming is coming into prominence, the seasons and soil there being particularly adapted for the growing of the weed. Hugh has a lot of close friends here who will be sorry to lose him from their midst. He will announce an auction sale of farm stock to be held in February.

There is loud demand for more lights on the north side of Main St., and in a few of the out-of-the-way corners of the town, but no doubt the new council will give a listening ear to them, and at least investigate the requests. Probably the council will assemble on the streets some dark night and traverse the sidewalks, judging for themselves where a few more lights would be of benefit. Last year a reduction in street lighting was effected amounting to $100, and part of this might justly be expended in additional lights. Councillor Borinsky is chairman of this department, and it will devolve upon him to keep his committee active.

The annual meeting of the United Church Sunday School took place last week, when officers for the year 1928 were elected. The receipts for the nine months amounted to $390, with expenditures of $359. The officers and teachers elected are: Superintendent M. Harris; assistants, Dr. Smith, G. Thomas; secretary, Wilber Gower; treasurer, Iola Burkholder; pianists, Eva Hoover, Anna Scott; teachers, Misses Middleton and Booth, Mrs. Hare, Mrs. N. Burkholder, Ida Lehman, Mrs. Woodcock, Ormsby Lehman, H. Thomas, Mao Mowder, Miss Watson, Mrs. Booth, Bertha Winn, Miss Dowswell. In addition leaders of the different departments were elected, and assistant teachers.

The first meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church, for the year 1928, was held at the home of Mrs. K. G. Tarr, O'Brien Avenue, last Thursday afternoon. Reports were given by the secretary and treasurer, the yearly report showing total receipts amounting to $24.51. The motion of the December meeting was sustained, that the first Thursday of each month be the day of meeting. The President, Mrs. W. B. Sanders, gave a short synopsis of chapter three of the Study Book, "New Paths for Old Purposes" dealing with child welfare. Short papers were also given on chapter four followed by a discussion of the influence of the American attitude towards the race problem, on the foreign missionary work. Mrs. N. Forsyth was elected delegate to the Presbytery in Toronto the last of January, and following the meeting a social half hour was spent, the hostesses being Mr. Tarr, Mrs. Hoover, and the Misses Taun. The officers for the coming year are Hon. Pres.—Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Robinson. Prest.—Mrs. W. B. Sanders. 1st Vice—Mrs. H. S. Warren. 2nd Vice—Mrs. N. Burkholder. Rec-Sec'y—Mrs. A. E. Booth. Cor. Sec'y—Mrs. Delbert Holden. Treas.—Mrs. D. C. Smith.

Mrs. Thomas who returned lately from the hospital, is reported to be making favorable progress, and is able to get around the house with the aid of crutches.

Roy Strong's sale a mile north of Stouffville on the 10th takes place today. (Thursday). Valuable furniture and other articles will be sold without reserve. Start 1 p.m.

Mr. George Winn intends to move his household effects from the old home on the 10th of Whitchurch to his newly acquired property on north Church street this week. Mr. Winn and family will be welcome residents.

At Vermillion, Alberta, where W. Percy Badger lives, the weather for three months has been below zero and for several weeks the thermometer stood around 40 below, and touched 44. It is the coldest winter in that part for the past 35 years. Mr. Badger is a son of our townsman, Mr. Ira Badger, and is a weekly reader of The Tribune.

Mrs. Jane Williams, widow of the late Edw. Williams, celebrated her 83rd birthday a few days ago in a manner befitting the occasion. From a distance came a handsome birthday cake, while other good friends remembered her with presents and greeting cards, all adding to the joy of life for one of such an advanced age as Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. J. P. Norris of the 5th concession of Whitchurch has a large stock of magazines on hand which she will be glad to donate to any society or individual who wishes them for their value as reading matter. They contain illustrations and reading material, accumulated for some years. If you would like to have them or a portion of them telephone Mrs. Norris at 7209, and arrange to have them left in town.

The regular meeting of the W. Q. men's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Watson, Main street on Wednesday, Jan. 18th at 2.30 o'clock. Program—Address, "Danger of Luxury in Modern Life" by Mrs. C. E. MacLeod; reading, Mrs. W. Lewis; demonstration, salad by Mrs. Hodgins, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Malloy and Mrs. Simpson; Roll call answered by "My Favorite Salad"; music. Social half hour. Everybody welcome.

Kenneth Stotts, employed with Edw. Nigh of the 6th concession of Markham Township, suffered a painful injury to the face when enjoying the hockey match in the Stouffville Arena last Friday night. One of the Whitchurch players undertook to shoot the puck against the boards with considerable force, when he raised the rubber too high, and it passing over the top, landed on Mr. Stott's nose. This useful organ was split open, but the doctor in attendance patched it up with plaster, avoiding the necessity of stitches. Ken says the knock he received reminded him of something he had heard about "in the midst of life we are in death". It was a bad knock-out, and rendered the victim helpless for a time.

On Sunday Mrs. Edwin Boothby reached her 81st birthday and on Monday her sister Mrs. Hiram Kester arrived at her 84th milestone. These two elderly ladies live in the west end, and are well known to nearly all our citizens. They were the object of congratulations from many of their friends on attaining such ripe ages in the active spirit which prevades their home. In talking to The Tribune over the telephone Mrs. Kester says she would like to be "sweet sixteen" again, with the wisdom she now has. These two sisters belong to a long-lived family for two brothers and one sister are also living, being Mrs. Giffin of Blenheim, and Messrs. Nathan Forsyth of Stouffville, and Hiram Forsyth of Uxbridge, the latter named the eldest of the family being in his 86th year. Both Mrs. Boothby and Mrs. Kester have suffered the loss of their life partners, although Mrs. Boothby has four children living, her only daughter and her husband who live in Toronto, having spent Sunday with their mother.

When Master Bill Sanders and Sam Borinsky visited the Toronto General Hospital last Sunday afternoon to see their school chum, Myron Anderson, the former hadn't any thought of becoming a patient in the institution for a brief spell, but such was his misfortune. Those medicinal odors familiar to such institutions, accompanied by so many patients suffering from one trouble or another, was too much for Bill's constitution, rugged as it is for a lad, and he "went out" to use a slang phrase regarding people who lose consciousness. As Bill sat there watching the nurses go to and fro in the performance of their duties, he sensed the on-coming "sea-sickness" but refused to make known his plight, and undertook to leave the building for fresher air outside. Suddenly everything went black, and Bill dropped in his tracks, striking his head against a piece of furniture, inflicting a nasty gash about the eye. He was hastily taken in charge, and some time later, when he came to himself, discovered that he was carrying several stitches necessitated to close the gash. Bill's experience like most other people's who enter hospitals was not too pleasant, and it was with a sigh of relief that he found himself homeward bound in time for evening meal. Sam and Bill found their friend Myron Anderson who is confined to the hospital through gunshot wounds in the arm, unable to walk around for the first day, although it is expected that he will have to remain in the hospital until June.

Master Frank Bartholomew, who sustained a fracture of the arm two weeks ago, is making rapid recovery.

When Mrs. Henry McMullen was out in the yard last week she slipped on the ice falling and injuring her hip very badly. Fortunately, it is thought, no bones were broken.

Owing to the ill health of one of the players (Miss Eva Hoover) it is necessary to change the date of the play. "His Best Investment", from Jan. 18th to Wednesday, Feb. 1st.

Ratcliff's Hall failed to seat the large crowd assembled there on Sunday evening to enjoy the sacred band concert put on by the boys of the local organization. As an evidence of how much the crowd enjoyed the program we state they went down in their pockets for a collection of $35 when the hat was passed around for a silver donation. In addition to well rendered numbers by the band under the leadership of Barney Hodges, Misses Ivy Saunders, Edith Swift and Erie Collard assisted in vocal selections with Miss Anne Lehman at the piano. Sacred band concerts are an innovation for our boys which look like becoming a success, and a second one will be staged in a few weeks' time, of which the public will be given due notice.

Send the Tribune to absent friends.
