

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Have you started your Christmas presents yet? Only 63 days until Christmas eve.

Monday, November 10th, has been officially proclaimed as Thanksgiving Day and Armistice Day.

In these times, a holiday is a day when prudent people stay at home, and keep out of automobile accidents.

They take their baseball seriously in the United States. Even the President's speech was postponed because it interfered with a broadcast of a World's Series game.

A Euchre and Bridge under the auspices of the O.E.S. will be held in their rooms above Ratcliff's Hall on Friday Evening Oct. 31 at 5 p.m. at which draw for "Hope Chest" and prizes will be made. Admission 35c.

Wednesday afternoon of next week will be the last weekly-holiday of the season in Stouffville. Beginning with November business places will revert to the old schedule of staying open six days a week and three nights a week until Christmas.

Some of our citizens along Main street are not letting the grass grow under their feet, but others who like the beauty of it, are making a good showing with the new boulevard. Wm. Bull, John Turner, and N. Burkholder, have a good catch, while Thos. Williamson is preparing a fine front, all of which will add to the beauty of Stouffville.

Mr. Ross Vague who is calling an auction sale at lot 7, concession 8, Whitechurch for November 5th, is giving up farming and will move to the house and small acreage he recently bought just south of Ringwood from the Soldier Settlement Board. The Lemon Baker farm which he is vacating has been rented to Earl Davis.

Rev. Thos Laidlaw preached the anniversary message at the Locust Hill church on Sunday evening.

The probe in York Township has cost the municipality $700 per day or $5,000. Probably the eye-opener was worth it!

In recent months a number of good friends of this paper furnished items for the "Way Back" column. How about keeping up the good work?

With the same amount in the country, money seems to be side-tracked these days. When it gets moving again on the main lines conditions will return to normalcy.

The last of the gang employed here by the Warren Paving Co. left town this week for North Bay, to build a bituminous top on a new piece of concrete recently constructed there by the company. It is just three months since the company sent in their men to build our road. The amount of work accomplished in that period is marvelous.

A weekly paper has been forcing itself on several of our readers lately, and we are asked how to get it stopped. The procedure is to refuse it at the mail box. It is the duty then of the courier to return it to the postmaster who has a blank form to return to the newspaper office which must be obeyed or the post-master has a penalty to inflict after three notices returned unrecognized by the publisher.

Keep in mind the auction sale of household goods at the home of Mrs. John Grove, Main street east, on Saturday, October 25th. In addition to the articles to be sold, the house and lot will also be offered, consisting of a splendid garden and brick residence. This is an ideal location for retired farmer or other citizen who is desirous of securing a garden lot.

Four rooms to let, over Story's Drug Store. Suitable for apartment, of two business offices. Possession November 15. Apply Geo. Collard

Bazaar afternoon tea and sale of home made baking at Porter's on Saturday, November 1st from 2 to 5.30. Your chance to secure inexpensive gifts, and to enjoy afternoon tea. Bring your friends.

The local turnip market is quite active. R. E. Brown is shipping almost daily paying 15 cents per bushel for the roots. Quality is low this year, but most everything is being accepted at the price.

If at all possible persons contributing news or advertising to The Tribune should get it into the office of this paper on Monday. We receive so much late copy that some of it is crowded out at the last minute.

Mr. C. E. Powell, principal of the high school, was in Ottawa over the weekend attending the wedding of his brother which took place in that city on Saturday, with our local principal acting as best man.

Mrs. Herbert Porter was in Omence last week owing to the death of her mother Mrs. Sarah Peacock who passed away in her 72nd year. Besides Mrs. Porter there are four other daughters and also three sons surviving. The father who died ten years ago, farmed all his life in the vicinity of Omence.

A large number of the members of St. James' Presbyterian W. M. S. Stouffville, attended the Thanksgiving offering of Markham W.M.S. of Monday afternoon. Later in the evening they joined in a very enjoyable meeting of the W.H. Band at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mitchell, Ringwood.

Monday, Nov. 24 is nomination day in a good many towns, townships and villages throughout Ontario, with election day on Dec. 1st. Those who have set the earlier time for municipal elections say they much prefer it to the later day between Christmas and New Years, right in the busy Christmas and New Year season.

The unusual cold weather for this time of year has gained a place in the headlines of the daily press, telling of terrible storms and damage in other parts of the country north and west. Stouffville got only the fog end of both the cold and snow for which we are duly thankful. Ice froze to a depth of two inches over Sunday night when the heaviest local frosts was recorded. Snow flurries over the weekend also served to remind us that winter is "just round the corner."

Mr. Jim Little closed his "soup kitchen" this week which he operated for the benefit of the road gang of the Warren Paving Co. This boarding house was conducted in the Lloyd block, and fed an average of 20 men for 75 days. Thus the jolly cook served up 225 meals to his hungry boarders or 4,500 individual plates. Of course this wasn't a big contract for Mr. Little who is used to serving meals to gangs of hundreds in the lumber camps.

Repairs are being made to the bad piece of road at the outskirts of Stouffville to the east from the town limits to the townline. With this rough spot made smooth the last vestige of poor road—belonging to the Toronto and York Road Commission in the vicinity of Stouffville is made good. What a contrast to a few years ago when people from all over would come here and report "the worst within 200 miles." Continual agitation on the part of the local press and citizens, and a sympathetic ear on the part of the Road Commissioners and their estimable engineer Mr. Harvey Rose has brought things to a satisfactory state. The business men and others who use our roads for motoring will rejoice in their present good order.

The regular evening service in the United Church on Sunday took the form of a young peoples' meeting, when the members of the Swastika Club had charge of every part of the worship. Miss Helen Rowbotham and Mr. Harry Klinek delivered addresses in lieu of the pastoral sermon, while Mrs. Laidlaw, wife of the pastor sang a solo very effectively. It is the first time Mrs. Laidlaw has favored the congregation since the family moved here in July, and her rich voice will be greatly appreciated as an addition to the musical ecstasies of the church. Mrs. Bainborough gave the prayers and Miss Lillian Downswell read the scripture lesson. The Swastika Club is organized to promote Christian work among the young people, and its officers recently elected are: President—E. M. Still; 1st vice-pres.—H. O. Klinek; Christian Fellowship—Mrs. Bainborough; Nature and Music—Miss R. Fuller; Miss K. Logan; World Travel—Miss W. Taun; Leadership training—Miss H. Rowbotham; Reading Dramatics—C. E. Powell; Secretary—Chas. Nolan; Treasurer—W. J. Gower; Organist—Miss Agnes Klinek; Advertising and promotion—H. C. Penlock.

John Silverthorn has sold his garage business on Main street east to P. W. Haley of Agincourt.

As an indication of the drop in vegetable prices, we cite the price of cabbage which are bringing only $8 per ton now, as against $25 ton at this time last year.

Stiver Bros. are paying 28 and 30 cents bushel for oats and 30 cents for barley. There is no truth in the report that only 15c was offered locally for oats.

Mr. Stanley Rose, teacher at Bloomington school, and a Ballantrae boy, has been elected to the executive of the York County Teachers Association for inspectorate No. 1.

Mr. Harold Sanders who recently gave up his law office here to enter the employ of the Sun Life Insurance Co., left last week on a business trip of possibly two months duration to New Orleans, in connection with the company's interests there.

At the Auditorium Theatre, next Tuesday and Wednesday, 23 and 29 will be shown the 1st Chapter of 10 Episode Serial, "A Final Reckoning", starring Buffalo Bill, jr. All ladies (any age) admitted free to this picture. Come and bring all your lady friends.

The heavy fall of leaves during the week has covered the new road in places, and we are wondering what damage they will do if allowed to wash into the sewer pipes. Citizens would be doing a good act by cleaning the leaves off the road in front of their properties along Main street.

A bee will be held at the Stouffville Arena on Friday afternoon of this week at 3 o'clock sharp for the purpose of removing the shavings from the floor area. The Mennonite Church left them there for the accommodation of the Stouffville Horticultural Society and the school Fair Committee, on the understanding that these organizations would remove them. Mr. Watson's room at the public school is asked to contribute a number of boys while the men of the Horticultural Society and any other citizens are invited to assist. Bring your rake or large shovel. Many hands make light work. Those responsible for this work being done ask that this be regarded as a personal appeal for help.

Among the relics to be sold at the auction sale of wood lots, household goods and other articles on Saturday November 1st, and belonging to Henry Hoover, is a grease lamp. It was used in Philadelphia over 130 years ago, by the late Daniel Hoover, grandfather of our Henry. In those days grease lamp was an aristocratic setting for the table over the tallow candle. Someone will buy this grease burning outfit as a novelty in these times when the dirt and odor of such a lighting device would drive one out of doors.

LAI D TO REST

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ira R. Schell, which took place in Stouffville October 14th from the home of her daughter Mrs. R. J. Smith, to the Hise Hill Cemetery, was very largely attended. Rev. Milton Bricker from Toronto had charge of the service, assisted by Rev. Fleischer and Rev. A. I. Gooding, also the Steekley Quintette at the grave.

The pall bearers were nephews of deceased. Messrs. H. Learn, W. Learn, F. McQuarrie, Harvey Schell, Wesley Schell, N. Schell. Friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. D. Sherk, Mr. and Mrs. L. Learn Messrs. H. and A. Learn of Ridgeway, Mr. and Mrs. G. Davidson of Pt. Colborne, Mrs. Levi Schell, Will and Rev. and Mrs. I. Brubacher of Scott, Mr. and Mrs. H. Troup of Shekston, Mr. and Mrs. N. Schell, Mr. and Mrs. P. Schell of Stayner, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jackson, Miss Linore Jackson, Mrs. M. Bricker, Mr. and Mrs. McCormack, Mrs. McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Grove Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. J. McQuarrie, Mr. and Mrs. F. McQuarrie, Mr. Lloyd McQuarrie of Dundalk, Mr. and Mrs. W. Levans, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. Hannah of Markhade, Mr. Norman Schell of Dundalk.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. There is a face that we'll love for ever; Your voice we'll long to hear; Your smile we'll remember for ever. Though we try to forget every tear. There is a sad but sweet remembrance; We've a memory fond and true; There's a token of affection, "Dear Mother"; And our hearts will oft ache for you. Many a day your name will be spoken. Many an hour you'll be in our thoughts; A link in our family chain is broken. You are gone from our home but not from our hearts.

Earl Grubin the local Optometrist will not be in his office this evening Thursday, Oct. 23rd, nor 24th as he will be attending a series of lectures at the College of Optometry of Canada given by Professor Julius Neumeller of the faculty of the Pennsylvania State College of Optometry.

Fifty members and friends of the Women's Liberal Association were present at the opening meeting of the season, at the home of Miss E. Sangster, on Tuesday evening last. Mr. W. P. Mulock was present to give an address; and Miss Myrtle Watson delighted the members with a beautifully rendered piano solo.

The Garret Mission Circle of the United church surprised Rev. Herbert and Mrs. Lee a few evenings ago by tendering them a kitchen shower at their new home on Church street. The pleasing event came as a sort of welcome back to Stouffville and the church where the couple had spent many happy days.

Living in a shack with broken windows, and in destitute circumstances, a family was discovered on the townline Pickering and Markham a few days ago. Without heat, food, or scarcely any clothing and the mother with a two-weeks old baby presented a heart-breaking scene. The father a war veteran, is partly disabled. The local veterans rendered immediate aid until something more permanent can be done for them.

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed when Mrs. Charles Middleton of 126 Silver Birch Ave., Toronto, a former resident of Stouffville, entertained her children and grandchildren at a dinner party held at her home on Oct. 11th. It was Mrs. Middleton's 80th birthday. After an appetizing chicken dinner was served, Mr. Luther Middleton, reeve of Pickering Township, acted as toast master. Mrs. Middleton has purchased a new home on Lawlor Ave and expects to be in it by Nov. 1st. Apartment quarters did not agree with her after spending all her life in her own home.

UXBRIDGE TWP. COUNCIL

Uxbridge Township Council met on Saturday at Goodwood, the members all present, Reeve Davies presiding.

Several sheep claims were dealt with and Wesley Page having sheep killed and injured by dogs, came before the Council, not disputing the valuation of the sheep valuer on the sheep that were killed, but that he was low on damage to balance of flock. Council gave same consideration, but stated they would have to abide by the sheep valuer's report.

The principal part of the business transacted was the passing of the following accounts.
