

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mr. Dan Burnett is quite ill at his home in the west end.

Mr. Ira Brown has been in a very poor state of health for the past week.

On Wednesday this week Mr. Archie Fleming of 10th concession, Markham, moved to his new farm at Almira, while Mr. Sam Hisey moved into his house in the west end of Stouffville.

We intended to print something in this issue concerning Dave Russell's rink being the means of defeating the Locust Hill curlers here two weeks ago, but a good curler asks us to desist. It's coming so near housecleaning time, he wishes the wives of all curlers to forget about their prowess with the broom.

Mr. Wilson of the Cannery Seed Company Limited, Wellington, is again in this section contracting with farmers for the growing of hard peas, at the price of $1.30 per bushel. This method has been carried on by this firm for the past two seasons with considerable success to the growers. The local representative for the company is R. E. Brown.

Great times on the New York market as far as the Canadian dollar is concerned. The premium yesterday was three thirty-seconds of one per cent, which was one thirty-second lower than the day before. On that could be based a very intelligent question for a senior class. Suppose A. bought two shirts and a couple of pairs of socks yesterday instead of the day before, how much did he gain or lose?

Provincial police paid visits to Stouffville and Markham villages last week, making seizures of liquor in both places.

You will be canvassed to buy a ticket for the picture, "Les Miserables," March 28th, afternoon and evening performance. Adm. 25c. and 15c.; evening all seats 25c.

Last Thursday's market prices at Stouffville: butter 38c, eggs 33c, chickens 28c and hens 22c. Buyers state there is a market for old hens just now, thus they quote a good price on these fowl.

On Friday Noah Wideman of Almira disposed of his 180 acre farm on the 5th line Markham Twp. to Hugh Boyd also of Markham, for $10,000. The property consists of 100 acres of land with dwelling and extra good barn. Mr. Wideman purchased this place just ten years ago from the Hisey Estate, it being the farm on which Mr. Sam. Hisey was born. Mr. Wideman is holding an auction sale on March 29th, and will move to Stouffville where he has rented the east half of Queen's Court from Mr. W. H. Todd.

Editor Sam. G. Way, of the Tweed Advocate died suddenly in the General Hospital, Toronto, on Friday morning last following an operation.

Mr. Way will be remembered by many in this locality as a frequent visitor at the home of Mr. O. M. Madill at Altona, and as a manufacturer of the Black Diamond Plov Shares, which have become so popular in this district. It is not often an editor finds time for other pursuit than that of his newspaper, but the deceased was an exception to the common rule.

During the recent storm of a week or more ago when the blizzard was at its height, the wind carried off the roof from the driving shed on the farm of Albert Reesor, lot 26, concession 9, Markham. The chimney was also blown off the house, while some 20 square feet of shingles were heaved from the barn roof. With so much debris flying in the air, it must have resembled a cyclone, and someone might easily have been in grave danger of being injured but the family were all away to church when Old Mr. Westwind was tearing things loose. On the Tuesday following, the neighbors assembled at the Reesor farm for a bee, and restored much of the damaged property. It's a fine thing to live in a good neighborhood, thinks Mr. Reesor.

Next Sabbath is the 5th Sunday in Lent.

Doreen Hodgins is nursing a nasty cut on the fingers of her right hand, inflicted by a skater as she fell on the ice a few evenings ago.

Christ Church (Anglican) W. A. monthly meeting will be held today at the home of Mrs. Robt. Miller at 3 o'clock.

Potatoes are being shipped in car lots from Uxbridge, farmers receiving around $1.10 per bag for their tubers.

Mrs. W. B. Sanders was in Toronto last week attending the W. M. S. annual meeting of the Toronto Conference Branch.

Don't miss the story of Jean Valjean as given in the picture "Les Miserables", at Auditorium, March 28th, afternoon and evening, under auspices of the O.E.S.

Mrs. Fern Pearson was the happy recipient of many lovely cards, flowers and other gifts on her birthday March 18th. She takes this means of thanking the many friends who so kindly remembered her.

Under date of Feb'y 26th Ex-Reeve Silvester and wife indicate by post card to friends in town that they have reached Tunis, on the north coast of Africa, evidently having crossed the Mediterranean Sea from a coastal point in Italy.

"Trees, Shrubs, and Vines for Home Beautification and the Planting and care of the Farm Home Grounds," are the slides to be shown at the Auditorium on Thursday, March 29th, by the Horticultural Society. They have been enjoyed at other places, why not see them here? Everyone Welcome. Silver collection.

Ladies of the town are undertaking to do some needed work at the library, in the matter of repairing worn books. On Friday of this week, all women who can be requested to be on hand to assist in the work. Do not wait for a special invitation, but accept this notice as a direct appeal for your help.

On Saturday evening March 17th over twenty Senior pupils of Mr. T. W. Eagleson's Music class, held a skating party. After an enjoyable time spent at the local arena, Luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. A. Grubin. At the close of the evening a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Grubin and Miss Grubin for entertaining the class.

If the municipal fathers are really anxious to improve the appearance of the "flats" to the south of the village, why not take advantage of the government offer for free trees, which might be planted all along the roadway from the north to the south end of the property, and clustered about the dumping grounds. Trees of the ornamental designs might be obtained and put there to good advantage.

This week Howard McClure and family are moving from the farm in the 8th concession of Whitechurch, where they have lived for the past ten years, to lot 30 in the 5th concession of the same township, so that his market town will in future be Newmarket. It is like returning home for Mr. McClure to go back to the north end of the township, as it is the locality in which he formerly lived. The farm he is vacating will be worked by his neighbor, Fred Morton, in conjunction with his present farm.

It is estimated that more than 100 tons of cabbage are going to waste among the growers in vicinity of Stouffville. George Lewis of Markham Twp. has some 30 tons and other growers have similar amounts or less. Those who accepted $12 per ton last fall for their product, didn't have any cabbage head on their shoulders at any rate, says one of the growers who got from under Pass the sauer kraut. Please—

Farmers anticipate the coming of hydro to Goodwood, for last week Chas. Nendick, local electrician, wired the house and barns on the newly acquired farm of Harry Leadbetter, one mile east of Goodwood, known as the Lee farm of 50 acres. By preparing for the desired juice Harry indicates that he will not let the grass grow under his feet in the matter of keeping abreast of the improvements of the day.

We used to think that the chest notes of the auctioneer at a public sale were the only ones, and certainly the only ones that were capable of drawing the long-green, but the novel idea of a peanut vendor at these public auctions puts a new competitor in the field. P. Dike, of Markham Township is the peanut king of the hour, and he may be seen at all the big public auctions for which this section is noted, selling his wares. The peanut king sold last year in this manner no less than 1800 pounds of peanuts fresh roasted. When bulked together this would fill eighteen of the largest sacks. Judging by the shells on the ground broadcast after every sale, not many of the "hokey-pokey fresh roasted" goods found their way home to the children.

STOP! LOOK!—Never have such bargains been offered you before. A clearance sale of men's and boys' boots, dry goods, etc. Do not miss these bargains. 75 prs. boys fine and working boots, 40 pairs men's boots, also overalls, shirts, reduced in price.

Rev. Mrl Grier (Presbyterian) of Campbellford visited this week with his sister-in-law Mrs. Dr. Herbert Freel.

Rev. Wm. Booth, also Mrs. N. E. Smith, Toronto, and others were here Tuesday attending the funeral of the late Wm. Malloy.

With the unsettled conditions of the town water supply due to an accumulation of ice at the reservoirs, users were glad enough to get a clear draft from the well of a neighbor, if one happened to be within carrying distance. While the appearance of the water was not inviting from the taps, it is said to be quite safe for domestic use. On Tuesday the supply was normal again.

Stouffville has been well to the fore in oratorical contests being conducted throughout Ontario by the Star. Miss Janet Button, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Button of this town, who was successful in winning the competition in the local school recently, was called upon last week to enter the semi-final contest at Markham, for pupils throughout the local district including Newmarket. Janet again came out head, and on Saturday evening entered the contest held at Runnymede High School for the Championship of the Toronto district. In this school Mr. B. W. Clark is the principal, and Janet was successful in coming second to top, and thereby entitling her to the silver medal which she now proudly possesses. It must have taken a good speech on Canada's Future Greatness to win over the local orator, but the field was large and the contestants all very capable.

Congratulations, Janet, for upholding the colors of Stouffville School and keeping us in the limelight in such a laudable undertaking.

Dr. W. A. Summers, 169 Yonge St., Toronto, (formerly with Robt. Simpson Co.) Eye Specialist, will be at Yake's Jewelry Store every Thursday. Earphone demonstration. Free
