

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Yesterday, (Wednesday, Feb'y 14) Ash Wednesday, was the first day of Lent.

Woman's Day of Prayer this Friday. Public service in the Presbyterian church.

Some fellows drive their cars through Stouffville as if they feared they would not get there in time for the smash-up.

There will be more than 100 bills of divorce presented this session to parliament at Ottawa just from Toronto and district. Glad to say none of them are from Stouffville.

Rev. S. S. Shantz of the Mennonite Church has left for St. Thomas where he will conduct a special evangelistic campaign for the next two weeks; in the Mission church of that city.

The citizens of Stouffville and district are asked to keep in mind the annual Oratorical contest in connection with Stouffville Continuation School, to be held in Ratcliff's Hall, on Friday, Feb'y 22nd, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Wm. Leathers a former Stouffville farmer of the 6th, concession of Whitechurch, was in town last Friday. Mr. Leathers is farming near Norwich, and returned for the Miller sale at Ringwood, and to visit his brother-in-law, Mr. George Cook of Lemonville.

Josephine Perkins, widow of the late David Raymer, died on February 8th at her late home in Toronto, and was buried at Mount Pleasant cemetery. The deceased was a sister-in-law to Mr. Eli Raymer of this town.

The Oratorical Contest conducted by Stouffville Continuation School to be held on Friday Feb'y 22nd, will be held in the Assembly Rooms at the school, and not in Ratcliff's Hall as previously announced. All parents and the general public are asked to patronize this very worthy event.

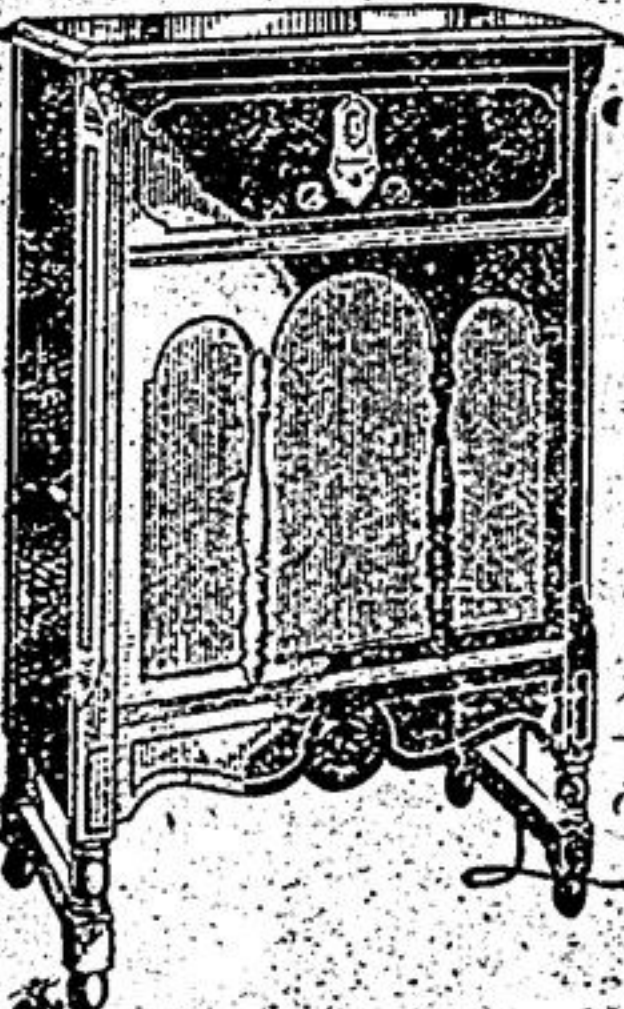

The United Farmers of Ontario, Stouffville Branch, will hold their Annual Oyster Supper and Entertainment in Ratcliff's Hall, on the evening of Wednesday, Feb'y 20th, 1929. The charge for admission will be $1.50 for each head of family, one dollar of which shall go to pay the 1929 membership fee. All other adults males will pay an admission fee of fifty cents. Ladies will please provide baskets of eats.

Easter Sunday falls this year on March 21st.

Mr. Len. Vanzant, the veteran barber, who gave up his occupation only last year, has not improved in health, and is in danger of losing his eyesight.

St. Valentines Carnival in Stouffville Arena, Thursday, Feb'y 14th. See bills for details and list of valuable prizes. Stouffville band in attendance.

The Women's Annual Interdenominational Day of Prayer will be held in the Presbyterian church, on Friday, Feb'y 15th, at 3 o'clock. All women will be made welcome.

The members of the Garrett Mission Circle and the Choir of the United Church presented Miss Charlotte Ponton with a Bible and French Ivory toiletware on the eve of her departure last month for London, Ontario.

Writing from the home of her daughter in Indiana, Mrs. J. B. Wurts says they have had a great deal of flu down there, and she concludes her short letter with these words, "I love to get the Tribune each week."

Trucks from Toronto are invading the Ballantrae section and hauling out potatoes for which the farmers are receiving only 45c. per bag. Until a week ago the price paid was 50c. Who had the nerve to take off the five cents?

Friends in Stouffville will be sorry to learn of the death at Queensboro of Mr. Walter J. Osborne, who was principal of our Continuation School for some time. The deceased left here nearly 15 years ago to take a similar position in Beaverton. His death took place on February 4th, in his 80th year.

The store one door east of the public library is being newly decorated in readiness for the new tenant, Miss Bertie Raymer, who will shortly open with a new line of ladies' ready-to-wear hats, lingerie, gloves, hosiery, notions and a special any feature each week end, of choice fresh vegetables. Miss Raymer is quite well known in this her home section, and will undoubtedly receive liberal patronage, as she is providing for a modern store in every particular.

Falling on the slippery ice at the United Church one day last week, Mr. Nathan Forsyth fractured several ribs. Mr. Forsyth says he has had many a fall, and for years worked on ice, but he never experienced anything like this accident, when his feet insisted on getting above his head. This is the second serious casualty on Church street this winter, but we are glad to report Mr. Forsyth is able to be about, although he is all tied up like a Christmas parcel.

Writing from Didsbury, Alberta, to renew his subscription to the home town paper, Rev. I. Burkholder states: "We surely enjoy getting the home paper. We have had very cold weather this past month, the thermometer reaching as low as 56 degrees. Some people refer to our country as sunny Alberta, but it didn't feel very sunny last month." The Tribune is delighted to hear from old residents now living in western Canada, because we know the folks at home enjoy reading of them through the newspaper.

FOR SALE—Large comfortable robe Mrs. J. McKinnon, Phone 6613.

A nice snow fall last Friday renewed the sleighing which was becoming very thin in spots.

Miss Fanny Closson of Highland Creek is spending a couple of weeks with Margery Mertens.

Mr. Samuel Hisey, Clark street, was taken to the Wellesley Hospital last week, but has since returned home. Mr. Hisey has been in poor health of late.

Ratcliff & Co. are installing a large frigidaire in their grocery store this week, which will prove a great boon to the preservation of foodstuff in the hot weather, and enable this firm to renew the last word in service.

The Stouffville Junior Women's Institute will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Miss Margaret Simpson, on Thursday, Feb'y 21st. The program will include addresses by Mr. Whitcombe, Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Graves as well as other musical selections. All young ladies cordially invited.

Cows sold up to $140 at J.A. Hawtin's cattle sale in Stouffville last Friday. In fact none of them dropped below the hundred mark. Herb Jarvis of Markham took the top notch cow at the $140 figure for a nice Ayrshire heifer. The 25 head were all disposed of in one hour and 20 minutes by Auctioneer Silversides for a total of $2,800.

Mr. Herb Porter, rural courier on route No. 2 and 4, Stouffville, has put a very comfortable cab into service that will be highly appreciated in stormy or cold weather. Closed cabs for rural route drivers are becoming quite the custom throughout Ontario. In addition to affording comfort, they give added protection to the mail from wet and snow.

The regular monthly meeting of the Senior Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. H.J. Malloy on Wednesday, Feb'y 20th at 2.30. Paper—"Break the Monotony or Break the Homemaking". Mrs. Simpson; reading—Mrs. L. Hare; Notes on the League of Nations, Miss S. Stewart; Music. Roll call answered by use for old stockings. Social hour; all ladies are made welcome at our meetings.

A pleasant evening was spent Tuesday night of last week at the home of the Misses Neal (west end), in the form of a pot-luck supper by the Garrett Mission Circle. After every one had done justice to the tempting viands, the young ladies presented Mrs. J. M. Storey (nee Fanny Morgason), one of their charter members with a rose colored cut glass sherrbert set in honor of her recent marriage. Mrs. Storey replied in a pleasing manner, after which all sang, She's a Jolly Good Fellow and Auld Lang Syne.

On Monday next, Mr. W. H. Shaw will enter on his 20th year as a merchant in Stouffville. His first business was established in the Silverster block, but after ten years there he bought out the Huntley store, the largest in town, and ever since has carried on a successful general store on a large scale. To commemorate the anniversary, Mr. Shaw is conducting a one-week sale, Feb'y 13th to 23rd, and declares he will offer such snaps as will be fitting the event.

Two real estate deals were closed in town last week of considerable proportion. Mr. Hugh Clark sold the Booth farm adjoining the Stouffville public school to Mr. David Moyer, who in turn sold his frame house next to Mrs. Jas Hand's residence to Mr. David Smales. Mr. Clark acquired the Booth property last spring, and thus took off only one crop. Mr. Clark has not yet decided what he will do since he is to be off the farm. We understand Mr. Moyer will take possession early in the spring when he will move across the street.

A former citizen and native born girl of Stouffville, Josephine Edna Lloyd Sutherland, died on February 7th, at Chicago, and the remains were brought to Newmarket for burial. The deceased will be well remembered by many of our readers. She was a daughter of the late Dr. Lloyd and was born in the house now occupied and owned by Mr. A. S. Collins in the east end. She was the wife of the late A. Sutherland, former post office inspector, and was known here as a girl of bright, jovial disposition. It is, of course, quite a number of years since the deceased left Stouffville.

There passed away at Daytona Beach, Florida, on February 6th, Dr. William Lehman, in his 76th year. The funeral on Tuesday this week took place to Woodstock and was attended from here by Mrs. Cliff Pipher, a niece to the deceased. The late Dr. Lehman was born at Ringwood, and it was his usual custom each summer to spend a short holiday among old friends in this section. He was here last spring as usual, and enjoyed the customary holiday. The late Abram Lehman of O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville, was a brother to the deceased, and he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Brown of Toronto.

Wednesday, Feb'y 20th—U. F. O. annual supper.

The Stouffville Creamery Co. have recently added a fine new two-ton truck to their service for cream gathering.

LOST—Yellow colored horse blanket on townline west of Stouffville. Finder kindly leave at Tribune, Robt. Spofford.

The Horticultural Society are pleased to say they have to date about 110 members, but still want more to meet their objective of 200.

Earl A. Grubin, R.O. Eyesight Specialist, at Stouffville, from Wednesday to Saturday of each week, and every evening. Phone 2405.

This is the final reminder for the Choral Class Concert to be rendered this Friday evening. The choral will consist of over 30 members, and will be assisted by Mr. Antony Remouch, violinist.

The local ice harvest is commencing to arrive from the surrounding ponds and lake, and good clear cakes of 16 inches are being stored. With no less than four frigidaires in town less ice will be required than usual.

The annual ice race will be held at Bond Lake on Saturday, Feb'y 16. Racing commencing at 2 p.m. sharp. There will be a farmer's race and a free-for-all. Be sure and come, and enjoy the sport.

Western horses were sold in Uxbridge last week at an average price of $154 for the carload. They were shipped from Western Canada by Frank Orchard, a former resident of Reach Township.

Miss M. Mertens, Mrs. T. Rae, Mrs. Peter Lehman and Mr. H. O. Klinck will attend the annual meeting of the Ontario Horticultural Societies to be held in Toronto on Thursday and Friday this week. The first three are local delegates.

A previous reference in these columns to bank "charges" being increased has been construed by someone to mean an advance in interest rates. This, of course, is not the case. The charges referred to were those imposed for cashing cheques, etc. In this regard there is really no advance either, but merely a stiffening up on cashing cheques without making a charge. Time was when banks very often cashed small cheques on out-of-town branches free, but try to get one cashed at that rate today—

GOODWOOD

The steam shovel crew have shut down in the gravel pit.

The fresh snow has made some of the roads unpassable for motoring.

The Rev. Mr. Harden occupied the pulpit in the Baptist church on Sunday.

H. Leadbetter, our new grocer, will give a new hat to any one purchasing $10 worth of goods in one day.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Grinky of Roseau, Muskoka, are spending a few holidays with relatives and other friends here. They were former residents, Mrs. Grinky being Miss Frances Kellington.

Word was received last week from Lansing, Mich., of the death of Mrs. John Saunders, a former resident of this place. Her husband predeceased her while living here some twenty-five years. The family occupied the house now owned by Mark H. Roach.

S. Ottowell and Mrs. Geo. Brown, also Mrs. Wm. Haynes, are on the sick list, while Mrs. Robt. Ashenurst is seriously ill. Mr. Jos. Middleton is improving.

A very happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eleazer Forsyth, Goodwood, on Feb'y 12th, it being the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. The bride of 50 years looked charming in a gown of black satin. She was formerly Jemima Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth are enjoying splendid health and all of their married life has been spent on the same farm. The house was pleasantly decorated with their gifts of beautiful flowers. Of a family of eight, six were present, namely Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wagg, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Forsyth, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kendrick, Mrs. J. R. Foote and Mrs. C. W. Watson, each accompanied by their families. During the afternoon the bridal couple were presented with 50 daffodils by Doris Foote, a granddaughter and two Chesterfield chairs by the family. A beautiful expressed address was read to the honored couple.

Friday, Feb'y 15th—The Choral Society concert.
