

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Division Court will be held in Stouffville on Monday, March 31st.

We understand that Harry Palsley has rented the Hamm farm on the 9th concession of Whitchurch.

Capable girl wanted for general housework. Good home. Apply Mrs. Vincent Wagg, phone 6708.

Whitchurch Township council will meet for general business on Saturday of this week, at the Township Hall.

With the exception of an odd stormy day, we are having some beautiful spring-like weather, and the snow has practically disappeared. This is an anxious time for fall wheat.

Rev. L. S. White of Belleville, and chairman of the Bay of Quinte conference will preach next Sunday in the Stouffville United church, the local pastor taking the work in the Belleville centre.

Do your part in beautifying Stouffville by joining the Horticultural Society. Their accomplishments add dollars to the value of your property.

An inaugural meeting of the newly appointed Park Commission was called last week, but not sufficient members turned up to make a quorum. Too many attractions on that night, we understand.

Hen fruit is falling in price with the fine spring-like days encouraging the birds to greater production. 30c and 35c per dozen was the prevailing price in town last Thursday.

A few years ago the merchants of the town of Barrie petitioned their council to compel every store to close at 7 p.m. each evening excepting Saturday. The bylaw was passed but last week the merchants again visited the council and requested a repeal of the bylaw. Times change.

Next Sunday, March 16th, Quarterly services will be held on the Markham circuit of the Mennonite church. Elder S. Goudie will preach at the Hill in the morning service, Gormley in the afternoon and Bethesda in the evening. A meeting will be held in Dixon Hill church on Saturday afternoon. It is also announced that a series of evangelistic meetings will open in the Mount Joy church, beginning next Sunday. Rev. C. N. Good who recently conducted the campaign at Stouffville, will be the evangelist.

Send us in the news from your district.

The proceeds of the recent Continuation School concert exceeded $200. There is a demand for a repeat entertainment.

The Willing Helpers, Presbyterian Church will hold a St. Patrick's Party on Monday, March 17th at the church. The public is invited. Refreshments. Admission 10c.

Several very large hen eggs have been on display in The Tribune office the last couple of weeks, and by way of diversion we now have an egg from a White Leghorn on the farm of Archie Fleming of Markham that is the size of a robin's egg. Such freaks in hen fruit are fairly common at this season of year.

The auction sale of milch cows belonging to J. A. Hawtin at Ringwood last Friday, drew one of the largest crowds of people of any cattle sale held here in a long time. The prices obtained were regarded as very good for this time of year, and the 31 head of cows averaged over $100. The highest priced cow sold at $139, while a young male animal under one year brought $75 from a Gormley buyer.

The C.N.R. crossing over Main street is again in bad condition, and requires immediate attention. Following numerous complaints this crossing was repaired a couple of years ago, but the work is not of a permanent nature. The local council will be doing a good deed by bringing this matter to the attention of the Company through the county engineer, which is said to be the most effective manner in which to get results.

Herbert Wideman of Dixon Hill is the latest victim to suffer the loss of poultry through a raid made on his pen. Only twelve birds were removed from the roost, however, as evidently the thief worked lone-handed from tracks in the snow. After making one visit to the pen and depositing his load in the conveyance, it is thought the thief may have become frightened which prevented him from making a second trip to the poultry house.

In connection with the recent hockey tournament in Stouffville, The Aurora Banner says: "The Aurora team wish to congratulate the Stouffville Arena for their generous and courteous treatment throughout the entire tournament. The prizes were splendid, crowds fair in their treatment of visitors, the refereeing excellent, and the losing teams the best of good sports. Aurora next year could well emulate the example of our sister municipality."

Mr. Allan Goudie has taken a position as clerk in the E. A. Button hardware store, a position made vacant through the death of the late Erwin Gray. Dawson Davis, for some time head tinsmith with this same firm, has given up his position and may locate in Toronto. If Dawson decides to locate in the city, we will all be sorry to see another of our old-time family associates leaving the home town.

The Markham Economist states that for every dollar spent in the maintenance of Markham High School, 85c of it comes from outside sources. Just so, a High School is a real asset to any community, and the day will come when Stouffville ratepayers will stop sending out good money to educate their high school boys and girls in another municipality as we have to do now with all 4th form pupils. The more of the ratepayers tax money expended in their own municipality the better.

Mrs. Oliver Flewell has sold her 100 acre farm on the 8th concession of Whitchurch to John Atkinson of this town. In addition to the farm lands and building a Mr. Atkinson bought the entire stock and implements, and intends to hold an auction sale the latter part of March in order to dispose of the live stock and implements. Mrs. Flewell, and her husband who passed away this winter, moved to this property 28 years ago, and with but a very small equity in the place was able to free it from all incumbrance with a few years of faithful work. It is a good grain farm and well located convenient to town. The property also contains a few acres of valuable bush land. Unless he resells the property at once Mr. Atkinson may rent it for the coming season.

The municipal council of Stouffville have been advised to send in approximate numbers of reservations that could be made here for housing delegates to the Shriners Convention to be held in Toronto next June. If this information is furnished to The Hotel and Housing Committee, with office at Bay and Charles streets, Toronto, it might be possible to billet some visitors locally. Rates set for billets in Toronto homes range from $1.50 to $2.50 per person daily, breakfast extra. Shriners who might billet in Stouffville would do so for bed and breakfast only. It is said that one or two hundred would find welcome accommodation in our village. Why not undertake to secure this number; the financial return would be appreciated by those who open their homes.

With rain and mild weather this week the frost threatens to come out of the ground, leaving many roads in bad state for travel.

Comedy attraction this Friday and Saturday at the Auditorium Theatre is Charlie Chaplin as "The Immigrant".

Nearly 400 invitations have been issued by the Stouffville War Veterans for their informal dance to be held in Ratcliff's Hall, on the evening of Friday, March 14th. You are invited to attend. $1.50 per couple.

The I.O.O.F. are issuing invitations to its members for a St. Patrick's evening to be held in their lodge rooms on March 17th. The entertainment will take the form of a box social, and a good time is promised.

There is a rumor that a big evangelistic camp meeting under auspices of the Mennonite church will be held this summer in Stouffville park. With the use of the Arena for public meetings, and the large acreage to the south of this building for camp purposes, an ideal setting is provided. We hope the rumor becomes an accomplished fact.

The Stouffville Senior Women's Institute will hold a pot luck supper in Ratcliff's Hall, on Tuesday, March 18th from 6 o'clock. Every member is requested to bring their husband and family also their friends. Bring your basket and dishes you require. A good program will be given. Enjoy the evening with us. Note the change to Tuesday, March 18th.

The annual canvass for membership in the Horticultural Society will be made shortly. When the canvassers call be ready to give them your dollar. Remember they are doing a public service, and should receive a warm welcome at every home. The society aims to beautify the town in which we live, and few there are so dead as not to be alive to beauty.

York County council has refused to take over the Metropolitan railroad on Yonge street, much to the satisfaction of all people living in this section. The line will likely be discontinued next Saturday, when an increased bus service will be instituted. The county councillors were called together last Friday to give their refusal to the city's offer of leasing the line to the county for $1 a year.

James Berry who bought the Joan Lewis farm just west of the town will put in 50 acres of vegetables this spring. Mr. Lewis who lives on the property will remain with Mr. Berry. With the high prices prevailing for vegetables last season, there will be an incentive this year for many small growers to increase their acreage in this locality, which coupled with the increase of these larger growers will provide a tremendous output of such vegetables as are specialized in this district.

Mrs. B. E. Beebe received word this week of the death of a very dear friend, Mrs. James I. Galbraith of Crosswell, Mich., and daughter of Lukus Fenton, one-time resident of Whitchurch. The old Mrs. Hill of Bloomington was a sister of Louis Fenton. Mrs. Galbraith whose death is recorded there was born in Sanilac Township, U.S.A. in 1862, and was a graduate of the Normal college in Ypsilanti and Big Rapids. Besides her husband she is survived by one brother Robert Fenton of Lexington. The deceased had visited in Stouffville some years ago.

Monday evening, March 10th, was a red-letter occasion for Mr. and Mrs. John H. Davis, Stouffville, when they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with their entire family of six children about them. During the afternoon many relatives and friends called to offer congratulations, but in the evening the celebration grew to its height. In addition to the children there were present 12 grandchildren and one great grandchild. The sons and daughters are Mrs. Cecil Wagg of Mongolla, Mrs. Jesse Luny of Newmarket, Mrs. Otto Baker of Whitchurch, and Earl, Dawson and Morrill Davis, the latter living in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married by Rev. Wm. Percy, the beloved pastor of the Christian church. All their lives has been spent in this vicinity, most of which was lived on the farm at lot 2, on the 8th concession of Whitchurch. The past few years they lived in Stouffville with their son Dawson. Both bride and groom of 50 years are in very good health. Mr. Davis is 74 and his life partner 71 years. The community unites with the family and relatives in extending them happy congratulations on this anniversary day.

seed. Hardiness depends upon type and origin. Canadian grown seed is admitted to be hardy. This is not stained. Variegated alfalfa from the States bordering on Canada and from Utah, Wyoming and South Dakota is hardy. If properly verified this may be stained 1% navy blue. Canadian grown and seed showing a blue stain is recommended for those desiring permanent stands and in all seed growing areas. Members of the Canadian Seed Trade Association in conference with Government officials have agreed to offer for sale, seed of the above mentioned classes. They have also given assurance that any other alfalfa seed imported by members of the association would be only from States bordering on Canada or from Utah, Wyoming or South Dakota. This seed will be stained 10% red but can be distinguished from seed from other sources which may be imported by other dealers or agencies only by verification of origin. This can be obtained from the dealers. W. P. White, District Rep.
