DO YOU REMEMBER
WAY BACK

WHEN?
The Stouffville post office was on the hill between what is now known as Baker Ave. and Stouffer streets?

First it was in a frame building on the north side, about where the Misses Stouffer live, then removed across to a brick building on what is now in the Public School site.

Oh! what a scrap there was between the two factions, one supporting its removal to the new business centre west of the swamp, and the other wanting it to remain on the hill. There was a distinct division between the two parts of the village in those days, the low section near the creek east of Jerman's blacksmith shop being mostly swamp land and not developed.

The citizens of the older village at the corners felt it a hardship indeed that the Post Office should be taken so far away.

Later arrangements were made to have mail delivered (for those who desired it and paid a fee for the privilege) to the east end store now kept by Mr. Leavens.

Little the citizens of that day thought that a fine Government building such as we have would ever be erected in Stouffville.

"OLD TEMER"

DON'T GIVE A DOLLAR

Hoax Register
" Don't give a newspaper a dollar." Such is the advice spoken by a well-known merchant over the radio recently. He was directing his remarks to business men in small towns and cities. "Don't give the newspaper a dollar," he emphasized. "Instead, buy twice as much advertising as you think you can afford for a period of one year.
Then watch your business grow."

"The newspaper," he said "is an accurate mirror of the town which it serves. If your town is a live town one that can meet the intense competition of today, the newspaper will be filled each issue with snappy invitations to trade at the various stores of that town. Your newspaper is your weekly or daily contact with the people of your trade territory. Use it liberally and you will be surprised at the results."

"The merchants in any community where a real newspaper is published could afford to pay the subscription of the paper for every resident within thirty miles—they would get their money back many times over by increasing contracts for advertising messages.

"Boost for your newspaper. It is always boosting the community and the boost you give will pay you big dividends."

CHORAL CONCERT
MAKES A REAL HIT

The fourth annual concert of the Stouffville Choral Society was held in Ratcliff's Hall on Friday evening last. Despite the unfavorable conditions of the roads a large audience was in attendance indicating the interest which has been stirred up throughout the district by the splendid efforts of this organization.

The chorus numbering some sixty voices was in good form and rendered the various numbers with good effect reflecting the careful training received under the capable hands of Mr. H. M. Fletcher, their conductor.
While the whole chorus is deserving of commendation for their excellent work special mention must be made of the splendid volume and fine tone quality of the men's section on this occasion.

The choral numbers were nicely varied in character and were all well done but particular mention might be made of several which appeared to carry special appeal.
Two sacred numbers, "The Angelus" by Elgar and "Ave Verum" by Gounod were finely done and well received. Sullivan's "Lost Chord" was another well sung number. Of the selections in the lighter vein Strauss' "Blue Danube Waltzes," repeated from last year's program by request, were well rendered and were perhaps the most popular of the numbers for full chorus. A negro spiritual "De Gospel Train" arranged by Barleigh was given an excellent rendition by the male chorus and was so well received that it had to be repeated.

Anthony Remouch, the young Polish violinist, was again the principal assisting artist. This young man continues to develop and once more presented a program which carried his audience with him with the result that he was called upon for repeated encores. Misses Anne Lehman and Eva Hoover played a piano duet in their usual very capable manner in addition to which Miss Lehman offered a very acceptable piano solo which was rewarded with an encore. The Stouffville Male Quartette consisting of Messrs.
C. Wideman, W. Lehman, F. Marshall and Dr. N. Smith again pleased the large audience with several well rendered numbers. Comment on the concert would not be complete without paying tribute to Miss Lehman for the efficient way in which she presided at the piano in the capacity of accompanist for chorus and violinist.

The success of the concert must be gratifying to both the conductor and the Society and Stouffville is to be congratulated on having such a fine organization in its midst.

BLOOMINGTON

The snow banks are still deep in the north

We read in last weeks paper of a new combination of musicians, Mr. Malcolm Spencely of Claremont spent the weekend under the parental roof.

We hear there was a sleigh load of young people from here at Stouffville rink on Saturday night. Why were we left out?

A few from our hamlet attended Baker Hill church on Sunday night and heard a very thoughtful sermon delivered by pastor Whitcombe.

On Sunday Bruce Barnes was taken to the Toronto General Hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

The ninth line is always noted for its good roads, especially in winter.
At present it does not specialize in any one kind of travel, but is good for cars, cutters, sleighs, pedestrians jack rabbits etc.
A large crowd attended our S. S. on Sunday. The largest attendance being in the young peoples Bible Class, which is taught by Mr. Bruce Morton, whose services are greatly appreciated. He is hard to equal as a teacher.

A large number from our burg attended the Choral concert in Stouffville on Friday night.
Bloomington was well represented in the Choral Class by Misses Laura Hill, Eva Ramer, Ruth Story, and Mr. Eldon Smith and John Burnett.
It takes Bloomington to produce the squealers and rope pullers.

We read in last weeks paper of a
new combination of musicians,
"Padewski", "Mendelssohn Choir".
Who have heard them? The correct combination was:—The pianist sounded like Padewski junior and the songsters resembled the Mendelsohn Choir is no other instrumentality that can handle more than 20 per cent. of these requirements. It was stated recently in an address in New York City.
