The history of Providence Baptist Church which was recently recorded in this paper as written by Mr. Jas. H. Ratcliff, has since been printed in booklet form and a sufficient number of copies are available for those interested to secure one through the church officials, or from the pastor, Rev. W. S. Whitcomb.

Beautiful Easter Novelties in pure candy at Porter's, including Hunt's famous packages.

Ready-to-wear and made-to-measure spring overcoats now showing at F. E. Rae's tailoring shop.

Markham curlers wound up the season with an oyster supper served in the rink building last week. The dumb oyster was probably calculated to quiet the rock pushers down to normal for the summer season.

On Friday last week The Tribune mailing list was corrected to that date, and all renewals received up to that time should be credited on the labels. If you find your label is not correct kindly phone us and have the matter adjusted. All who have not renewed their paper are requested to call as early as possible to do so.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Silvester who are spending some months in California, have left San Diego, and are now located at Hollywood where they are staying at the Halifax Apartments Hotel. Some time in April the Silvesters intend to motor back to Canada, when they will locate at their summer home near Keswick.

Mrs. S. S. Ball, Mrs. W. J. Mather and Miss J. Birkett attended the O. E. S. carnival in Markham on Friday night where they assisted in judging the costumes for the Markham Chapter of the O.E.S. Owing to the spring-like weather and the heavy rain that evening, the carnival was not well attended. Among the prize winners were a couple of bathing beauties, who for appropriateness were eligible to a prize.

Stouffville used more hydro during the month of February just passed, than in any previous month since it was installed here four years ago. The peak showed 131 h.p. which cost $659. Unfortunately our peak always occurs at night and in the day time we have a great deal of idle power on the lines which if it could be sold to some customer, would be like so much found money. Some effort should be made by the municipal council to induce more day-time users of electric current.

There are those who thought the local funeral director was something of a Scotchman, but from the manner in which he celebrated the 17th of March, there is some of the Emerald Isle lurking in his veins. He was the only man in town to recognize the 17th by displaying a clay pipe with a green ribbon tied to the stem. If W. J. had only finished off with the silk hat, he would have been an excellent design for one of those picture post cards, all done up in green, and entitled "St. Patrick".

The Band of Willing Helpers of the Presbyterian church are planning to hold a sale of Home-made Baking on March 30th.

Brathwaite's Hardware announce that after April 1st their store will be open on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, closing on Wednesday at noon.

A complimentary banquet and presentation of a silver desk set was tendered ex-Mayor J. M. Walton of Aurora, by the members of the town council of Aurora.

COMING—Dr. F. E. Luke, Optometrist, 167 Yonge St., Toronto's able Eyesight Specialist may be consulted about your eyes for glasses at Jacob Boardway's Drug Store, Stouffville, Thursday, March 28th. My frames and lenses are the best money can buy.

A case of measles has been reported to the local Board of Health this week. There are said to be several cases in the surrounding district, and as the disease is a communicable one, parents should watch closely for symptoms of it.

There was a happy gathering at Dickon's Hill on Monday evening of this week when the young people of the Stouffville, Dickson Hill and Mt. Joy Mennonite churches tendered a shower to Miss Agnes Warkentin in honor of her approaching marriage to Mr. Wesley Wideman, son of Mr. Martin Wideman. The engagement which is to consummate in marriage today (Thursday) was announced from the pulpit in the Mt. Joy church on Sunday last according to the custom of the Russian church to which the bride-elect formerly belonged, and to the old German custom in the Mennonite church.

Mr. T. Miller who travels for the Scarboro Gardens happened, in the pursuit of his work last week, to call at the greenhouses of Muston & Sons where he encountered one of the workmen, Wm. Gower, when both men gasped and then heartily shook hands. They had known each other when small lads, but had not met since the days they played marbles together at the age of 12 years. This was 36 years ago, but Old Father Time who changes even the landscape, hadn't changed these two individuals to the extent that they did not recognize each other.

Mr. Robt. Curtis received word Wednesday last week of the death of his sister Lydia Jane, wife of W. B. Martin of Roland, Man. Both Mr. and Mrs. Martin were taken seriously ill while visiting a married daughter near their own town. After only a few days illness Mrs. Martin passed away in her 75th year. She was born at Mongolla, eldest daughter of the late R. Curtis. At one time her husband taught school at Almira; but some 20 years ago, the family moved to Roland where they conducted a farm. Three years ago Mrs. Martin visited the old home section. She is survived by six children besides her husband, and also by one sister, Miss Ruth Curtis of Toronto, and by three brothers, Arthur Curtis of Kent County, David of Regina and Robt. of Stouffville. Interment took place at Roland. The many friends of the Curtis family will be sorry to learn of their bereavement.

The Old Age Pension bill was introduced into the Ontario Legislature last week, and will likely become law next November. While the details of the act are not yet handed out by the government certain conditions in regard to it are fairly well known. It is expected that those who are eligible for government aid will be persons over 70 years of age without visible means of support. Persons with partial assistance such as one who owns a house, but has no income, will receive less. Just what the government will grant is not certain, but whatever the sum the Dominion Government will pay 50% of the amount expended, the Ontario Government 30%, and the municipality in which the person receiving aid lives will be compelled to contribute the remaining 20%. Last summer the government sent out a questionnaire to municipal clerks as to how many persons in the municipality were without means of support, and the reply was sent back by the local clerk, Mr. J. S. Dougherty, that there were none so far as was in his knowledge. Probably on a careful canvas of the local situation, there will be found those right in Stouffville, who would come under the provisions of the proposed Act, but if not, then so much the better for Stouffville. There are in Markham and Whitchurch Townships and in Uxbridge Township quite a few who will likely qualify for Old Age Pensions.

Porter's Easter packages will delight all lovers of candy.

Farmers who are in need of work horses will have a chance to get in their olds next Friday afternoon when the western car load of farm raised animals belonging to William Klinck will be sold at Stouffville. The sale will open at 1.30 sharp.

On Friday evening the newly organized Prentice Boys of Stouffville held an euchre in the Orange Lodge rooms at which some forty people were in attendance. The ladies provided luncheon following the playing of games during the evening, and a happy and enjoyable time is reported. Mr. A. E. Weldon, the west end shoe merchant is the official head of the Prentice Boys of Stouffville.

Earl A. Grubin, R.O. Eyesight Specialist, at Stouffville from Wednesday to Saturday of each week, and every evening, Phone 2405. Any person whose eyes I have examined and supplied lenses or complete spectacles, enjoys the privilege of calling on me at any time to have their glasses straightened, tightened and expertly adjusted free of charge providing no parts are missing. The frames and lenses that I supply are the best obtainable and the prices are reasonable.

On Monday night the Young People's Society of the Stouffville St. James' Presbyterian church was at home to a number of guests, including the Markham young people. The event took the form of a St. Patrick's party under the capable direction of Miss Luella Holden and Miss Mary Brodie. An enjoyable evening was spent playing Irish games and contests, after which luncheon was served by the members of the local society.

Mrs. Samuel Kefferin, life-long resident of Stouffville and a sister of Abram and Jacob Yake, who has of late years made her home in Toronto with her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Lundy, had the misfortune about three weeks ago to fall, breaking her right shoulder. Mrs. Kefferin was recovering nicely when just a week ago she fell again sustaining a fractured hip on the same side as the other injury. Mrs. Kefferin is in her 84th year, and the doctor has little hope for her recovery as her age is against her.

Thieves at the point of a gun secured the pay roll meant for the workmen of the Metropolitan Church, Toronto, and a city youth identifies one of the suspects as a party to the robbery. A few days later the youth is kidnapped and taken to the city limits where he is roughly handled and threatened with his life if he gives further information. The daily press of Toronto published the lad's name, address and even his picture right after the robbery, thus making him an easy target for the ruffians. If those city editors were endangering their own lives as they do others, when they hand out such information, consideration would be given to the manner in which they report such cases. The fact that the boy's story was later discredited, and that he was not beaten by thugs, does not alter the situation in which he was placed through exposure by the newspapers.

The Stouffville Women's Liberal Association held their regular monthly meeting at the home of the President Miss Sangster, on Tuesday evening, 12th inst., with a goodly number in attendance. All enjoyed the splendid program. A most interesting and instructive talk on aviation was given by Miss C. Wideman. The musical numbers rendered by Mrs. Geo. Lee and Miss Agnes Klinck were greatly enjoyed. The association are expecting their April meeting to take the form of a social gathering of Liberal men and women with their Provincial Leader Mr. W. E. N. Sinclair as the guest of honor and speaker. This meeting to be held early in April. Please watch for further announcement. Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mrs. Borinsky and Miss Edith Sangster were delegates to the Ont. Women's Liberal Association executive held in Toronto the last of February.

The Women's Institute of Ontario have been an active body of women doing much for the communities in which they carry on their operations by urging for better living conditions, better surroundings in the way of having towns and villages beautified, old cemeteries cleaned up that greater respect may be shown to the memory of the pioneer, and in a hundred other ways seeking to remedy little matters that by most people are overlooked. Now the Kitchener Record suggests that they take up the matter of protesting against the cruelties attendant upon the shipping of live stock, it having been discovered that animals are being mercilessly beaten and bruised and starved and tramped to death by thoughtless and indifferent men. Even in Stouffville we have seen cattle pounded and bruised when driven along the street, by heartless persons, as though the animals had no feeling, while others will drive them in trucks on the coldest days without proper protection from the weather.
