Sunday School Lesson

January 12. Lesson II, Baptism and my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased,-Matthew 3: 17.

ANALYSIS.

I: THE BAPTISM, 3: 13-17. II. THE TEMPTATION, 4: 1-11.

life of Jesus between his birth and Father. public ministry. The only incident given is that which describes his journey to Jerusalem, and his conversation Prince of Wales with the doctors of the law when he was about twelve.

I: THE BAPTISM, 3: 13-17. V. 13. The praching of John the Baptist had created a profound impres- Jungle Adventure and Hunsion on the people of the land. It was felt that a new religious leader had appeared, and that the promise of God was now to be fulfilled. Jesus would naturally hear of this great revival, and he decided that he must take some

V. 14. However, John seems to feel

V. 15. Jesus tirges John to baptize ness. him: but from this we must not infer that Jesus was conscious of sinfulness, or that he wished to confess his need of repentance. Jesus knew no sin, The reason which he gives is that this what his movements will be. in all that is common to man. This is an instance of the complete self-dedication and self-sacrifice of Jesus. This is also an illustration of the law that messianic love."

V. 16. At this moment of self-sur- At Capetown he will stay at Govand the spirit descends like a dove, in Countess of Athlone. This is a long tish Parliament reached the point of tween the natives of Africa and such mold, brush the potate shell with the the spirit had never visited Jesus beequips him for the great mission of had it not been for the King's illness. for many years in other countries; in the Messiah for which he has been

V. 17. The voice from heaven ex- the lion country in East Africa. resses the entire satisfaction which God has with his Son. Jesus is now conscious of his great work. Henceforth the way is clear before him, and he will not turn to the right or left. dedicate their lives to noble service. northward as possible by motor-car. This is what we have to study in the Temptation. In the Gospel of John we find further and important teaching on the subject of the baptism. See

II. THE TEMPTATION, 4: 1-11.

V. 1. This is one of the very significant events in the life of Jesus, and has at all times greatly interested thoughtful students of the Bible. Jesus had learned at the Baptism that he was to fulfill the office of the Messiah and the question inevitably arose as to the way in which he was to accomplish this. He goes out into the solitude of the desert to think over the matter, and then temptations gather that he loves his wife?" round the subject of his mission. These three temptations that come rep- to him." resent the different ways by which he might carry on his task. But they are all finally rejected, because they are not according to the will of God. Jesus has, as his guiding-star, to do the will not downward or backwards. The the accumulation of filth was overof his Father.

stones into bread, and this may mean moves them forward and to blessed pitching of the ship in a rough sea that it was suggested to him that he should be a social reformer, bringing bread to the hungry, and healing to be a noble enough work for some, but confectioner's. Said the rather pomp-driven almost mad by thirst. Nor was not for him, since he could not be ous proprietor to them: "And what it only on board ship that the wretchsatisfied with giving material help. de you want, my dears?" "Two six- ed slave had to suffer. In order to Man cannot live by bread alone. He penny packets of chocolate, please." secure a supply of slaves on the West knows that the soul of man is of in- As he was serving them he asked African coast it was necessary to stir finite value, and Jesus must try to them what were their names and how up trouble in the interior; tribe fought bring men back to God, in whom alone old they were. They told him that againt tribe, and the captive victims we find eternal rest.

that he should use his miraculous gifts is your birthday, Jean?" he inquired. "Those who survived the voyage to impress the people, that he hould go "On October the tenth." "And yours, across the Atlantic were condemned to forth as a wonder-worker, and thus Mary?" "On October the tenth, too." a life of misery. One writer records compel the admiration of the world. "Then you must, of course, be twins." that in provinces in Brazil 'a flogging It is perhaps possible that the pinnacle "Oh, no, we aren't," they replied in for nine successive days is an orditire system of the old priesthood, and unison. Then if you are not twins, nary punishment. He adds that Jewish officials, and work along with them. But this he rejects. Va. 6, 7. In the last temptation Jesus is carried in sision to the top of a high mountain, and sees the glory of the world, chiefly the marvels of the Roman Empire, which has its soldiers in every land, which is able to dictate Temptation of Jesus-Matthew 3: laws to mankind, and whose force none 13 to 4: 11. Golden Text-This is can withstand. Jesus wonders whether he might not work in peace with Rome. Instead of antogonizing the Emperor, could he not come to terms with this mighty ruler, and use their help to spread his own teaching of the kingdom? But this would be treason against God. He cannot use the forces INTRODUCTION - The Gospels are of the world. He must rely on spiritpractically silent on the events of the ual influence. He must trust the

Plans Lion Hunt

ter's Life For Six Weeks

London.-Plans are now maturing for the Prince of Wale's African tour, part in it, either to show his sympathy which begins early in the New Year. with it, or else to carry it farther on. Formalities are to be dispensed with 'Accordingly he goes to the Jordan as far as possible, and the royal travwhere John was baptizing crowds of eller will live as a hunter among the people, and he presents himself as a hunters, sitting at the same camp fires and sharing the same food.

The democracy of the jungle will that there was something about this claim for him six glorious weeks, and others, and he therefore hesitated. in shorts and open-neck shirt he will Raptism to him was the symbol of seek to bag those animals—the elerepentance, and John did not think phant, the rhinoceros, the buffalo, and that Jesus belonged to this class of the lion-which eluded his gun during He, therefore, opposes the the last year's visit, dramatically curtailed by the news of the King's ill.

"The Prince's program will be very elastic one," said a member of the Prince's household recently, "and neither was guile found in his mouth, it is impossible now to say precisely is a part of the righteous plan laid "Captain Denys Finch-Hatton, down for him. Jesus is one with his brother of the Earl of Winchilsea, brethren, he has come to seek and save who is a big-game hunter, and who them, and to do so he must take part conducted the Prince's big-game hunting last year, will again be in charge."

Provisional arrangements have been made for the Prince to sail from he who would have others must be one Southampton for South Africa on the Great Britain and with them. It was "a sacrament of Union-Castle liner, Kenilworth, on January 3.

render, Jesus receives the recognition ernment House as the guest of the have spent last Christmas with them sessions. Slavery continued, however, a British cruiser." He will remain about a fortnight the United States it was not finally Already Nairobi is anticipating the review of "Great Britain and the Slave are speculating on how much of his Mathieson. journey from the Cape to Cairo he will do by air and how much by road. by Mr. Mathieson is that after Great I confess I conquered, not in a mar- they are nearly done, warm the bits testing, which comes to all those who They believe he will travel as far Britain had for several decades been tial posture, but on my knees.—Sir of meat in butter in a hot frying pan.

"What was Mr. Wise just saying-"No, he said that she was very dear Vs. 4, 5. The second temptation is they were Jean and Mary, and that were driven by the lash down to the usually understood as a suggestion they were six years old. "And when coast, there to be sold into slavery.

IS WEARING

Illustrated Dressmaking Lesson Furnished with Every Pattern

By Annebelle Worthington

HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS. Write your name and address plainy, giving number and size of such patterns as you want. Enclose 20c in

A sports weight linen in lovely soft brown with maize dots adopts bolero treatment that is decidedly: one-sided, with sash ends joined to underarm seams and tied in bow. The skirt sways so prettily cut circular and joined to diagonal yoke top. Shirring at left front shoulder. provides decorative note and fulness. Long sleeves have perforations to be made short, if desired. Style No. 2948 makes an excellent school frock for the girl who knows smart clothes. It is very inexpensive too. In the 8-year size, 21/2 yards of 40-inch material is sufficient to copy it exactly. It is designed in sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Brown and white checked gingham with the one-sided bolero which is merely an over blouse caught in at shoulder and armhole , made: of plain brown pique is strikingly! chic and serviceable. Nile green cotton pique with bolero and neckline piped in yellow is very attractive. Orchid chambray, pink shantung, wool challis in yellow-beige and brown tones, French blue dimity; with white polka-dots, and red and! white printed pique are effective

It is just about perfect in tomato red crepe de chine with the littlei bolero jacket of navy blue crepe. Printed crepe de chine in Royal blue tones with tan is very smart. Navy blue wool crepe is very very fashionable for travel or school it carefully) for each number, and address your order to Wilson Pattern Service, 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto. Patterns sent by an early mail.

The Slave Trade

in South Africa before proceeding to abolished until 1863," writes Mr. Harold Cox in the "Sunday Times" in a carrying on her war against the slave | Thomas Browne. trade a reaction developed and several prominent English politicians demanded that we should abandon the task. How far this reaction was due to commercial influences is not quite clear. "Here is Mr. Mathieson's description of the condition of the slaves on board the ships that carried them across the Atlantic: "he slaves were always packed, often so closely that-they sat between each other's legs; they were chained by the ankle in pairs, their fetters cases so low that they could not even | Parlette.

"In the smaller vessels :nost of the negroes were kept below during the spirit within the rapid wheels of time powering; the bruising of naked and Vs. 3, 4. He is tempted to turn the turning them this way and that, still manacled bodies with the rolling and was an added torment.'

"'Often there was an insufficient Two little girls walked shyly into a supply of water, and the slaves were up for a whole night over an ants' parsiey. Pack into a buttered border is an inspiring thought for the people the potato around and over it. Let "It was not until 1833 that the Bri- of this country that all that stood be- it stand awhile, then carefully unoverdue visit, as the Prince would prohibiting slavery in British Pos- a fate as has just been described was

DOUBTS

There are, as in philosophy, so divinity, sturdy doubts, and boisterous objections, wherewith the unhap-Prince's tour and the people of Kenya Trade, 1839-1865," by William Law piness of our knowledge too nearly acquainteth us. More of these no "The most curious fact brought out man hath known than thyself; which baking powder biscuits and, when

> WASTE Waste no time in cherishing vain dreams, indulging idle speculations, or giving way to depressing emotions, but resolutely throw them off, and engage in whatever actual work ap pears most pressing and important.

> > A STAIRCASE

The great stairway that leads up to infinite success starts right from being not locked, but riveted; and the where your feet are now planted. You boarding above them was in many can rise with the next step.-Ralph should be careful lest they cause wo- of celery. Walnuts, butternuts or men to weep, for God counts their almonds left over may be boiled for tears.-The Talmud.

BLESSINGS

"So Missis Smith done got

The Holiday Leftovers

mediately.

of the feast with an appraising eye. Three minutes before serving add of getting rid of the leftovers?, One with parsley. has to have a good many years of experience in home making before this ceases to be a problem. these hints may not come amiss at this season of the year.

Bits of leftover jelly may be added to baked apples or used as a garnish on a gelatine dessert, or rice pudding, or to top whipped cream on fruit salads. Stirred into apple taploca puding, the red jellies add richness and color to their attractiveness.

Leftover mashed sweet potatoes may be used in a sweet potato pie or they may be formed into cones, rolled in beaten egg, then in bread are delicious when sliced into a pan vious recipe and add 1 cupful and browned on the other side.

well, because generally more meat is are brown and crisp and the onions left over than any other food. An perfectly tender. Baste occasionally excellent way to dispose of small with the stock in the pan. amounts of meat and mashed potato is to cut the meat into cubes and mix it with the potato, then pack the tablespoonfuls each of butter and not possibly afford any help. But very mixture into a glass or baking pow- flour and 1 cupful of milk put the soon he turned his attention to newsder can and set it away until needed. chopped meat available and a few paper advertisement, and he plainly Then turn the loaf out on a plate, mushrooms cut into thin slices. Re- remembers that his first advertisecut it into half-inch slices and fry to move from the fire and add the yolks, ment of this type cost him seven-anda delicate brown in butter. Serve of 2 eggs. Mix thoroughly and turn six-pence, and described the merits of on a platter garnished with parsley, into a shallow pan to cool. When some specially fine bacon and ham or pour around the mounds a sauce firm, shape into balls, roll in flour, which he had just purchased. . . . stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap made by adding to white sauce and then dip into the white of an egg The little shop became so well leftover vegetables.

Creamed Vegetables in Potato Shell To 2 cupfuls of leftover mashed potatoes add the yolks of 2 eggs, 3 tablespoonfuls of cream, a grating of and that slaves were sometimes tied onion and 1 tablespoonful of minced mold, or make such a mold by in- tions. "As Mr. Mathieson well says: 'It verting a bowl in a pan and packing and reheat and brown it slowly in the oven. In a white sauce reheat the vegetables that were left from the feast and turn the creamed vegetables into the potato border just before serving. Garnish with parsley.

Another good way to use chicken or turkey meat is to make some nice them in halves and lay them on a hot platter. Distribute the meat over the biscuits, then reheat in the spider any gravy left from the fease and pour it over the biscuits immediately in almost all others, turkey may be one of his mother, the other of his before serving. If there is not enough gravy, more may be made by boiling the bones in water to cover, adding to the strained liquor the gravy on could be improved.

Turkey or Chicken Salad .Cut leftover turkey or chicken into dice, measure, and allow an equal 20 minutes in water or stock, then chopped coarsely and added to the salad. At serving time mix the ingredients together and to each 2 cupfuls of the mixture allow 1/2 teaspoonful each of salt and Worcestershire sauce, a dash of paprika, a grating of break the carcass in pieces, cover onion and mayonnaise to give the with cold water and bring slowly to salad the desired consistency. Heap the boiling point, with an onion cut Creamed Turkey With Mushrooms Melt 1 tablespoonful of butter in a hot pan, blend with it 1 tablespoonful of flour. Then, when the mixture is frothy, add slowly 1/2 cupful of cream, "How much ammonia did de cou't stirring constantly, until smooth and She-"How brave of you, Gerald, to thick. Add 2 cupfuls of minced tur- go unarmed."

that may be bought in cans.

After the holiday season is over, key and cook over hot water until the the home maker views the remains meat is thoroughly heated through. What can she make of what is left cupful of small mushrooms. When were all poor folk, and surely it says that will seem real treats to her they are heated through serve on household, instead of obvious means rounds of toasted bread and garnish

Chicken Patties

Make a cream sauce with 2 table rate, between them his friends put spoonfuls of butter, the same amount up a hundred pounds, and with this of flour and 11/2 cupfuls of cream. he took a little shop in Stobeross St., When it is thick and smooth, add Glasgow. It was a lock-up shop under letover chicken cut into dice and a tenement buildings, and he was very can of mushrooms drained from their proud of it. He kept it spotlessly, liquor and cut into halves. Lastly, clean and made is at smart as possible, beat into the hot mixture the yolks "There is a great deal in the appearof 2 eggs. Season to taste with salt ance of a shop," he has ssid, "and and pepper and pour into patty shells. perhaps still more in the treatment.

Onions Stuffed With Chicken Select large onions, peel and scoop crumbs, and baked or fried in hot fat, out the centers to form cups and until they are heated through and simmer 10 minutes, then drain. Make golden-brown. The whole potatoes a thick white sauce as in the precon-taining 1 tablespoonful each of minced chicken, and sal: and pepper brown sugar and butter and allowed to taste. Fill the onion cups with the to brown on one side, then are turned mixture, sprinkle with bread crumbs and set in a baking dish. In the bot-But it is in the leftover meat that, tom of the dish pour hot, water or one can bring the greatest number of stock to prevent burning and bake changes, and perhaps that is just as about 20 minutes, or until the crumbs

Turkey Balls and serve immediately on a hot plate. better neighborhood. . . . Garnish with parsley or lemon sec-

Chicken Mousse

Soak-for five minutes 1 tablespoonful of gelatine in 14 cupful of cold chicken stock, then dissolve it in % cupful of boiling stock, highly seauntil it is frothy and ad 1 1 cupful of brief, and he kept on devising new cream that has been beaten stiff and schemes. 1 cupful of cold diced cooked chicken. Turn into molds rinsed with cold ject on which he never grudged spendwater, and chill. Baking powder ing-the comfort of his mother. He cans make excellent molds for this bought a house for her, and never mold the mousse, cut into one inch ilies are known for their devotion one slices and arrange on lettuce leaves. garnish with sliced stuffed olives and objects you will notice are two fine a dash of paprika. In this recipe, as portraits on each side of the fireplace, substituted for chicken.

Turk: y Timbales

oven. Muffin pans make good molds become a milloinaire.-From "Kings for this purpose. Serve unmolded, of Commerce," by T. C. Bridges and H. Hessell Tiltman. with creamed cauliflower or peas.

Turkey Soup

When the bones are free from meat on a bed of crisp lettuce, pour over into thin pleces, a few celery tops a little more mayonnaise and garnish and a pint can of tomatoes. Simmer with thin slices of stuffed olives, an hour, then strain and season to parsley or bits of sweet red peppers taste and add 1/2 cupful of cooked rice. Serve with toast cut into rings or with a bit of whipped cream on each portion. - Christian Science Monitor.

He-"It's to be a battle of wits."

Lipton's First Shop

He told his relation that he meant to start a shop, and asked them to lend him the money to do so. They, sonality of this eighteen-year-old lad that he was able to persuade them to do so. But Tommy Lipton had, as he still has, an Irish tongue. At any Garnish with paprika and serve im- customers receive when they come in to make purchases." He called his shop "Lipton's Market," and sold gro-During his years in America young

Lipton had come to realize the immense value of advertisement. At the of period when he opened his first Glasgow shop, more than fifty years ago, shop-advertising was almost unknown. in Britain. Big business, it is true, did a certain amount of sober advertisement, but the small shopkeeper did not dream of spending money in publicity. When he began business Tommy I ipton could not afford newspaper advertisement. What he did was to get cut a handbill which drew attention to his goods, and this he personal. ly distributed to passers-by. Of course Into a white sauce made, from 2 he worke ! single-handed, for he could diluted with a tablespoonful of water known and prospered so that its proand beaten till the two are incorpor- prietor was able to pay back the money ated, and into the crumbs again. At he had borrowed for the purpose of serving time, fry to a golden brown starting it, and to open a larger shop in deep fat, drain on unglazed paper in the High Street, Glasgow, a much

When one shop succeeded Tommy Lipton promptly opened another. That sounds easy, but in practice it was nothing of the kind. Most young men, when they find success coming their way, begin to spend their earnings, to take things a bit more easily. But soned, and strain. Set aside to chill the more success Tommy Lipton gained the less he spent, and the harder thicken, beat it with the egg beater he worked. His holidays were few and

.It would not be fair to say that he spent no money, for there-was one oblet her want for anything. Irish famto another, and in Sir Thomas Lipton's handsome dining-room the first

The young man had made his plan ... he was not content with any Melt 2 tablesmoonfuls of butter and ordinary success, for he had the defihand and thickening the sauce to the add 4 tablespoonfuls of stale bread nite intention of becoming one of the desired consistency. A little kitchen crumbs from the soft part of the loaf world's great merchant princes. By bouquet will give a rich color, if that and is cupful of milk; cook for 5 long hours of toil, day in and day out, minutes, stirring constantly. Remove for years on end, he achieved his amfrom the fire and add 1 cupful of fine- bition. The first humble little shop in ly chopped cold cooked turkey, 1/2 Glasgow-grew to scores spread all tablespoonful of minced parsley, 1-8 over the country, factories arose in teaspoonful of celery salt, 2 slightly many places, bearing his name and quantity of celery cut into fair-sized beaten eggs, and salt and pepper to making the various products sold in All the blessings of a household pieces. If this does not make enough, taste. Turn into buttered individual his shops. . . Soon the firm was makcome through the wife, therefore, supplement the meat with cold roast molds, filling each not more than two- ing its own soap, its own jam, and had The grand current of events rups The stench arising from bad air and should her husband honor her. Men veal or pork and add an equal amount thirds full, and set in a pan of hot its own tin-works, paper-works, and water. Cover with buttered paper printing-works, and its head, while and bake 20 minutes in a moderate still a comparatively young man, had

TASIS

Each man and woman was sent into the world not to be like someone else, but to do his own work, and to bear his own burden; precisely the one work which God has given him, and which never can be given to or done by any other.

When the angry man comes to himself, then he is angry with himself .-

LOSS OF TIME

Let him who regrets the loss of_ time make proper use of that which is to come in the future.-O'Connell.

PERSONAL CHARACTER

Personal character is all there is in this world that amounts to anything in the final resolution of things.

"One way to abolish wars or all time would be to agree to postpone the next war until the World War, debts are paid."-Lord Dewar.

Westminster Abbey enjoys a number of peculiar religious privileges. Although it comes within the diocese of the Bishop of London, it owes no allegiance to him, because it is an' extra-diocesan. The Dean of Westminster is "Lord of his own manor," and from time to time he reads a protest against the presence of the archibishops and bishops. The Archbishop of Canterbury replies assuring the Dean that nobody will interfere. with any of his privileges. The Archbishop is generally considered as a visitor, and Dr. Davidson used to walk beside Dean Ryle instead of walking last as Primate of All Eng-

that Jesus was wondering whether he | what are you?" he cried. . "We're thumbscrews and other instruments of ltorture were used on the plantations, done grant her?" could make a compromise with the what's left of triplets." Premier MacDonald Will Never Stop These Wars

