ILLEGAL TO SELL MINORS TOBACCO

Two dealers in Georgetown have been fined $5.00 and costs for selling cigarettes to minors. The magistrate in imposing the fine pointed out that the Minors Protective Act renders it unlawful to sell cigarettes to any child under eighteen years of age. This applies also to the sale of tobacco and cigars. If children are sent to stores for tobacco, cigars or cigarettes by their parents a written order must be sent with them on every occasion they are sent. Furthermore, the magistrate stated, no tobacco, cigars nor cigarettes may legally be sold to any one on Sunday. Dealers violating the law in respect to these matters are liable to penalties up to fifty dollars for the first offence.

PROTESTING AGAINST A HARDSHIP

A direct protest has been made to Premier King by the town of Cobalt in connection with the prosecution of several citizens for failure to make income tax returns. It is said that these men do not earn taxable incomes and to pay the fine of $25 would be a hardship. We hope the government will not prosecute in such cases. It seems a very foolish thing to force men to fill out a pile of forms to submit to the government when a person is not making enough money to have their income taxed. The government has ways and means of finding out what a man earns. When a man earns a taxable income and fails to make returns that is of course breaking the law, but why prosecute a man whose income isn't taxable because he didn't waste a lot of time answering nonsensical questions that would bring no revenue to the government?—Kincaidine Review-Reporter.

CARE OF NEGLECTED CEMETERIES

In going through the country one sees a great many cemeteries in very bad shape. There are no caretakers and the rank weeds grow almost as high as the tombstones many of which are on a greater degree of slant than the leaning tower of Pisa which would fall if a straight line from its centre of gravity did not fall within instead of outside the base of the tower. We would feel ashamed to have any of our loved ones in such unsightly surroundings. Happily the Ontario Legislature has taken action in regard to the care of God's acre. In the September number of the Municipal World the following questions are asked: "In this community there is a neglected cemetery which before Church union belonged to a church now closed, and at present, apparently, there is no one in charge. Is the municipality in which the cemetery is situated required to keep it in respectable condition? If so, what would be the necessary steps to take? If the municipality is not responsible, what would be the proper course to improve the conditions. The answer is: "The municipality is responsible if the owner can not be found, is unknown, or unable to attend to the cemetery. An owner who fails to maintain a cemetery is liable to a penalty of $10, and a further penalty of $5, for every day in which default continues. A council may pass by-laws for the maintenance, management, regulation, and control of any cemetery owned by the corporation, and make, by by-laws an annual grant to the present owner or a township cemetery board of from three to seven persons, appointed by by-law."

BLINDNESS NO HANDICAP TO THIS MAN

To be totally deprived of sight at the age of seven does not constitute a very promising introduction to a life of usefulness. Under such a heavy handicap many men would give up attempting to make their own way in the world. But such was not what Rev. Nell McIntyre did when he came out of a Glasgow Hospital, a number of years ago, totally blind. In spite of the darkness in which he was enveloped he completed his education and entered the gospel ministry. For twenty-three years he has been engaged in evangelistic work. For eight years he labored in a mission on the south side of Glasgow, and for twelve years he was associated with the "Albatross" Yacht mission work on the west coast of Scotland. He possesses a fine tenor voice, and is an accomplished musician. His lack of sight has proved no barrier to his becoming the author of many hymns some of which have been published under the title of "Broadcasting Chimes."

The people of Stouffville and neighborhood are to have the opportunity of hearing this widely-known man sing and preach, in the Sixth Line Baptist Church soon. On Sunday evening, Dec. 2nd, Rev. Nell McIntyre, "Scotland's Blind Evangelist" will begin a series of meetings at this church. Mr. McIntyre has just closed a successful campaign at a Toronto church.

NO LONGER IS HEIR TO BOYERS MILLIONS

Detroit, Nov. 22.—Under a circuit Court decision to-day, 5-year-old Dode Alfred Boyer, no longer is an heir to the millions of Joseph A. Boyer, chairman of the board of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company who until less than a year ago believed the child to be his grandson.

Circuit Judge Arthur Webster held, following a hearing, that Dode was only the adopted son of Mrs. Laura M. Boyer, daughter-in-law of the adding machine manufacturer, and that she had falsely represented the child to her husband, Myron L. Boyer, as his son.

The court voided the birth certificate of the boy as Joseph A. Boyer and decreed that he is not entitled to benefits of a $3,500,000 trust fund created by the multi-millionaire manufacturer for his son and "grandson."

This action ended almost a year of litigation over the legal status of Dode's heritage, following disclosure that he was born the son of an unwed Canadian girl in a Windsor, Ont. hotel in November, 1923, given by mother to Mrs. Boyer, and smuggled into the Boyer home here.

On the witness stand to-day, Mrs. Boyer readily admitted the deception she said it was carried out with the aid of a doctor and a nurse and that her purpose was to fulfill her husband's desire for a child and to hold the family together. The Boyers separated about two years ago, but there has been no divorce.

The nurse, Miss Mabel Barrett testified that she took the child from a physician's office to the Boyer home. The physician told her, she said that the infant had come from a hotel in Windsor, was an illegitimate child and had been adopted by Mrs. Boyer.

The suit heard to-day was brought by Myron L. Boyer, when he learned less than a year ago that the child was not his own.

When the deception was first made public, Dode was threatened for a time with not only being a child without a name or fortune, but without a country as well. Deportation action was threatened, but Mrs. Boyer obtained papers for his legal entry into this country and then legally adopted him and gave him his present name.

She said to-day she is satisfied with the court's decision. She plans to keep the child, she said, and educate him.

The Boyer referred to in the above article is a close relative to some of the Markham Twp. Boyers.

LEMONVILLE

Clarence Hood and Wilfrid Yake took in the fair last week.

Mrs. Thos. Spence spent a week in Toronto with her sister, Mrs. Kerr.

Mrs. John Brown and Walter, Miss Margaret Thomson and Miss Nora Macklem spent a day last week at the Royal Fair.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid will meet at the parsonage next Wednesday at 2.30 p.m. It will be the meeting for the election of officers for the New Year.

The church is making an extension by building a woodshed at the rear of the basement. This will be a great convenience in the winter season.

Messrs. Earl Cook and Gordon Lemon, two of our outstanding youths, were in Toronto last Friday night trying out their skates at the Arena.

Our public school was suspended last Thursday while Miss Thomson and Master Jack Barkey were in Toronto, where Jack participated in the public speaking contest at the Royal Fair. Lemonville is sure on the map.

Over 75 of the young men and others from the surrounding community who assisted in the Chirivari tendered Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, when they were the recipients of a nice crisp $10 bill about a month ago, turned the "tables" so to speak on the newly weds last week, when they assembled to the number of over a hundred, and presented them with a handsome clock. The evening was spent in happy enjoyment which was a splendid aftermath of the chirivari, considering that sometimes they land in the police court.

CLAREMONT

Congratulations to Ted Tomlinson on winning the first prize in the Public Speaking Contest at Whitby last Friday afternoon. The prize was a silver cup. This is the second cup Ted has won in speaking. Leona Slack also won second prize. There were 13 girls and 9 boys spoke at this contest.

Miss Helen Scott passed away on Sunday afternoon of last week after a long and painful illness, which she bore with great Christian fortitude. She was born on the old homestead in Pickering Township and has resided in this vicinity all her life, she was of an unassuming quiet disposition whose Christianity was that thoughtful, generous type which made her a host of friends and the better she was known the more she was loved. She is survived by three brothers (Wm. George, David A. and Robt., of Claremont, and three sisters, Mrs. Macnab of Toronto, Mrs. John Smith of Uxbridge, and Mrs. Dick of Saskatchewan, and her cousin, Miss Effie Miller, with whom she was a life long associate. Her remains were laid to rest in St. John's Cemetery on Tuesday. The funeral service, conducted at her late residence by the Rev. A. McLeod, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Stephens, of the Baptist Church, Claremont is better because she lived in it.

Send the Tribune to absent friends.

CHRISTMAS GOODS

ARE ARRIVING

Approaching

Advertisements are beginning to appear with decorations of holly and mistletoe and smiling faces of Santa Claus. To the observant these advertisements tell their own story, give their own warning, hint at the important business from which none is barred and in which sooner or later everybody will be engaged.

In other words, Christmas shopping. The holiday is little more than a month ahead, fewer shopping days than fit by a good deal. In no time these days will pass. The natural procrastinator will wait until Christmas Eve when store aisles will be jammed by other procrastinators, stocks picked out, clerks weary, customers in a flutter, clocks ticking time's rapid pace, all because the reminders of today have been neglected.

Every year more sensible persons do their Christmas shopping early. They reap all the advantages in variety of selection and leisure of choice and when Christmas Eve comes they can proceed about their last-minute holiday tasks orderly, while the others fume and sputter.

Canadians are a great people never to today what can be done tomorrow. The postmaster has urged early posting of Christmas mail, but the last days will probably be bigger than ever. The train leaves at 5.15 but the cars do not fill until 5.14. We got there even if we are a last-minute nation, but it is at a tremendous cost of physical energy and mental upsets. The Christmas shopping season is merely one phase of a national temperament. Guard against it by shopping early.

We still have a fine assortment of
