

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Keep a place for that Oyster Supper at McNelly's (Muselman's Lake) on evening of Wednesday, Feb. 4. You are invited.

On Monday afternoon Mr. Robt. Miller and Mr. Thos. Birkett motored to Columbus to attend the funeral of the late Hon. William Smith, one of Canada's outstanding figures a few years ago.

The Tribune subscription list was revised up to Friday, January 23. Read your label and see that it shows the correct date on which your paper expires.

Mrs. A. W. Lehman is quite ill at the home of her daughter Mrs. C. Pipher, Church street. Mrs. Lehman who for many years lived on O'Brien Avenue recently returned to town with Mr. and Mrs. Pipher when they moved onto Church street. She is under the care of a trained nurse during her illness.

The 3-pound-for-a-dollar Tea Sale at Dominion Stores is still booming.

An elderly lady of town lost a couple of $2 bills on Main street or in one of the stores on Tuesday last week. Will the finder leave the money at the Tribune office.

The weekly dance will be held at Malvern this Friday evening, with famous caller E. Colby in charge of the floor. Wonderful orchestral band music. See display adv. in this paper.

Bruce Rowbotham took a load of Lorne and Murray Baker's friends to Gormley on Saturday. All enjoyed snow shoeing, tobogganing and the Baker's hospitality.

The Stouffville Junior Institute play which was given here with such big success is to be repeated in the Township Hall, Goodwood, this Thursday evening. The presentation of Miss Fearles & Co. at Goodwood is sure to draw a good crowd, and to be highly approved. The admission is only 15 and 25 cents.

The "cream" of the Toronto financial houses, as well as two of our leading banks offered to take Stouffville's bonds for a loan of $61,000. This is a significant thing for local investors to remember when they are thinking of the security of the issue.

Two rinks of local curlers played in the preliminary contest, Ontario Tankard, at Unionville last week, and were successful in winning the district, thereby holding the right to represent district No. 13, when the big roundup takes place in Toronto. The local players were F. L. Button (sk.), Mill Storey, J. Agnew, F. Rowbotham, and Sam Armstrong (sk.), Wm. Armstrong, Mervyn Watts and Henry Brillinger.

Miss Marion Klinck spent the weekend with friends at Box Grove. Lay it away for house-cleaning—10 bars of P. & G. Soap only 37c at Dominion Stores this week.

For Sale—Pair of hockey skates and boots, size 1, for child, at Tribune office. Good as new. Bargain.

Lloyd Turner sold one of his teams of horses last week to a Newmarket buyer.

Friday February 20th has been set as the date for the annual concert of The Stouffville Choral Society. A very fine program is being arranged and all lovers of music should mark the date and arrange to take in this outstanding event of the season.

Our tenth concession farmer Mr. E. A. Lloyd who has suffered a great deal of illness the past year but who had recovered in a remarkable way a couple of months ago, is now down with the "shingles" and has been quite ill. We are glad to report the worst is over, however, and that Mr. Lloyd will shortly be about again.

Owing to the illness of Miss R. Fuller, first form teacher at the High School, the classes and teachers are working under difficulties this week. With the co-operation of the pupils, however, the principal feels that he can bridge the gap for the week. Next week a substitute will be secured in the event of the regular teacher not being sufficiently recovered to resume work.

Last Saturday a good sized box was delivered to the abode of Rev. E. Morton by the express man. The box came from the United Church Publishing House, Toronto, and was unlooked for. After opening the box it was found to contain a beautiful individual communion set. Mr. Morton up till Tuesday had not found out who the giver is or what church it is to go to. Evidently some one did not believe in letting their left hand know what the right hand doeth.

For the first time in eight weeks Mr. Ralph Hamilton was able to get down to interview his barber in the tonsorial parlors on Saturday. Oar O'Brien Ave citizen suffered what is believed to be a heart attack, which necessitated him remaining in the house for two months. It was on account of weak heart that Mr. Hamilton gave up farming eighteen years ago when he moved into town at much too young an age to line up with the retired gentry. However, when health permits, Ralph is out for a day's work, and enjoys it.

Following a severe illness Elizabeth Kester, widow of the late Ralph Forsyth passed away at her late home on Church street south Sunday afternoon, January 25th. Mrs. Forsyth was 73 years of age and had spent all her life in and near Stouffville. Her husband died quite a number of years ago, and the mother is survived by one daughter and two sons. Miss Laura at home, and Messrs. Ewart and Ernest of Toronto. Mrs. George Urquhart of Main street is an only surviving sister. The funeral on Tuesday afternoon took place to Stouffville cemetery, the service being conducted by her pastor Rev. T. Laidlaw of the United Church.

A few of our thoughtful people, bent on brightening the life of one of our eldest citizens, gathered at the home of Mrs. James Caseley, who lives next to George Baker just west of the United Church, and spent a social time with this aged citizen. Mrs. Caseley is 87 years of age, but she lives alone and attends all her household duties without assistance. She spent a great many years on the farm on the 5th concession of Markham, but quite a few years back Mr. and Mrs. Caseley retired to Stouffville. Ten years ago he died, and the aged lady has been alone since that time. They had no family. Her birthday on Saturday, January 24, was seized upon by friends and neighbors, as a fitting time to show their love and high regard for an old friend. Needless to say, all enjoyed the evening.

Rev. Father Keane, pastor of Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church, Uxbridge, was a welcome caller at The Tribune sanctum last Friday. Father Keane notes that his flock is steadily increasing in Stouffville. Within the past year two new business or professional men who located here belong to the Roman church, while this last few months one new family moved in, thus the Catholic church boasts of its largest following here in the history of the community—three families and two bachelor business men. At the present time Stouffville only has eight denominations in its midst, so if Father Keane would care to erect another church with one of those stately spires he might soon have a following that would equal some of the smaller denominations in our midst, at least. Father Keane is a man of kindly impulse and genial disposition but we do not anticipate that he has any notion of enlarging the number of churches in his parish in these days when the tendency is all to much for people to neglect the sacred edifices we now have.

Mrs. Maria Kester, who just recently celebrated her 57th birthday, is now quite ill at her home here. Mrs. Kester is one of Stouffville's very oldest citizens, and every hope is expressed for her early recovery.

Over 100 attended the skating party at the arena Tuesday evening conducted by the Swastika Club of the United Church. With good band music, a splendid and interesting program was carried out on the ice providing much amusement and real fun. Later the jolly crowd enjoyed a luncheon in the basement of the church, while a bright musical program was being given.

Local buyers are laying in their supply of ice, which this winter is being secured mostly from Lake Musselman, Altona and Ratcliff's pond in Whitchurch. Due to the moderate weather the thickness is only 15 inches, which makes the blocks quite easy to handle. At Lake Musselman owing to backwater, the cutters have had to stand in water eight inches deep to cut on some days.

In the death of Miss Jessie Law which took place on Monday, January 26, a very highly respected resident passed away. Miss Law made her home with her brother, Mr. Dent Law at lot 1, on the corner of town-line and 7th-concession of Whitchurch. From here the funeral will take place today (Thursday) to Bloomington cemetery. The deceased was born in the Township of Scott 55 years ago, a daughter of the late William Law who lived in Whitchurch prior to his death. Besides her only brother Dent she is survived by three sisters, being Mrs. F. Sissler of Barrie, Mrs. E. Pringle of Markham, and Mrs. E. Pringle of Gormley R.R. The late Miss Law was a member of the Christian church, and the funeral service will be conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. Morton.

Stouffville's now reeve, W. E. Morden, got away to a good start at County Council this week, when the first vote that he polled counted on the winning side. He supported Reeve W. C. Gohn for the wardenship, which the latter won by the narrow squeak of three votes. As the wardenship has never come to Stouffville since the days when the late W. B. Sanders was elected, the next best thing is to have the warden living next door, and so there will be no quarrel with the manner in which Reeve Morden polled his vote. Warden W. C. Gohn is one of the "best turned" and most capable men in county council, and his ability was more than recognized when he was chosen for the coveted position although his township is scarcely entitled to recognition after having had it bestowed upon them nine years ago when Reeve George Padgett was elevated to wardenship. The recognition given Warden Gohn on Monday in appointing him to the head of York county is a splendid recognition of his municipal career.

It was currently reported in town last week that another barber shop was to start operations here, thus bringing the number of shops up to four, something of a record for a place the size of Stouffville. In addition there are two men in each shop now operating. Mr. Leonard Keeping, grand-son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. George Urquhart, has been employed in various shops, and is anxious to establish himself here.

QUALITY SERVICE

Quaker FUL-O-PEP Egg Mash

The cost of a feed cannot be measured in terms of what you pay for it. The true cost can only be determined by the results obtained.

REMEMBER:

One extra egg per hen per month at present prices will offset a difference of Twenty dollars per ton in the price of feed. Quaker FUL-O-Pep Egg Mash will produce this extra egg, and more.

Quality Counts

The constant achievements at the different butter exhibits for the last few years, is not only an honour to us and our cream shippers, but is of great importance to the butter industry of Ontario. Every effort in bringing up the quality of Ontario butter will ultimately, reflect itself in the prices paid for cream, and eventually be to our mutual benefit.
