BY EDMUND SHELL ILLUSTRATED BY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Captain John Hewitt is Commissionhe intends to make of it." er of Police at Jesselton, British North Borneo. His beautiful sister, Monica Viney, is engaged to marry Peter Pen-, steady downpour as the two men rassnington, detective. Pennington is de- ed Clay's tent. tailed by the government to apprehend Chai-Ilung, leader of The Yellow Seven, a gang of Chinese bandits. Pennington is assisted by his chief-ofstaff, Rabat-Pilai, who hates the bandit chief bitterly. Pennington heads an expedition to capture Chai-Hung. They! move toward the bandit's latest hiding back.

NOW GO ON WI'H THE STORY

"Brought anything to sleep on?" "My boy is in sole possession of a tartan traveling-rug and a waterproof, low here-yes, by jove, with a knife sheet. The rug is inside the water- stuck in his back. Confound it, the proof sheet, so it's bound to be dry."

"Well, that's good enough, isn't it?" Dawson sighed heavily. "It would be, if I knew where the young idiot was. Unfortunately, we lest one another a decent while back ly. "He was dead right." and I've a notion at the back of my head he's made himsel. a bivouac somewhere out of the ground-sheet and is peacefully slumbering with my rug round his dirty shoulders." Pennington surveyed the other du- rican was blowing outside.

show tomorrow? How does the first It was close on three. storming party appeal to you?"

"It doesn't. I've put myself down already for the forlorn hope-when everything else has failed, and I've sufficient-confidence in you to refuse to believe in failure. How many of these things am I supposed to take?" "Three's a good number. Hello!

here's Clay." Dawson nodded toward the opening. "Evening, Clay!"

"Evening, Dawson! I say, Pennington, did you say the sign of the Yellow Seven was a warning of death?" "That's right, why?"

"Well, when I left you I walked straight to where I'd left my kit. The orderly had fixed up my tent and laid out my bed. It's a sleepin'bag, y'know, and he's never quite got the hang of it. I turned back the cover to see what! he'd done- and there was this under-

He dropped to the deal table a yellow Chinese playing card with seven black dots on the supper surface. Pennington picked it up.

"Good Lord! Have you tackled your man?"

Clay hook his head.

"That's the devil of it: I can't find him anywhere." Pennington strode to the opening and peered out. "Dawson had better stop here," he jerked back over his shoulder. "Clay, you and I'll embark upon a tour of Dusun gong. inspection. There's a weak point somewhere—and it's up to us to find

The district officer had drawn the blanket over his head until he resembled an Indian squaw.

"I suppose I'm in full charge while you're away and am at liberty to help myself to the bottle? While fully realizing the necessity for visiting outposts on the eve of battle, Penn, will excuse me I know if I suggest you've both got the wind-up for no-

The man at the opening swung round on his heel.

"How d'you make that out?" Dawson met his gaze without flinch-

"You're on the verge of tumbling Chai-Hung has succeeded in communicating with the outer world, it doesn't imply that he had to find a flaw in the line to do so. You're inordinately proud of your jungle telegraph. The Yellow Seven probably employ a system that is equally efficient. 'A friend beyond the charmed circle is communicated with. He drops a card casually in the enemy's camp -in a place where it can hardly fail to be noticed. Result-panic at G. H. two otherwise sane British officers engaging in the pleasant occupation of we've had for months!"

"Come on, Clay!" shouted Pennington, whose irritability had taken him out of earshot.

"Wait half a minute. - I fancy Dawson's on the right track."

"Oh!--what is it?". eral hours late. You remember I re- side. He thrust one into the magazine. marked on it. The runner was one of "Chai-Hung's still up there, I sup-

Chai-Hung's agents. He wormed his pose?". way up from the rear, using the mes- "As far as I'm aware, nobody's sage as his passport, slipped into broken out. I can't for the life of me Clay's tent and came on to you after- imagine what it was they smuggled ward. The bandit is a pretty subtle in. - It was evidently something, imbeast, you know, and there's nothing portant, because they weren't inclined to good as getting your opponent rat- to save rounds to secure its safety." tied at the start."

the hard lines vanished from Pen- I fancy I'll try a sortie with my own n con's forehead.

"The runner from Hewitt! I never thought of that! We'll interview Rabat-Pilai on our way round. I don't like the idea of that fellow wandering Dawson. about with all that information with .....d to our movements," remarked i ..... ngton. "He's in possession of a

R.W.SATTERFIELD prote signed by myself into the bargain. Heaven only knows what use

The deluge had given way to a

The taller man, who was following close upon Pennington's heels, stepped aside to avoid a stump and hit his foot against something soft and bulky. "I say, Pennington!-just a second."

He found Clay stooping over a prostrate form.

The other stopped and came slowly

"What's the matter?" "I'm not quite sure. There's a felmoon's gone in! Got a light?"

An electric flash-lamp threw a narrow silver ray. Clay came to his feet.

"Dawson was right," he said quiet-"Who is it?".

"My orderly-that's all!"

Dawson moved restlessly in his sleep, then sat belt upright. A hur- and, before Dawson could realize what

"Suppose I'll have to fix you up. was still in sole possession of Pen-What part d'you want to take in the nington's tent. He consulted his watch. by his wristwatch, then, crawling

He found Clay stooping over a pros-the wind-there wafted to his ears places under the hoods covering the the sound of rapid firing, a babel of engine. Forget it. They're all known. discordant cries, and something sear- Every one of them. False tops, false ed through the material above his head bottoms, even fake lamps. The cars with a spiteful, significant zip. And designed to carry supplies of rum in then-from somewhere close at hand quantity over the border are seized -came the deep droning note of a wheh found, impounded, and the owncer-and began lacing up his boots and depart sadder, wiser and dryer, the front wasitline. The most re- postal money orders; demurrage tunic and mackintosh, felt to see that thing seems to tell the average tourist manner in which it is made. Canton-livery parcels; punishment for those for the open.

the incessant rattle of musketry. And rive at the border on the way home No. 910. The applied band around still the deep-throated gong sent its large of hip, bulging of bosom and neck and down front is interesting

He splashed his way through the The deceit is pitiful and funny." trees, lit upon a bunch of bare-footed native soldiers that appeared to be taking no useful part in the affray. and led them in breathless haste toward the spot from which the alarm seemed to originate.

"Get down-all of you," he shouted into the neatest little trap our worthy of Clay, whose long legs trailed from bership). Secrecy has always and alantagonist has ever planned. Because behind a rock and whose cheek was most everywhere been the essence of ly, giving number and size of such pressed against a rifle-stock.

round on the far side at the only other case up to the Supreme Court. The it carefully) for each number and Clay's rifle spoke.

We've been at it for about an hour. Georgia, Pennsylvania and Alabama, Check Colds with Minard's Liniment. The enemy achieved a minor success legislation has been passed or vigorat the outset. Caught our rear de- ously pushed to compel it to unmask. fences nappin' and a dozen or so, Education, enlightenment the disil-Q., tons of mistrust everywhere and carryin' something on a pole, man- lusionment of multitudes of dupes, aged to squirm their way through and have robbed the Klan of its strength. join the main body. The Yellow Seven | The best safeguard against the retraitor-hunting on the wettest night opened up to cover their approach- crudescense of any such body is and we decided to attack." He fired simply strong light. again. "We're advancin' gradually! all along the line. I've promised to take the slope at the point of the bayonet before dawn."

He shouted to someone behind and a rifle was pushed against Dawson's "Just this," murmured the D. O. elbow. His eye fell at-the same mo-"The despatch from Hewitt was sev- ment upon a pile of clips at Clay's

He glanced behind him. "Your fel-The tall man nodded approval and lows should be pretty fresh by now. chaps-and you can follow with the second wave, moping up everything we've left behind."

"I'll toss you for it," suggested

"Be hanged to you!" laughed the

ISSUE No. 50—'28

Repairing Storm Ravages.

GIVING THE KING BACK HIS SWORD The famous statue of Richard Coeur de Lion in London lost its sword as a result of the recent hurricane.

was happening, Clay was gone with He rubbed his eyes and yawned. He thirty odd shadows flitting after him. Dawson waited fully five minutes > back, mustered his men. "Fix bayonets. Not a sound until I tell you. Spread out in skirmishing order and den't lose your heads!"

> Really fat people are often capable of astonishing feats! Dawson scaled the slope with the agility of an antelope. Wild-eyed, keen with enthusiasm to come up with Clay, he paused to round up those of the enemy that had escaped the initial onslaught. (To be continued.)

Chances Are Poor

Customs Men Curb Canadian Border Traffic

There is small hope in the use of a specially fitted automobile for smuggling liquor into the States across the Canadian border, because all the secret places on a motor car are known to the customs men, points out Richard Carroll in "Liberty Magazine."

"There is scarcely a dodge worked by the tourist that is new to the customs man, reports Carroll. "The wise tourists talk of spare tires, or seat Suddenly-borne on the wings of springs of dashboards and of good ers held in stiff bail. Among the little

ed. They come to the border going crepe, crepe Roma, georgette crepe, the mails by means of "blackmail," The night was alive with shadowy, into Canada slim of hip, flat of chest crepe Elizabeth, sheer velvet and and permission to hire motor vehicles flitting forms, with blazing torches, and guilty of countenance. They ar- sheer tweed are appreciated for Style from carriers for use in the service. warning message into the darkness. with innocence written all over them. made of contrasting fabric or color, into food. Now "board and rooms"

Ku Klux Klan

New York World: (The United States Supreme Court has upheld a New York decision making it compulsory for the K. K. K. to file their fully. -and fell on his hands almost on top constitution, oaths and lists of memthe Klan's strength; the value of sec- patterns as you want. Enclose 20c in "That you, Dawson? Pennington's recy explains why it has fought this stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap possible point for them to break Klan's decay and the decay of sec- address your order to Wilson Pattern recy have gone hand in hand. In Service, 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto. various States where it has been Patterns sent by return mail. "That was a beauty, Dawson, most dangerous, such as Indiana, black crepe satin, featuring the diag- were: A fee for inquiries made for onal closing bodice and circular flared patrons concerning registered, insur-"Hell!" ejaculated the District Offi- fellows, who pay a fine of $5 a bottle skirt in front, showing smart up-in- ed or collect-on-delivery mail and with nervous haste. He raked out his women are the chief offenders. Some- markable thing about it is the easy charges on undelivered collect-on-dehis automatic was there, and lunged that his women folk will not be search- faille crepe, wool crepe, dull flat silk attempting to extort money through or cut from the bias of fabric. Pattern can be taken literally. in sizes 16, 18, 30 years, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3 yards of 40-inch material with 1/2 yard of 30-inch contrasting. Price 20c in stamps or coin high. (coin is preferred). Wrap coin care-

HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS.

Vancouver and Montreal

Vancouver Sun (Lib.): Vancouver is proud of Montreal and proud of other Eastern cities, but Vancouver is looking to the day when Montreal and the East will be proud of Van-

SURGERY SAVED LIFE OF 1,000-YEAR-OLD TREE Giant yew-tree in the churchyard at Warblington, Hampshire, was in danger of dying, but the tree surgeons saved it.

"Orange Pekoe" is only the name given to a size of leaf—Some good, many poor, Orange Pekoes are sold—The most economical and yet the finest flavoured is "SALADA" Orange Pekoe-Sealed in metal pure fresh delicious 43c per 3-lb.

The U.S. Post

23,649,044 Letters and 461,-441 Packages Went Astray in United States Last Year

Washington - Results of an improvement and expansion program the postal service of the United are outlined by Harry S. New, Postmaster-General in his annual report to President Collidge, which noted an operating deficit of $33,363,148 for appears to justify his opinion that freely and at less risk. private enterprise can perform the work creditably.

The Postmaster-General recom-| New York Herald-Tribune: Time mended amendment of the March 8 was when the line of progress in comact under which contracts were let dur- munications seemed clear. All over ing the last year for transporting the the world canals replaced roads, and mails by air between New York and then railroads replaced canals. Every Montreal: Key West and San Juan town wanted at least a stub railway Porto Rico, and between Key West line. To-day many a stub railway line and the Canal Zone, asking authority has been abandoned, even in the to make contracts for routes between United States; and for local passenthe island possessions and foreign ger traffic, at least, many-railroads countries, between such island pos- find it cheaper to operate bus lines sessions, and over routes in foreign paralleling their own tracks than to countries.

"The fiscal affairs of the depart- The auto truck has changed the nament indicate careful and economical ture of the road. It is no longer a pair administration of the service," he of muddy ruts carrying lumbering said. "Notwithstanding the decrease horses slowly across a few bare miles. in the increase of postal revenues. The automobile on a concrete road under those of the preceding year | keeps pace with the train, and except the operating deficit increased at a for heavy freight in bulk it serves lesser rate per cent."

ture for postage was $5.11. A reductings. tion of $.5 per cent. in the number of undeliverable letters was noted, but these messages totaled 23,649,044 pieces. The decrease was ascribed to the department's campaign to induce mail advertisers to use envelopes bearing return addresses. Money found in dead letters or loose in the mails totaled $98,678 and 461,441 parcel post packages went unclaimed ...

A long list of recommendations for degislative action were made among them one to prohibit the sending of unsolicited articles through A distingiushed model of lustrous the mails for sale. Others asked

A German scientist converts wood

"These days," says a lecturer on cosmetics, "beauty is not always skin deep." No, and not always knee

The Neighborhood Store

Chicago News: There are still 1,-328,000 small retail dealers in the United States, so that it is rather wild for one to predict the disappearance of the neighborhood merchant. He has a place and a function in modern society. While he cannot afford to minimize the influence of chain-store competition, he need not despair or abdicate. To meet that competition, States, particularly in the air mail, as Dr. Klein says, he needs resourcefulness, enterprise, originality and cultivation of the personal and the human element in trade. The small shop has its own advantages and can other. "I'm in command here and I'm going to handle the first attack."

He blew a shrill blast on his whistle and, before Dawson could realize what Styles by ANNETTE The five-cent rate on letters sent by air was made effective since the date of the report, but Mr. New said part in building up the neighborhood that the contract air mail service and it can diversify its stock more retain them and even increase them.

Roads and Railways

run steam trains over the rails. ... the railroad's purpose even better. It. The average per capita expendi- delivers at the door, saving two reload-

Minard's Liniment for Acthma.

If your young here'ul uses bad words, don't wash lis mouth with soap and whip him westairs to bed-Chances are he will-grow up to be a. successful playwright.

WHEN IN TORONTO Eat and Sleep at SCHOLES HOTEL

Cafeteria and Short Order Service YONGE ST. Opposite Enton's ... Hotel Rates: $1 Per Day and Up.

AVOID WINTER ILLS AND DISCOMFORTS

SPEND WINTER IN THE WARM CLIMATE OF

The Gulf Coast

Rich in legend and history, Luxurious hotels, apartments and cottages. The Pan-American, all-Pullman train, leaves Cincinnati daily on The Flamingo and The 10:20 A. M. daily and arrives at Southland. Diverse route includes Gulf Coast points next morning.

New Orleans

Every day is "holiday"-every night is "carnival" in New Orleans. All sports. Historic shrines. Excellent hotels. World famous restaurants. Reached in less than 24 hours from Cincinnati on The Par-American.

Address ...

California

Florida

Splendid through train service

from Detroit, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Louisville

Gulf Coast one way. Same cost.

The most fascinating way to go "abroad at home" is to follow the sun to the Pacific Coast. The Pan-American connects with finest western trains at New Orleans. Liberal stop-overs allowed. No extra fares.

This Coupon

FREE INFORMATION AND SERVICE H. E. Porter, T. P. A., L. & N. R. R., 605 Transportation Bldg., Detroit, Michigan. Send me illustrated literature about: D Florida; D Gulf Coast;
D New Orleans; D California. Also quote winter fares.

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE R. R.