It is currently rumored on the street that the Dominion Stores will move this spring into the building adjoining Boatway's Drug Store, and now used as a Chinese Cafe. On making enquiries, The Tribune, understands nothing definite has been done in the matter, but the proposition is under serious consideration. Mr. Boatway, who recently purchased this property from the Urquhart estate, will remodel the interior and put in a modern store front, with dwelling above where the manager of the Dominion Store might reside should that concern lease the premises.

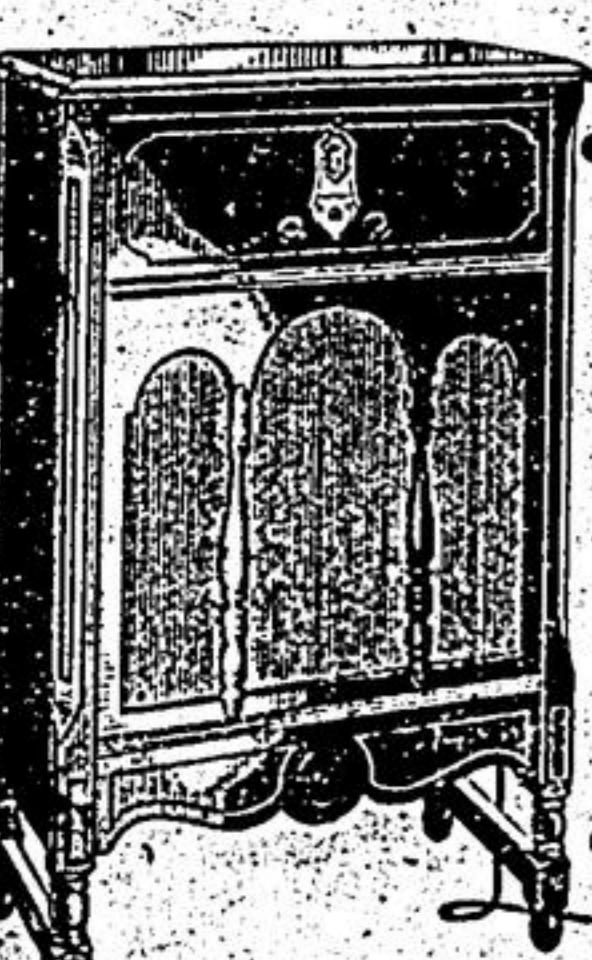

When the new chemical fire fighting apparatus arrives for the Stouffville Brigade, we ought to have an up-to-date equipment for fire fighting, for this year the municipal council has expended $555 to replenish the rubber coats, boots, etc., at the fire hall, and also $540 for chemical apparatus a total of nearly $1100. We hope that the town will be free from fires in the future years as it has been in the past, but we must be prepared for emergencies.

Most remarkable case of ready wit was pulled off in a local restaurant the other day. A customer found a small button in a salad which had been served him. Mentioning it to the waiter, that individual said, "the button must have dropped off when the salad was dressing."

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Gilroy, 79, widow of George Gilroy, of Forest, Ontario, died on Thursday last at the residence of her son George E. Gilroy, 309 Rushton rd., Toronto, after a long illness. She was born at Whitelock, and lived many years at Forest. On the death of her husband 15 years ago she located in Toronto. Surviving are two sons, Morley and George E. Gilroy, both of Toronto.

People who wish to be informed on world events, as it relates to disarmament of nations, and all who are opposed to war should take the opportunity to hear the speakers in the United Church next Monday evening. At a similar meeting in Uxbridge two years ago 1400 people turned out. There is no admission fee, but a collection will be lifted to defray expenses.

The remains of the late Charles W. Sweet, a veteran of the Great War was laid to rest in Stouffville cemetery last week, beside those of his departed parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Sweet who were residents of this place only a part of one year in 1917. The late Chas. Sweet died in London, Ontario and is survived by a wife and only daughter. He was engaged as branch manager for a well known insurance firm in London. The Sweet family came to Stouffville from Toronto in war days, owing to ill health of Mr. Sweet, who died after a residence here of less than a year. His wife later passed away. The late Chas. Sweet who was buried last week was a nephew of Mrs. Gerrow, Church Street.

We also wish to express appreciation to our former neighbors who so kindly drew our wood this winter. We appreciate this very much. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Turner.

The new Stouffer bungalow is modern and up-to-date in every particular, and the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Stouffer wish them long life and happiness to enjoy it.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Forsyth on the 9th concession of Whitchurch was alive with music and good cheer one evening last week when the neighbors and friends from the countryside gathered to wish them goodbye on the eve of their moving over to the townline to the home of Mr. Forsyth's father John McLaughlin, Edgar and Delmer Kidd provided the orchestral music which certainly kept the party alive to the evening's enjoyment.

One fine afternoon last week Dr. F. A. Dales walked into the Tribune sanctum with a face as ruddy and fresh as a young babe. The doctor was making his first social call in three months, for in all that time he had been confined to the house and was in a serious condition about Christmas time. He is not by any means recovered, but friends in town will be glad to know that he was able to be out for a cutter ride.

Win. Harper has lost one of his valuable grey horses from the fine team which are so much admired about town. We haven't learned whether death was caused from too high living, and too little work, or from some other cause. In any event they were a team hard to beat, and the lost grey won't find a better home in the happy hunting ground" than she had at Bill Harper's.

The time for the renewal of post office boxes is fast rolling around again, which causes people to ask why do householders in large towns, farmers, and city folk get their mail carried free to their door, while villagers must go to the post office for their mail, and pay in the bargain $2, $3, and $5 for a box which is as great a convenience to the post office as to the patron? It is an injustice that has long been maintained in Canada, but probably our legislators will one day wake up to the situation, and grant the matter of free delivery for villagers at the post office in any event.

Last Thursday at 2 o'clock Alexander Bruce, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Lloyd, 10th concession of Whitchurch, succumbed to a disease which had for a long time sapped the energy and strength of the lad. He was only 23 years of age and was a boy of kindly heart, and respectful manner. The funeral on Saturday took place to Stouffville cemetery. Only last July Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd lost another son through the same malady, and the sympathy of all goes to them in their double anxiety. Besides the parents two other sons, one younger and one older than Alexander Bruce, and one sister survive.

Last week Reynolds Pratt sold his 50-acre farm on the 7th concession of Whitchurch, just north of Lemonville, to Wm. Spence, son of the well-known John Spence of the 6th concession of the same township. This is the first venture for William in real estate of this nature, but he is looked on as a young man who will make good on this place. The sale price is reported as a little on the shady side of $3000. Mr. Pratt who intended to return to his old haunts near Collingwood, has rented a vacant house on the James Phillips property for the present.

On Sunday evening in the United Church a laymen's service was held, which was very well attended. Mr. A. J. Ward delivered the sermon, and Dr. D.C. Smith a short address, while Mr. G.R. W. Thomas led in prayer and read the scripture lesson. Mr. Edw. Davey was chairman, and a men's choir rendered the music. Lay-preachers are not common today among many of the denominations, such as they were 25 years ago in the former Methodist church. The Mennonites have been able to retain the unordained speakers to a greater extent probably than any of the other organizations in the Christian work.

One evening last week the members of the Horticultural Society took their past president by storm when they called at his home on O'Brien Avenue, and took possession for a couple of hours. Over 25 were present, and Mr. Klinck although aghast with surprise extended a cordial welcome. Messrs. F. L. Button and the new president Mr. J. Hodgins, explained in neat speeches the object of the meeting, which was to show their good will and high appreciation of the service rendered by Mr. Klinck in the interests of the town through the society during the years he had served as president. Mr. Klinck was then presented with a fine leather brief bag, when he too made a speech to endeavour to express the great surprise that was his, and the high appreciation he felt on being honored in this manner. The ladies brought along cake and sandwiches. It is such acts of kindness which make up life's joys, and which encourage us to better and greater service.
